An Overview of La Sierra University

History of La Sierra

La Sierra University is a coeducational institution of higher education affiliated with the Seventh-day Adventist Church. As La Sierra Academy, it opened its doors in 1922 on acreage that had been part of an 1846 Mexican land grant known as Rancho La Sierra; its location is now in the city of Riverside. In 1923, with the addition of teacher-training coursework, it became La Sierra Academy and Normal School. As its range of offerings expanded, it became Southern California Junior College (in 1927) and then La Sierra College (in 1939). It was accredited as a four-year liberal arts college in 1946.

In 1967, La Sierra College merged with Loma Linda University; the programs based on the La Sierra campus became the university's College of Arts and Sciences. The School of Education was created in 1968, followed in 1986 by the School of Business and in 1987 by the School of Religion. The Evening Adult Degree program (currently known as the Division of Continuing Studies) also began operation in 1986. What had been Loma Linda University's La Sierra campus became an independent institution, now La Sierra University, in 1990.

La Sierra University Today

La Sierra University is a Christian coeducational institution located in inland Southern California and is part of the Seventh-day Adventist system of higher education.

The University offers graduate and undergraduate curricula in applied and liberal arts and sciences, business, and religion; graduate curricula in education; and programs for professional education in fulfillment of requirements for teaching credentials.

Intellectual pursuits are facilitated by the University's library, museums, observatory, arboretum, Brandstater Gallery, Micol, Learning Support and Testing Center, Center for Student Academic Success, Hancock and Stahl Centers, and other campus resources. In an effort to create students that are at their best in every capacity, the University also encourages physical fitness through such activities as intramural and varsity sports and physical education courses. In addition, the campus maintains swimming pools; a fitness center; track, tennis, basketball, and volleyball courts; and soccer and baseball fields.

The University buildings are on a gentle slope looking eastward over the Riverside valley, with its world-famous citrus and walnut groves and its palm-lined boulevards. The approximately 300 acres owned by the University allow, during the winter months, for the snow-clad peaks of the surrounding ranges to be seen rising above the rolling open fields. This glimpse of the Inland Empire, as seen from the University campus, offers a view of rare beauty.

The convenient access to Southern California's wide range of both participatory and spectator activities enables the University to offer a multitude of unique cultural and educational experiences appropriate for the responsible student.

Mission Statement

As members of the diverse La Sierra University community, we are committed to inquiry, learning, and service. Our community is rooted in the Christian gospel and Seventh-day Adventist values and ideals. Our mission is:

- to seek truth,
- enlarging human understanding through scholarship;
- to know God, ourselves, and the world
- through reflection, instruction, and mentoring;
- to serve others,
- contributing to the good of our local and global communities.

We pursue this mission with excellence, integrity, compassion, and mutual respect.

Aims of the University

As a community of learning that is also a community of faith, La Sierra University fulfills its mission by engaging in three kinds of activity. It educates undergraduate and graduate students; it promotes research in the areas in which it offers instruction; and it contributes to the good of the larger society.

The University educates its students through a broad offering of studies in the liberal arts and sciences and in selected professional areas. It promotes research through encouraging and facilitating original investigation, critical reflection, and scholarly publication. It serves its various communities through adult education, resource centers, cultural events, nontechnical publications, and professional consultation. Among these varied activities, the University maintains, as a vital concern, the education of both its undergraduate and graduate students.

Thus this University operates in much the same way as most other universities do. The difference is, however, that the University functions and performs as the fruition of its Adventist heritage and commitment, even as it welcomes students from all religious and cultural backgrounds. The University’s religious orientation provides a perspective for its educational programs and projects, a motivation for its intellectual vitality and rigor, a framework for its moral values and lifestyle, and a basis for its social consciousness and public service. Convinced that God is the author of all truth, the University maintains an atmosphere of freedom and openness for intellectual exploration and expression.

As La Sierra University does its work of teaching, research, and service, it strives to exemplify its ideals of educational comprehensiveness, community interaction, and intellectual excellence.

The University intends to address the needs of a wide range of students who are both academically qualified for and genuinely interested in the kind of education it offers. It serves Adventist and non-Adventist high school graduates as well as transfer students from all parts of the world.

In addition, the University serves graduate and professional students within the areas of business, education, religion, and the liberal arts and sciences. It serves adult students whose education has been interrupted and who desire to complete the requirements for a university degree or credential. Meeting the needs of this wide diversity of students requires a corresponding diversity of educational programs and strategies.

The University intends, furthermore, to respond to the needs of students and teachers as whole persons. Accordingly, it seeks to challenge the intellect to acquire the knowledge and skills essential to an effective, productive, and satisfying life in the coming decades. It seeks to engage the spirit in establishing fundamental values and attitudes of moral integrity, intellectual curiosity, religious commitment, and social concern. It seeks to nurture a mature sense of personhood through the development of strong self-esteem and appropriate self-direction as well as significant interpersonal relationships. And it seeks to enhance the body by encouraging and facilitating lifelong physical well-being.

Believing that all humanity is created in the image of God, the University celebrates the diversity of race, national origin, gender, and age found in its students, faculty, and staff. The University recognizes this diversity as a valuable asset in the preparation of all its students for positions of service and leadership in their professions, in business, in government, in the civic community, and in the church.

The University intends to interact vigorously with its multidimensional world—including its founding and sponsoring church, its growing urban community in California’s Inland Empire, its neighboring educational institutions, and its wider intellectual and cultural environment in the world of the twenty-first century.
The University intends to teach its students how to make the world a better place in the future by involving them in making it a better place now. It intends to be, for both its religious and its secular publics, a significant influence by acting as a reasoned and relevant, critical and constructive voice; a light on the way to the future; and a source of knowledge and energy for responding to a wide spectrum of human needs.

The University intends to promote intellectual excellence in four complementary ways. It seeks to encourage and enable each student to learn as much as he or she can. It seeks to draw individual students into the ongoing scholarly conversation in their own academic and professional disciplines. It seeks to prepare students both for further education in graduate and professional schools and for employment in the world they will inhabit in the future. And it seeks to initiate students into a responsible life that is intelligent and informed, unselfish and involved, open and growing.

In its drive toward recognized excellence, the University intends to recruit, support, and nurture teacher-scholars who are distinguished for their intellectual competence and vigor; for the breadth and depth of their educational background; for their continuing involvement in research, reflection, and publication; for their personal integrity and religious commitment; and for their enthusiasm toward teaching.

Besides promoting research and publication by both faculty and students, the University intends to develop courses and curricula that will anticipate the future opportunities and needs of its graduates.

Although there is room for growth in student enrollment and educational programs, La Sierra University intends to maintain among its students, faculty, and staff a quality of personal relationship that energizes and enriches all of its activities of teaching, research and learning, and service.
La Sierra University Guidelines

Affirmative Action

La Sierra University affirms that Christian principles are not compatible with various forms of discrimination which have often permeated and divided modern societies. This belief is based on the idea that all persons are of equal worth in the sight of God and should be respected accordingly. Moreover, the University recognizes that this nation was founded upon the ideal of equal opportunity for each individual to realize his or her fullest potential. Therefore the University is committed to teaching and practicing equality.

The University reserves the right to disagree with specific remedies and regulations that may be proposed to eradicate discrimination. Although the University is not legally required to have a written policy of affirmative action, it has established this policy as a guide to its employees, supporters, and students, to assist in promoting equal opportunity throughout the University.

