BUSINESS & SOCIETY

Bachelor of Science

The La Sierra University Zapara School of Business develops leaders who create value and make a difference and enlarge human understanding of business and society. The School's curricula emphasize workplace spirituality, social entrepreneurship, and ethics. The focused study of these themes as part of the business curriculum fosters intellectual development and expands students' moral and spiritual horizons. Immersion activities simultaneously express its commitments to excellence in the School's areas of distinctive competence and provide students with the chance to develop appropriate habits and skills.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES AND RELATED OCCUPATIONS: The Bachelor of Science in Business and Society is designed especially to prepare business students for the study and practice of law, with a particular emphasis and business and economic issues related to law.

EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS: Most paralegals and legal assistants have an associate's degree in paralegal studies, or a bachelor's degree in another field and a certificate in paralegal studies. Employers sometimes hire college graduates with no legal experience or legal education and train them on the job. In these cases, the new employee may have experience in a technical field that is useful to law firms, such tax preparation, nursing, or criminal justice. Formal requirements to become a lawyer usually include a 4-year college degree, 3 years of law school, and passing a written bar examination.

JOB OUTLOOK: Employment of paralegals and legal assistants is projected to grow 8 percent from 2014 to 2024, about as fast as the average for all occupations. Employment of lawyers is projected to grow 6 percent from 2014 to 2024, about as fast as the average for all occupations.

SALARY: The median annual wage for paralegals and legal assistants was $48,810 in May 2015. The lowest 10 percent earned less than $30,670, and the highest 10 percent earned more than $79,010. The median annual wage for lawyers was $115,820 in May 2015. The lowest 10 percent earned less than $55,870, and the highest 10 percent earned more than $187,200.
