GLOBAL STUDIES

B.A. Degree

The Global Studies major seeks to instill in students a solid knowledge of particular cultures, while also providing training in the analysis of global connections - a way of preparing them to tackle the world of the 21st century. Global Studies majors are encouraged to become both global thinkers and global participants. They learn how to relate their knowledge of a particular part of the world to the larger trends and issues that affect all peoples: the interconnections of the human and nonhuman environments; the transitional interactions of cultures, economies, politics; the globalizing processes of communication, technological, and science; the search for world peace, prosperity, and justice; and the sometimes violent political, ethnic, and religious reactions to what is often perceived as global hegemony by dominant cultures and economies.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES AND RELATED OCCUPATIONS:

The Major:

- Prepares students for graduate study in international studies, world affairs, policy studies, or cross-cultural studies, for professional study in law, or for service in governmental and non-governmental organizations;
- Gives students a solid Liberal Arts background for positions that involve decision-making in a changing world; and
- Draws on contemporary global trends as its organizing theme, and is distinctive in its comprehensive embrace of biological, cultural, economic, political, and social processes that render the contemporary world a seamless web.