The University endeavors to maintain a balance between affirmatively seeking to assist those in a disadvantaged class and providing equal opportunity for all individuals, whether or not they are in such a class. In an atmosphere of cooperation and understanding among all concerned, the University is committed to going beyond the requirements of legislation, litigation, and social pressure.

The complete statement regarding the University’s policy and program of affirmative action is available at the offices of the President, the Provost, Human Resources, and Student Life.

Nondiscrimination

La Sierra University is committed to equal education and employment opportunities for men and women of all races and does not discriminate on the basis of disability, sex, race, color, or national origin in its educational and admissions policies, financial affairs, employment programs, student life and services, or any University-administered program.

To this end, the University is in compliance with Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 as amended, and substantial compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (45 CFR 86 et seq.) and Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The University also complies with the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 and Section 402 of the Vietnam Era Veterans Adjustment Act of 1974 and does not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment on the basis of age or because they are disabled veterans or veterans of the Vietnam era. In addition, the University administers student programs without discrimination on the basis of age, except in those programs where age is a bona fide academic qualification for admission in accordance with the provisions of the Age Discrimination Act of 1975.

The University reserves constitutional and statutory rights as a religious institution and employer to give preference to Seventh-day Adventists in admissions and employment, including but not limited to 42 USC 2000e-1, 2000e-2, 6-15 of Federal Executive order 11246; 41 CFR 60-1.5(5); 34 CFR 86.21, 86.31, 86.40, and 86.57 (b); California Government Code sections 12926(c); and Title 2, Section 7286.5(a) (5) and Title 22 Section 98222 of the California Administrative Code. The University believes that Title IX regulations are subject to constitutional guarantees against unreasonable entanglement with or infringements on religious teachings and expects students and employees to uphold Biblical principles of morality and deportment as interpreted by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The University claims exemptions from the provisions of the Title IX set forth in CFR Sections 86.21, 86.31, 86.40, and 86.57(b) insofar as they conflict with Church teachings and practices of morality, department and appearance. The complete statement regarding the University’s policy and program of nondiscrimination is available at the offices of the President, the Provost, Human Resources, and Student Life.

Discrimination and Harassment Policy

La Sierra University is committed to providing an educational and employment environment that values individuals of diverse backgrounds who can advance the institution’s mission and support a learning and workplace setting free from discrimination and harassment. In keeping with this commitment, the University expects all University employees and students to conform to the requirements of federal and state law as well as standards of conduct mandated by the institution concerning discrimination and harassment matters. The University also encourages persons subjected to or who witness any forms of discrimination and harassment - or retaliatory conduct arising from complaints of discrimination and harassment - to report such behaviors and incidents to appropriate university personnel as set forth more fully below.
General Application:

I. Protected Classifications: Discrimination and harassment are prohibited against any person on the basis of race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, marital status, age, veteran status, medical condition, physical handicap, or other protected classification as defined by federal or state law.

II. Applicable Activities: Discrimination and harassment are prohibited in the University's admissions and educational policies, employment programs, financial affairs, student life and campus services, or any related institutionally-administered or supported programs.

Forms of Prohibited Behaviors:

I. Discrimination is defined as prejudicial and/or harmful actions taken against a person on the basis of a protected classification as reflected in the aforementioned statement.

II. Harassment is defined as verbal, physical and/or visual conduct that creates an intimidating, offensive or hostile working or learning environment or that unreasonably interferes with a person's work or academic performance.

III. Sexual Harassment:

   A. Definition: Sexual Harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature where

      i. Submission to such conduct is made explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a person's employment or status in a course, program or activity; or

      ii. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as a basis for an academic or employment decision adversely affecting that person; or

      iii. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's work or academic performance, or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive learning or work environment.

   B. Forms of Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment can be objectively and readily identifiable, relative to the specific circumstances and relations of the persons involved, or it can be of a nature seemingly harmless to many yet subjectively perceived by some persons as unwelcome and offensive. The following constitute examples of conduct and situations representative of sexual harassment:

      i. Physical assault:

      ii. Direct or implied threats that submission to sexual advances will be a condition of a grade, letters of recommendation or employment retention or promotion;

      iii. Direct or subtle propositions of a sexual nature;

      iv. Sexual references or sexually explicit statements unrelated to legitimate matters of employment or education, including but not limited to: sexual questions, jokes, anecdotes, remarks concerning the sexual nature of another's clothing, sexual activity, sexual preference, or speculations about a person's previous sexual experience.

      v. Unnecessary and/or unwanted touching, patting, hugging or brushing against another's body;

      vi. Displaying posters, calendars, graffiti, symbols, or other visual objects or images of a sexually explicit or suggestive nature unrelated to legitimate matters of employment or education; and

      vii. Using computers, including the Internet, E-mail, Twitter and related systems of communications to transmit or receive text or images of a sexually explicit or suggestive nature unrelated to legitimate matters of employment or education.

IV. Retaliation is defined as inappropriate words or actions directed against persons who consider or register discrimination, harassment or retaliation complaints, or against persons who assist with or participate in an investigation of the reported conduct.

Responsibilities in Recognizing and Reporting Discrimination or Harassment

I. Recognizing Discrimination or Harassment: Administrators, Faculty, Staff and Students should be alert to identifying forms of discrimination and harassment, whether such incidents take place in the course of workplace responsibilities, academic endeavors, or social activities related in any way or form to the life of the University.

II. Reporting Responsibilities of Administrators, Faculty and Supervisory Personnel: Persons employed by the University as Administrators, Faculty members, and/or who serve the institution in a supervisory capacity have a legal obligation to immediately address, and if necessary, report discriminatory, harassing, and retaliatory behaviors or conduct to the University’s Department of Human Resources (HR).

III. Reporting Discrimination and Harassment: Persons who believe that they have been subjected to a form of discrimination and/or harassment or Administrators, Faculty, Staff, or Students who have witnessed such incidents should:

A. Inform the perpetrator, only if feasible, that the conduct is considered offensive and should be terminated; and

B. Notify their supervisor, or if the supervisor is the alleged perpetrator, notify the supervisor’s superior to report the prohibited behavior; If the person reporting the discrimination and/or harassment is a student, the term “supervisor” is defined to be the La Sierra University employee who directly oversees the area where the incident occurred; and

C. In consultation with the supervisor and/or HR determine if the incident warrants written documentation. If it is deemed necessary the reporting person shall state in writing, in consultation in HR, accurately and truthfully the facts of the incident(s), the date and approximate time of each event, and name(s) of the person(s) involved.

IV. Deciphering Discrimination and Harassment: If a complainant or other concerned persons are in doubt about whether forms of unlawful discrimination or harassment have occurred, he or she should contact HR for clarification and assistance.

Refaining from Retaliation Against Discrimination or Harassment Complaints

Retaliation against employees or students for considering or registering complaints of discrimination or harassment, or against such persons who assist with or participate in an investigation of the complaint, shall be prohibited and subject to the same reporting and disciplinary actions set forth in the section above.

The complete statement regarding the La Sierra University discrimination and harassment policy is available at the offices of the President, the Provost, Human Resources, and Student Life.

Drug Free Worksite

La Sierra University is committed to providing a learning environment conducive to the fullest possible human development. To achieve this goal, the University holds that a drug-, alcohol- and tobacco-free lifestyle is essential. Thus the University maintains policies that seek a campus environment free of those substances. The University intends to maintain a drug-free workplace in harmony with federal and state laws. The unlawful use, possession, distribution, dispersal, or manufacture of controlled substances by its employees, whether student, faculty, or staff, is prohibited. Furthermore, the University expects any person employed by the University, who receives federal or state funding as an individual, to certify that he or she will not engage in the unlawful use or manufacture of a controlled substance while associated with the University.

