

Dear Friend of La Sierra University,

Do you have a teacher who was life changing for you? One who mentored and inspired you? One for whom you will be forever filled with gratitude?

We invite you to thank this special educator in a tangible way for the difference they made in your life. One way you can do this is to select one of the options listed here for honoring an educator in the Garden of Gratitude, located by the School of Education.

Along with the recognition in the garden, you'll be asked to write a one-page tribute for the "Honoring Educators" memory book displayed in the School of Education. Reading these tributes will be an inspiring experience for our students, alumni and visitors.

A portion of the proceeds from this project go to benefit our future educators by providing scholarship and professional development opportunities.

I would like to honor an educator with the following option
(a School of Education representative will call you to confirm):