In addition to these legal requirements, the University follows the health and temperance practices espoused by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. This means that all students, faculty, and staff are required to refrain from the use of alcohol, drugs, and/or tobacco while enrolled or employed at the University. Failure to comply with this policy will result in discipline up to, and including, expulsion or termination and, if appropriate, a referral to law enforcement agencies for prosecution.

The University offers a preventative educational program to its students, faculty, and staff to develop an awareness of the risks involved in alcohol, tobacco, and drug use and abuse and to promote the benefits of a lifestyle free of these substances. The University may, at its discretion, provide therapeutic alternatives for anyone in the University involved in the use of alcohol, tobacco, prescription or nonprescription drugs, and/or other mood altering substances which impair the appropriate functioning of the involved individual within the University community.

The complete statement regarding the La Sierra University drug-free worksite policy is available at the offices of the President, the Provost, Human Resources, and Student Life.

AIDS Education and Prevention

In response to the epidemic of infection with the Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV), which causes Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome (AIDS), La Sierra University affirms its agreement with the general statement on AIDS prepared by the American College Health Association. The University recognizes its responsibility to its students, faculty, and staff to do everything possible to prevent people from being infected and to provide compassionate care for all concerned individuals.
The HIV infection is potentially lethal, but it is preventable. La Sierra University upholds Biblical standards of premarital chastity and a totally monogamous heterosexual relationship following marriage as one of the best means of protection against HIV infection. The University opposes drug abuse in any form as an additional means of protection against infection, including intravenous drug abuse.

In accord with an action taken by the President’s Committee [December 6, 1990], the University mandates a program of education that reaches every student, faculty, and staff member. This program includes, but is not limited to, offering information on the means of transmission of the virus, the high risk behaviors associated with transmission, the best ways of preventing transmission of the virus, the sites for and means of HIV testing, and the ways to show compassionate concern for those in any stage of HIV infection. Such education shall be in accord with the latest information provided by the Centers for Disease Control, United States Public Health Service.

The complete statement regarding the La Sierra University AIDS education and prevention policy is available at the offices of the President, the Provost, Human Resources, and Student Life.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy

The La Sierra University Student Records Policy was developed in accordance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), commonly referred to as the Buckley Amendment. This law was enacted to protect the privacy of students and to provide for the right to inspect and review educational records. Any questions concerning this amendment may be directed to the Records Office.

La Sierra University complies strictly with all provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), a federal statute passed into law in 1974 that provides the basis for dealing with student information at post-secondary educational institutions. FERPA regulations ensure a minimum standard for the access to, the use of, and the release of information from education records. All students have:

A. The right to inspect and review their education records within a reasonable time frame. Students should submit to the registrar, dean, head of academic department, or other appropriate official, written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. The university official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the university official to whom the request was submitted, that official shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be submitted.

B. The right to request the amendment of their education records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading. Students may ask the university to amend a record they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write the university official responsible for the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the university decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the university will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

C. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in their education records, except to the extent that university policy authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the university in a managerial, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position (including law enforcement personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the university has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility.

D. The right to file a complaint to the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the university to comply with the requirements of FERPA. Complaints can be directed to:

Family Policy Compliance Office,
U.S. Department of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW. Washington, D.C. 20202 – 4605.
E. The right to withhold the release of directory information. Directory information may be released by the university to third parties as it sees fit without authorization. Directory Information shall include information in an educational record which would not generally be considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if released, including but not limited to:

- Student Name
- Local Address and Phone Number
- E-mail Address
- Date and Place of Birth
- Degrees and Awards Received and Dates
- Dates of Attendance (Current or Past)
- Full or Part-time Enrollment Status
- Participation in Officially Recognized Activities
- Weight/Height of Members of Athletic Teams
- Most Recently Attended Educational Institution
- Major Field of study
- Academic Level
- Residency Status
- Photographs

Students have the right to have the above directory information withheld completely. This means the university will not release any information from the educational record, including the items listed above, without prior written consent from the student. If a student withholds directory information, his or her name will not appear in the student directory or SALSU Perspectives unless they authorize the Perspectives staff to do so. To request directory information be withheld, the student must complete a form at the Records Office. The form remains in effect through the end of the academic year and must be resubmitted annually.

La Sierra University does not release any student’s directory information to vendors for commercial purposes (credit card agencies, magazine sales, etc.).

Further information about the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, subsequent amendments, and HEW guidelines are available at the Records Office and the offices of each University college and school dean. Additional information can also be found in the Student Handbook.

Academic Services

Archaeological Excavations

La Sierra University, in a consortium arrangement with other educational institutions, is the primary sponsor of archaeological excavations in the Middle East. For many years it was associated with the project at Caesarea Maritima. Since 1993 it has also been a part of the Madaba Plains Project in Jordan and currently directs excavations at Tall al-‘Umayri, Jordan. Participating students may earn either undergraduate or graduate credit for the course Fieldwork in Middle East Archaeology and other classes. Inquire in the HMS Richards Divinity School dean’s office for more information.

Disability Support Services

La Sierra University is committed to ensuring equal educational opportunities to students who have a documented disability and are entitled to reasonable accommodations in accordance with the American Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The Director of the Office of Disability Services (ODS), located in Room 100 of the Learning Support & Testing Center (lower level of La Sierra Hall), is available to meet with students regarding documentation guidelines for qualifying disabling conditions. The director of the ODS evaluates the documentation, works with the student to determine appropriate accommodations, and then makes arrangements for those approved accommodations. The type of accommodations provided depends on the nature of the functional limitation that the student is presented with as a result of the disability and could include services such as extended time on tests, testing in a distraction-reduced environment, note-takers, books on tape/CD, e-texts, assistive technology, etc. Students suspecting any kind of undiagnosed disability may contact the ODS to discuss concerns, documentation guidelines, and referrals for testing and/or assessment. For more information, please contact the Director of the Office of Disability Services at 951-785-2453 or ability@lasierra.edu.

International Student Services

Located in the Administration Building, Room 206, the Office of International Student Services provides all La Sierra University international students with information and assistance in such areas as student visas, health insurance, airport transportation, employment authorization, and orientation. For more information, contact the Office of International Student Services at 951-785-2237.

Learning Support & Testing Center

The centrally-located Learning Support and Testing Center offers students a quiet study atmosphere as well as a variety of resources to enhance academic progress. Services include small-group study rooms, tutoring in all math and science areas, math instructional support workshops, video and DVD reviews of math and statistics texts, study skills assistance, computer tutorials, select reviews of major professional tests, and general academic support. All undergraduate and graduate testing is centralized here. For more information about the services, please call 951-785-2453.

Graduate Testing Services

Graduate testing is located in the Learning Support and Testing Center in La Sierra Hall, Suite 100. The LSTC administers tests applicable to further studies, including the subject area tests of the Graduate Record Examination (GRE); the Law School Admission Test (LSAT); the Miller Analogies Test (MAT); and the Professional Assessments for Beginning Teachers (PRAXIS series), which includes the Multiple Subject Assessment Test (MSAT), the Preprofessional Skills Test (PPST), and the Specialty Area/Subject Assessments Examinations. Each test also has a website, which can be found on the web or through the appropriate links at the LSTC website (www.lasierra.edu/lstc). The LSTC also supplies flyers and bulletins for other tests not given in the La Sierra University Testing center. For more information, including test dates and fees, contact the LSTC at (951) 785-2453.

Student Teacher Services

A curriculum resource center and media services center, a music education laboratory, and a psychometry laboratory provide practicums and services to students of the School of Education, to other schools of the University, and to the professional community.

Teaching Credentials

A credentials office is maintained by the School of Education. Students should direct questions to the credentials analyst in the School of Education, where they may also apply for California State and Seventh-day Adventist teaching and service credentials.

Writing Center

The Writing Center assists La Sierra University students with written communication, such as essays and research papers. In the Writing Center students can talk one-on-one with a
On-Campus Academic Opportunities

Enactus

Enactus is an international non-profit organization that works with leaders in business and higher education to mobilize university students to make a difference in their communities while developing the skills to become socially responsible business leaders. Student teams on over 1,500 campuses in 39 countries apply business concepts to develop outreach projects that improve the quality of life and standard of living for people in need. An annual series of regional, national, and international competitions provides a forum for teams to present the results of their projects, and be evaluated by business leaders serving as judges. In addition to the community-serving aspect of the program, Enactus’ leadership and career initiatives create meaningful opportunities for learning and exchange as well as the placement of students and alumni with companies in search of emerging talent.

Organized in 1991, the La Sierra University Enactus team is sponsored by the Zapara School of Business. The team’s many educational and service projects have had a tremendous impact on our local and global community, further validated by the team’s six Enactus National and International Championship wins, including two Enactus World Cup competitions in 2002 and 2007. The team invites students from all disciplines who are interested in developing their potential in leadership, entrepreneurship, and social responsibility to join the organization, resulting in a group rich with diverse academic and cultural backgrounds. Led by students and supported by Sam Walton Fellows John Razzouk, Marvin Payne, and Warren Trenchard, the team’s work actively embodies the mission of the university. Learn more at lasierra.edu/enactus.

Out-Reach

Community Service

La Sierra University offers students a variety of outreach programs through the Homebase Office. Students seeking the blessing of service can participate in community mission projects organized through our short-term mission office. Service-Learning courses provide students with the opportunity to apply classroom learning in service to the community. The considerable number of Seventh-day Adventist churches in the area enables students to gain experience serving large and small congregations. For more information, refer to the “Service-Learning” portion of the University Studies Program section of this bulletin.

Student Missions

Short-term Mission Projects

The Office of Spiritual Life has developed a program tied to their Missions Office that is designed to encourage students and faculty alike to participate in a life of servitude. Short-term mission projects (comprised of one to four week projects) are being planned for each quarter and are offered to students as a service choice during every break. Trips range in price from $500 - $3000, although the Office of Spiritual Life is currently trying to establish funds based on donations and sponsorships to defray the cost for each student. The goal of the Short-term Missions Program of the Office of Spiritual Life is to provide enough short-term mission opportunities for each and every student to experience the life-changing effects of service at least once before transitioning from La Sierra.

Over the past three years the short-term opportunities have included five trips to the Gulf States, offering support for those affected by Hurricane Katrina; four trips to Mexico, building homes for families in need; a trip to Puerto Rico, helping to restore a local school; a trip to Kenya, assisting in building a church for the Masai people; and a trip to Tanzania, working in a local clinic to help AIDS children and mothers.

Overall, the Short-term Missions program has sent over 100 students to 12 locations, affecting thousands of individuals throughout the world. It is the hope of both La Sierra University and the Office of Spiritual Life that, after students encounter La Sierra University, they will not only find a deeper understanding of what it means to be human, but they will also realize what it means to be an active Christian within a greater global community.

Long-term Missions

The La Sierra University Long-term Missions Program, a part of the Office of Spiritual Life, aims to offer students, and community members at large, a unique opportunity to worship, witness, and work in a venue that will change their lives forever. Primarily based in the international arena, individuals who choose to spend a year away from the campus are involved in volunteer activities that run the gauntlet. Previous missions have included, but not been limited to, students teaching at multi-grade classrooms in the Micronesian Islands, acting as deans to academy students in Europe, working at medical clinics in Africa, and serving as English Language tutors in Korea.

Students wanting to volunteer their time and talent should consult with the Missions Office, which is designed to help in aiding and screening the prospective missionary with call placements; travel arrangements; academic deferments; fund-raising; and overall preparation in regards to mental, physical, and spiritual health.

The Missions Office also offers students the ability to travel for shorter periods of time, such as during the summer and for individual quarters. Summer trips have included such activities as teaching summer school abroad, working at orphanages, and participating in evangelistic trips, just to name a few. Organizations that have assisted in these trips include the Adventist Volunteer Services, with the General Conference; Share Him Evangelism; the Quiet Hour; as well as other independent ministries. The Missions Office continues to work with these organizations, and others, to ensure that they can help La Sierra University students answer the call to serve.

For more information on becoming involved in world missions, please go online at www.lasierra.edu/missions, send an email to missions@lasierra.edu, or call the Office of Spiritual Life 951-785-2090.

Campus Resources

Alumni Association

The Alumni Association welcomes all former students of La Sierra; there are no membership fees. Alumni have access to collections of yearbooks, student newspapers, alumni-authored books, and CDs by alumni artists. These are housed at the Alumni Center on Pierce Street. In addition, the Alumni Center is available for social occasions such as wedding receptions, graduation parties, and meetings of all kinds.

Alumni can stay connected in a variety of ways, including the alumni web site (www.lasierraconnect.net); the alumni magazine, the La Sierra University Magazine; the alumni email newsletter; and the La Sierra University Alumni group on Facebook. Alumni are also invited to off-campus gatherings hosted by university administrators and faculty as they travel to locations around the world.

The Alumni Association strives for a positive working relationship between alumni and the University. It facilitates opportunities for former students to support their alma mater through gifts of time, professional expertise, financial means, and their good word.

Campus Pastor

The campus pastor ministers to students’ needs by providing spiritual direction and nurture, opportunities for outreach in the community, pastoral counseling, engaged couples’ coaching, worship services, and Bible study groups.

Fitness Center

The Fitness Center is located in the Alumni Pavilion. Membership is open to students, faculty, and staff. The 4,500 sq. ft. room contains treadmills, ellipticals, bicycles, and stair-steppers; 19 individualized weight stations; and a complete free weight area that includes six Olympic benches, dumbbell benches, dumbbells, and other stations including the how’s of operation. For more information, contact the Fitness Center at 951-785-2514 or the web page at www.lasierra.edu/nes.

Hancock Center for Youth & Family Ministry

The HMS Richards Divinity School faculty have long been recognized as a leading resource of skills and materials for helping young people develop in their personal relationship to Jesus Christ. This resource exists as the John Hancock Center for Youth and Family Ministry. Named after an outstanding Seventh-day Adventist leader in the spiritual nurture of young people, the center provides help and information to youth and family workers throughout North America and increasingly to others abroad. Services to Adventist and other Christian pastors and teachers include research (such as ValueGenesis), workshops, and educational programs. For further information please contact the director of the Hancock Center at 951-785-2514 or the web page at www.lasierra.edu/hes.

Recreation

At La Sierra University, physical fitness is promoted by various recreational activities, such as intramural and varsity sports. The location of La Sierra University is a real advantage to students interested in personal recreation as well as in the University’s physical education classes. Not only are there campus activity areas such as lighted tennis courts, a track and fields, three pools, and other facilities which can be used almost every day of the year, but nearby there are mountains (with hiking, camping, winter skiing, etc.); deserts (with rock climbing, wilderness survival, etc.); and beaches and lakes (with scuba, sailing, etc.).

Student Association of La Sierra University

The Student Association of La Sierra University (SALSU) attempts to involve students in all areas of campus life. Among these are the promotion of spiritual activities; participation in social events; and production of the student news magazine, the Criterion, and the student directory, Perspectives. A list of other campus organizations, through which the student may gain extracurricular experience, is printed in the Office of Student Life section of this bulletin, in the Student Handbook, and online at www.lasierra.edu/slife.
Student Employment Program

The Human Resources Department (HRD), in collaboration with the Payroll Department, directs the employment and payroll functions for all La Sierra University graduate and undergraduate students. The HRD is dedicated to bringing the best service possible to the Student Employment Program by offering students the opportunity of gaining work experience. The Student Employment Program helps carry out the daily operations of the institution, while ensuring compliance with federal, state, and university regulations and policies. For more information, contact HRD, located in the Administration Building, Room 220 at 951-785-2088.

Women's Resource Center

The Women's Resource Center serves students and faculty by providing information, resources, and support with regards to gender issues. The Women's Resource Center encourages and advocates for women clergy in the Seventh-day Adventist Church and for those studying for ministry. It collaborates to increase awareness of abuse of women and provides resources for healing. The Center also focuses on career and leadership development of women in all professions, both for students and those already in the workplace. The Women's Resource Center offers opportunities to celebrate the accomplishments and contributions of Adventist women to their world and church. To this effect, the Center sponsors lectures and events, gathers material concerning the experiences and services of women, develops resources on women and the Bible, and supports gender equality within the Adventist Church. For more information contact the director at 951-785-2470 or visit www.adventistwomenscenter.org.

La Sierra Information Technology Services

Academic Technology Services

The Academic Technology Services (ATS), under the IT department, manages the public computer labs, the Smart Computer Classrooms, classroom multi-media technology, and other multi-media services or equipment. Video and audio-visual equipment is available to classrooms. While most of the classrooms on campus are installed with multi-media projection equipment, ATS also provides mobile equipment and service to areas that do not have multi-media access.

For further information on the computing facilities and services, contact the director of Computer Information Services at 951-785-2904 or visit www.lasierra.edu/IT.

Computer Facilities

La Sierra University proudly boasts a comprehensive, state-of-the-art computing facility. Ambs Hall houses the general purpose Microcomputer Lab (MICOL), Smart Computer Classrooms, and major University servers. Ambs Hall is also the central control of the campus's high speed, fiber-optic network infrastructure. From this building, a private wireless network is available to students, faculty, staff, and friends. In addition to these main campus computer labs, various buildings have specialized computer labs available to faculty and students. For more information concerning these specialized labs, contact the individual schools or departments.

Computer Laboratories

The computer labs around campus provide the students and faculty with the available computer equipment to assist in their research, coursework, and creation of electronic materials. The labs are equipped with both PC and Macintosh computers. In both cases, most of the latest software is installed.

Software

Software packages including general purpose word-processing, the Internet, spreadsheet, and desktop/graphic design are available at the campus computer labs. In some of the more specialized labs, software such as video editing, statistical software, language learning software, and music composition software have been installed for the student's use.

University Network

The University uses a high-speed fiber-optic backbone to connect all computers on campus to the main servers and to the Internet. A private, campus-wide wireless network is also available. Students, faculty, staff and friends may obtain high-speed wireless access in virtually every part of the campus.

Residence Hall Network

Students residing in any residence hall on campus have access to the campus-wide network from their rooms. One Ethernet network connection is provided per person and allows a personal computer to attach to the University network.

University Servers

The office of Information Technology (IT) operates a variety of servers, including Sun, Linux, Apple, and Microsoft servers. These machines service a host of application systems. They are used to assist various facets of the University including, but not limited to, academic advising functions, accounting and Human Resources, the cafeteria system, copy and print functions, course management systems, dorm management systems, email functions, environmental monitoring systems, fund-raising systems, keyless entry and surveillance systems, the Library, multi-media services, research databases, student information and financial systems, telephone management systems, and web-serving functions.
La Sierra Library

Collections

Book collections number about 215,000 volumes. These are supplemented with more than 40,000 bound journal volumes representing nearly 1,000 currently received journal titles. However, the strength of the current journal collection is in the more than 35,000 periodical titles available full-text in electronic format. The online collection also includes about 50,000 books. Extensive audiovisual collections, including microfilms, microfiche, micro cards, compact discs, and videotapes, augment the print and electronic resources of the Library. The holdings of this audiovisual collection total about 385,000 items.

Special Collections

Special Collections in the Library’s Heritage Room and Ellen G. White Study Center support the curriculum with materials on the history of Adventism and the religious roots of the University. Another strength of this collection is its educational materials that cover the origin and development of the Seventh-day Adventist education system. The William M. Landeen Collection on the History of Christianity contains English and foreign language materials related to the Protestant Reformation.

Curriculum Resource Center

The Curriculum Resource Center supports the teacher education programs of the University with a collection of elementary and secondary textbooks.

Media Services

The Library Media Services provides a circulating collection of audio, video, and multi-media instructional materials. Faculty may place items on reserve for student listening and viewing. Equipment is provided for on-site use of the collections, and a classroom is available for group instruction. Studio services are also provided by the Media staff.

Networking & Consortia

Computer networks link the Library to local and distant libraries. When resources outside the Library are needed, faculty, staff, and students are able to secure materials through interlibrary loan and other means. Participation in local, regional, and national information networks gives students and faculty access to the collections beyond the campus. On-demand delivery of library materials from more than 50 public and academic libraries in California and Nevada is routed through the LINK+ service. Interlibrary loans are made possible through the OCLC Interlibrary Loan network, which connects the La Sierra University Library to several thousand other libraries throughout North America.

Purpose

The Library enhances the quality of the academic experience available at La Sierra University by supporting the teaching, learning, and research activities of the faculty and students. To accomplish this purpose the Library has developed and maintains collections of books, journals, audiovisual and archival materials, and provides a wide range of information services that supplement the teaching and research activities carried on in the University.

Services

The Library’s professional staff are able to assist faculty and students in locating needed information for study or research purposes. The Library has an integrated library system with online public access catalog, circulation, reserve, serials control and acquisition systems. Online computer and Internet linked databases are available to students both on and off campus. Subscriptions to more than 100 electronic databases, as well as to other information resources, are available through the Internet. With these tools and others, information sources in collections owned by the Library, and at other locations, may rapidly be located.

HMS Richards Library

The Richards Library contains the personal book collection of Elder HMS Richards, Sr., developed over a half-century of ministry. Containing ten thousand volumes, it represents his personal investment, built up on the slender salary of an Adventist pastor. While he commanded great respect as one of America’s earliest radio evangelists, he always lived a very simple and modest life. The collection is built around standard reference works; the major encyclopedias, Bible commentaries, dictionaries, and other sources are represented here. Additionally, the collection spans many subjects, reflecting the breadth of Elder Richards’ interests. While strong in homiletics, evangelism, and radio broadcasting, it also has major sections of history, theology, and literature. There are many biographies of individuals whose life stories provide examples of faith and devotion. Once all volumes are cataloged, the library will be open for research.

Campus Features

Arboretum

In 1979, the trees on campus were surveyed and classified. When the extent of the campus tree collection was determined, it was decided that La Sierra University needed to catalogue the finest specimen of each species. This led to the preparation of a map showing the location of each tree, and name tags were put on the trees listing both the popular and scientific names.
With more than 100 different species on campus, a proclamation was issued in February of 1980, officially naming the campus an arboretum. Since that time thousands of visitors have come to the campus to study and enjoy the beauty of the tree collection.

Brandstater Gallery

Brandstater Gallery is part of the Visual Art Center at La Sierra University. The gallery was established in 1984, with a donation from the children of Roy and Frances Brandstater as a legacy to their parents. The Brandstater Gallery is dedicated to the intellectual and artistic life of the university, and is committed to collaboration with other institutions and the community at large. It provides the opportunity to interact with artists and artistic projects by featuring exhibits of regional, national, and international importance. The gallery provides students and graduates of the La Sierra University art program, a professional setting to exhibit artwork and projects required to complete their education.

Common Ground

The Common Ground park was established as a memorial to the son of a faculty member, and won a 1993 First Place Beautification Award from the Greater Riverside Chambers of Commerce. The park was built with funds contributed jointly by students, alumni, faculty, staff, and the University. It serves as a peaceful place for visitors, students, and others to talk or to meditate.

Eagle’s Nest

The Eagle’s Nest is an “oasis” in the center of campus with a Christian coffee house atmosphere. It sells hot and cold beverages along with cakes, muffins, sandwiches, pizzas, and soups. Each quarter, student art is displayed. Tuesday Tunes is a bi-weekly music event which may feature Christian folk, gospel, jazz, reggae, brass, or other musical genres being performed by artists from the campus and/or visiting musicians from the community.

Observatory

The Barnard Memorial Observatory, which was built by former faculty and students, provides the University and the community with the opportunity to view the heavens with a large telescope. One goal for this facility is that it may support one of the aims of the University, directing the minds of the users to the Creator of the heavens, by providing services for astronomy classes, interested University and community members, and interested community organizations. The facility is located high on a hill overlooking the campus and the eastern horizon and includes a 16-inch Cassegrain reflecting telescope and several smaller telescopes. Open Houses are staffed by University and guest astronomers and are held on a monthly basis, and by special request at other times. The observatory is operated by the Physics Department with the assistance of University faculty and staff from a variety of areas.

Stahl Center for World Service

The Fernando and Ana Stahl Center for World Service is committed to the mission of “passing a vision of world service to a new generation of students.” Based in the HMS Richards Divinity School and drawing upon other campus entities, the Center serves the World Church and the wider academic community by promoting world service tours and sponsoring lectureships, archives, and displays at La Sierra University and in other settings. For further information contact the Center director.

Global Piecemaking

This project is an extension of the ecumenical and international drive organized by La Sierra University’s Stahl Center to create thousands of infant quilts for AIDS babies and other displaced children worldwide. Following upon the heels of Global Village ‘92, an international development education project cosponsored with ADRA International, this project invites civic groups, Community Services federations, Pathfinder Clubs, churches, and schools to respond to the global AIDS epidemic in a most personal and practical manner. La Sierra University students, among others, continue to deliver quilts in such varied settings as US pediatric wards, African hospitals, Thailand AIDS hospices, and Armenian orphanages.

Path of the Just

Working in concert with the La Sierra University Administration, the Stahl Center initiated the idea of honoring individuals whose modern lives of altruistic service bore a distinct witness in facilitating human rights, individual empowerment, or religious toleration. Initial honorees included Ana and Fernando Stahl, Mother Teresa, John Weidner, Linda and Millard Fuller, Harry Miller, Desmond Tutu, Pearl S. Buck, and Dietrich Bonhoeffer.

Stahl Center Museum

The as-yet-unnamed Museum of Culture is a locus for such Stahl Center activities as seminars and lectures. The museum’s one hundred family collections include the Stahl Collection from Peru, the Senseman Collection from East Africa, the Eick Collection from the Peruvian Amazon, the Barnard Collection from New Guinea, the Zeismer Collection from West Africa, the Murray and Smith collections from the Andes, the Dybdahl Collection from the Philippines, the Ritchie Collection from Mexico, and the Christianson Collection from diverse locales. In addition to campus visitors, community groups regularly view the museum’s displays, bringing over one thousand guests to the campus each year. The 2011-2012 exhibit, “Down to the Sea in Ships,” features South Seas artifacts from the Bruce Halstead Family Collection.
World Museum of Natural History

The World Museum of Natural History, which is located in Cossentine Hall, was first opened to the public in Palmer Hall in 1981, and then later, in 1989, it was reopened in Cossentine Hall. The museum preparation building houses one of the finest museum freeze-dry facilities in the world.

Today the museum’s collections include:

- Displays unequalled in the United States of crocodilians, turtles, tortoises, lizards, and snakes.
- The largest display of Southeast Asian birds in the Western United States.
- Outstanding displays of primates, mammals, and carnivores.
- One of the world’s largest and finest collections of mineral spheres.
- Magnificent petrified woods from the Western United States.
- Mineral specimens from around the world, including fluorescent minerals, meteorites, and tektites.
- Ethnic cultural art including a Sujseki (Japanese-style contemplative stone).
- American Indian artifacts.

The museum cooperates with museums and zoos around the world and receives outstanding zoo mortalities. A permanent display featuring a lowland gorilla and an orangutan is located at the Los Angeles County Zoo.

The museum is open to the public Saturday afternoons from 2 PM - 5 PM. Museum tours are available to groups by appointment. The Museum attracts thousands of visitors annually. For further information about the museum, call 951-785-2209 on Saturday from 2-5 PM and 951-785 - 2500 during the week.

Center for Near Eastern Archaeology

The La Sierra University Center for Near Eastern Archaeology has been established for the purpose of focused research on and educational promotion of the archaeology of the Near East. By utilizing the expertise of a variety of individuals from across the campus, the Center offers resources and facilities to support archaeological research and present results to the university and the public. The Center hopes to appeal to students and afford them expanded classroom, lab and field opportunities for exposure to the history, peoples and cultures of the ancient Near East. It offers La Sierra faculty from several disciplines opportunities for research and publication in fields like archaeology, anthropology, art history, history, geography, the sciences and biblical studies. It also furnishes the university with a significant tool for public outreach to various constituencies, church and non-church related.

Additional Off-Campus Resources

La Sierra Elementary & Academy

La Sierra Elementary and Academy provide laboratory and demonstration opportunities. Additional fieldwork facilities are provided in the Alvord and Corona-Norco Unified School Districts, various other public school districts, and in numerous academies and elementary schools in the Southern and Southeastern California Conferences of Seventh-day Adventists K-12 school system.

Off campus

A partial list of frequent off-campus group activities of La Sierra University students from year to year include Newport Beach located activities such as whale watching cruises and the Christmas-lighted “Boat Parade;” games at the home stadiums and arenas of the Dodgers, Angels, Lakers, Clippers, Galaxy, Mighty Ducks, and Kings; concerts at the Hollywood Bowl and the Los Angeles Music Center; hiking and biking in the local mountains and deserts; hiking, water sports, and sunset vespers at the local beaches; visits to the San Diego Zoo and Safari Park, Sea World, Griffith Park Observatory, Disneyland, and Knott's Berry Farm; and trips to the J. Paul Getty, the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, the Museum of Tolerance, and the Huntington Library.
Graduate Admissions Information

Admission Information

La Sierra University examines evidence of scholastic competence, moral and ethical standards, and significant qualities of character and personality of each applicant.

The University reserves the right to refuse admission to any applicant on the basis of the foregoing considerations or to any applicant who, on the application, deliberately omits pertinent information, and/or purposely supplies wrongful information. Such subterfuge, if discovered later, may cause a student to be subject to dismissal.

Application and Acceptance

Where to write

Inquiries about admission and acceptance should be addressed to:

Office of Admissions
La Sierra University
4500 Riverwalk Parkway
Riverside, California 92515-8247

Toll free number: (800) 874-5587
Telephone: (951) 785-2176
Fax: (951) 785-2447
E-mail: admissions@lasierra.edu
Website: www.lasierra.edu/admissions

Procedure

I. Applicants must submit the following:

A. APPLICATION: Submit a completed application form (either the paper or online version), and a personal statement/essay. (An applicant requesting any accommodation because of any physical or learning disability or handicap should so specify at the time of application so that the University may assist.)

B. TRANSCRIPTS: Arrange for complete official and final transcripts from all colleges, universities, and professional or technical schools attended, to be mailed directly from each school to the Office of Admissions at La Sierra University. Transcripts that are not mailed directly from the issuing educational institution will be considered unofficial, even if sent in the sealed envelope and/or faxed.

NOTE: Unofficial copies of transcripts can be used for the initial review and acceptance of an application file. The official copies should be received in the Office of Admissions by the second week of the first quarter of attendance. Subsequent enrollment is contingent on the receipt of official transcripts before the second quarter of attendance. Official transcripts are needed in order to process requests for financial aid.

C. RECOMMENDATIONS: For graduate programs through the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Education, and School of Religion-three recommendations are required from professional people (not related to you) who can evaluate on your (a) character; (b) academics; (c) job performance—one recommendation per category.

For the MBA program through the School of Business, you will be notified if you need to submit one or more recommendations.

D. TEST RESULTS: Submit Graduate Examination (GRE) General scores for certain programs: MA in English, School Psychology Credentials, all EdS degree programs in the School of Education, EdD in Education, and MA in Religion. Submit Graduate Management Admission Tests (GMAT) scores for the MBA program. The GRE General may also be required depending on grade point average for MA applicants to the School of Education.

E. INTERVIEW: An interview is desirable (and required for some programs) and is arranged with the appropriate school dean or department chair.

II. The Office of Admissions, in consultation with the appropriate school or department, evaluates the complete file and makes a decision.

III. The application decision is communicated to the applicant by the Office of Admissions. Accepted applicants are provided with information on the registration process, which will include the submission of additional forms such as Health Record Form, Residence Hall, etc.
IV. Transcripts and all other application documents are retained permanently by the University for students who enroll. These documents may not be withdrawn and/or used by students. Records of applicants who do not enroll will be destroyed.

Application Deadlines

Applications are considered on a rolling basis. However, it is highly recommended that the following preferred deadlines be observed:

Fall Quarter
- February 1 (New freshman applications)
- June 1 (International applications)
- July 1 (All other applications)

Winter Quarter
- November 15

Spring Quarter
- February 15 (International applications)
- March 1 (All other applications)

Summer Quarter
- May 1

Applicants desiring financial aid for the Fall quarter need to submit applications before March 2.

When Admission is Denied

Applicants who have been denied entrance to the University have the option to appeal the decision by writing a letter to the Office of Admissions indicating the reasons for the appeal, including new evidence for reconsideration.

Admission Classifications

Regular Status

Regular status is given to a student who meets all admission requirements for the program he/she is applying for.

Provisional and/or Probationary Status

Reviewed on a quarter-by-quarter basis up to 12 quarter units. Provisional status is given to a student whose grade point average does not reach the level for regular standing or whose file shows low or missing test scores, but who otherwise meets admission requirements. Progress is on a quarter-by-quarter basis up to the completion of 12 quarter units. To change classification to regular standing, a student’s file must be completed and meet the requirements of the program.

English as a Second Language

A student who lacks documentation of required English competency is required to take the University’s English as a Second Language placement test. Based on the score, the student may be required to participate in the English Language and American Culture program at the University.

Unspecified/Non-degree

A student who enrolls in graduate courses for personal or professional purposes without application toward a degree or certificate. Evidence of having completed a baccalaureate degree must be provided. A student in this classification is not eligible to receive financial aid. No more than 12 units may be transferred to a degree or certificate program from a non-degree status. This status is not available to a student who has been denied admission. Refer to the “Non-degree status” portion in the Academic Policies and Practices section of this bulletin.

Admission Requirements

Academic Preparation

A baccalaureate degree (or its equivalent) from an accredited college or university is a prerequisite for admission to University postbaccalaureate programs. Transcripts of the applicant’s scholastic record should show appropriate preparation, in grades and content, for the curriculum chosen. Since there is some variation in the pattern of undergraduate courses prescribed by different programs, the applicant should note the specific requirements of the chosen program.

Grade Point Average

Applicants to the Master of Arts program in English should present an undergraduate record with a cumulative grade point average of 3.00 or above.

Applicants to the Master of Business Administration program should present an undergraduate record with a cumulative grade point average of 3.00 or above.

Applicants to the School of Education programs should present an academic record with a cumulative grade point average as follows:

- Teaching Credentials: 3.00 undergraduate GPA or higher
- Master of Arts (MA): 3.00 undergraduate GPA or higher
- Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT): 3.00 undergraduate GPA or higher
- Specialist in Education (EdS): 3.30 graduate GPA or higher
- Doctor of Education (EdD): 3.30 graduate GPA or higher
Applicants to the HMS Richards Divinity School programs should present an undergraduate record with a cumulative grade point average as follows:

- Master of Divinity (MDiv) - 2.50 or above
- Master of Theological Studies - 2.50 or above
- Master of Arts (MA) in Religion - 3.00 or above

Second Master’s Degree

A student who wishes to pursue an additional master’s degree in advanced program or a different discipline may apply.

Reentrance

A student who withdraws from studies at the University must meet the entrance requirements effective at the time of reentrance unless a leave of absence has been granted. A copy of any leave of absence must be sent to the Office of Admissions at the time it is granted. A new application must be filed along with supporting documents as required at the time of re-entry to the University. A student who has been suspended from the University for reason of improper professional or academic behavior is not allowed readmission until approved by the appropriate school. A student who has been discontinued permanently is not readmitted.

International Students

Additional Procedures

In addition to the following regular procedures for admission, applicants whose previous education has been completed in countries other than the United States are required to do the following:

1. Request official transcripts and/or examination results in the original language (together with official English translations if the original language is not English).
2. Provide the results of an external credential evaluation of any academic transcripts from institutions outside of the United States. Students will be required to request an external evaluation of their records within the first quarter of attendance. The request for a general credential evaluation may be made through Educational Credential Evaluators, Inc. (ece.org). (Please note that in some cases students may be required to submit the results of a course-by-course credential evaluation prior to acceptance).
3. Provide course descriptions of all courses listed on the transcripts.

4. Submit scores for the Michigan Test of English Language Proficiency (MTELP), Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or International English Language Testing System (IELTS) if previous education has been completed outside the United States (excluding Australia, Canada, New Zealand and the United Kingdom). Applicants who have taken the GCE O level or equivalent examinations and have received a passing grade with credit in English may not be required to present additional English proficiency examination results or take the La Sierra University ESL placement examination.

Competence in English

Students who were educated in a country other than the United States (excluding Australia, Canada, New Zealand or the UK) must submit scores for the TOEFL, IELTS or MTELP. If no scores are submitted, the student will be tested at La Sierra University’s Testing Center prior to enrollment with either the TOEFL or MTELP.

Students with TOEFL score of 550 or higher or MTELP percentile average 86 or higher and percentile 77 or higher in Language Proficiency, or IELTS 6.5 or higher will be allowed to enroll in regular college-level courses.

Those with insufficient scores will be required to take classes in the American Experience and Language Program or English as a Second Language.

Student Visas

In order to insure proper and timely delivery, official documents necessary to obtain a student visa will be sent by express mail only after an applicant has been accepted, assurance has been provided that funds will be forthcoming to meet school expenses, and any deposits and the I-20 fee have been pre-paid.

Upon acceptance to La Sierra University, the student must submit the $1,000 required deposit. The deposit can be used as partial payment for the student’s last academic term of attendance. The student must also submit the I-20 processing fee of $100, non-refundable, used for postage and expenses related to the acquisition of the I-20. In addition, students from the continent of Africa will need to pay the first quarter's tuition. If a student entering the U.S. does not successfully obtain a visa, the deposit or/and first quarter’s tuition is refunded to the student.
A graduate student entering the United States on a student visa (F-1) must report to the University Office of International Students Service on or before the “start date” on the student’s I-20. The government allows a student to enter into the country 30 days prior to the I-20 “start date” but a student will not be able to work until the new quarter has started and registration has closed. The graduate student must register and complete a full study load of at least 8 units for each quarter of attendance. An F-1 student is expected to attend school three consecutive quarters before taking an academic break. Please keep this in mind when coming to La Sierra University in the winter or spring quarters.

On-campus employment is limited by regulations of the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to no more than 20 hours per week when school is in session, if work is available. Students will need to wait approximately three weeks after I-20 “start date” before applying for a Social Security Card to allow time for necessary arrival data to be uploaded to Social Security Administration from the Department of Homeland Security. Permission for off-campus employment is not given during the first nine months of study. After this time, if a student meets USCIS requirements, an application may be made to the USCIS through the Office of International Student Services for permission for off-campus employment.
Plan Ahead

Students are required to make financial plans and complete financial arrangements with the office of Student Financial Services before school begins.

$5  Standard transcript fee

$10  Rush transcript fee

$20  Vehicle registration for non-full-time students

$250  Late payment fee (see financial clearance)

Payment and Account Information

Audit Regulations
A student may audit a lecture course only. Courses requiring special instruction or laboratory sessions cannot be taken on an audit basis. Audited classes do not qualify for the SDA scholarships or for federal financial aid.

Campus Employment
Campus employment opportunities are available. Students wishing employment may apply at the Human Resources office.

Campus Payroll
Student payroll checks are issued every other Friday. A schedule may be obtained from the Payroll office.

Payroll Deduction
Payroll deductions are available to facilitate payment of student accounts. Student Financial Services makes arrangements for payroll deductions at the student’s request.

Cash Needs
The student should arrange to have cash available for all special charges and miscellaneous expenses. It is advisable for students to budget at least $427 per quarter for books and supplies. Bookstore advances from financial aid credit are offered once per term, to qualified students, as credit on their ID cards to be used at the La Sierra Bookstore.
Checks

Checks should be made payable to La Sierra University. All checks should clearly indicate both the student’s name and ID number to ensure that the funds are credited to the correct account.

The University will charge the student's account $50 when a bank does not honor a check. A check presented in payment for registration fees that is not honored by the bank and is returned unpaid is required to be redeemed within 5 working days after the student is notified by the University of the returned check. If it is not redeemed, the student may be suspended from classes or the University has the option to revoke administratively the term registration. All future payments, after that initial returned check, will need to be in the form of money order, certified/cashier’s check, credit card, or cash.

Confirmation of Registration

Every student is required to complete a process known as Confirmation of Registration for each term that the student registers. By completing this process, the student confirms his/her intent to attend classes for that term and accepts full responsibility for all charges associated with his/her attendance. Failure to immediately confirm, even a partial registration, will result in the student’s classes being dropped. If, after the completion of registration, the student discovers that he/she cannot attend La Sierra University, he/she must drop all classes before the first day of the term in order to avoid tuition charges. Students may drop all classes online.

Financial Clearance

Students are required to pay at least one-third of their account balance (charges minus confirmed aid) by the published deadline (usually 2 weeks before classes start). Students who register before this deadline can expect to receive, through their University email account, a copy of their invoice for the term. Students who fail to pay by this deadline, or who register and pay after this date, will be charged a $250 late financial clearance fee. Students are encouraged to register early and to make their financial obligations known to their account payers as soon as possible.

Fall Deadline: September 15, 2013
Winter Deadline: December 15, 2013
Spring Deadline: March 15, 2014

Correspondence

Financial information from the University is emailed to a student's official La Sierra University email address. Students are responsible for updating their address and telephone information with the University. A student may sign-up online to have certain information sent to an address other than his/her email address.

Financial Statements

Students are encouraged to view their account information at the University’s self-service website which can be accessed under the Quick Links at www.lasierra.edu. All current account activity is available at this site. A financial statement is emailed once each month to the student’s university email address. The amount due, indicated on the statement, is payable upon receipt, except for students enrolled in the monthly payment plan. Monthly reminders are emailed to students enrolled in a monthly payment plan. Under the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, postsecondary students have full rights of privacy with regard to their accounts. Students may sign-up online to have their financial statements emailed to persons other than themselves (parents/sponsors). Students who wish to receive a paper statement must make a request in writing to the Bursar Office.

International Students

An international applicant (other than a Canadian citizen) on a student visa is required to make an advance deposit of $1,100. The deposit will remain on account until the student terminates academic work at La Sierra University. The deposit can be used as partial payment for the student's last academic term of attendance. Because international students do not qualify for loans and grants listed under Financial Aid, parents or sponsors are responsible for making payment arrangements each quarter at registration. Students cannot carry over a balance from one quarter to the next.

Financial Guarantee Forms are available from the Office of International Students. The international student must obtain the proper signatures on the form and file it with the Office of International Students before clearance can be given for the issuance of an I-20 form.

All international students are required to submit a financial plan to cover the expenses of their planned education before clearance can be given for the issuance of an I-20 form. Assistance with this plan is available from enrollment counselors.
International Student Health Insurance

La Sierra University requires all international students to carry health insurance while on a valid La Sierra I-20 or DS-2019 form. The Office of International Students Services (OISS) will register international students with a comprehensive insurance plan. This insurance plan will be purchased for the student at the time of initial registration and will be automatically renewed while the student is listed as SEVIS-Active with a La Sierra I-20 or DS-2019 form. This will include periods when the student is not enrolled for classes or is out of the country. J-1 visa holders are required to have medical insurance for themselves and their dependents in the United States at all times. To help reduce the cost of the international insurance premium, international students will be required to seek medical attention first at Health Service for basic medical needs such as doctor visits, some medications, check-ups, and health information. For the current fee amount, contact the Office of International Students Services at 951-785-2237. The insurance fee will be charged to the international student’s tuition account, appear on the billing statement emailed to the student, and is payable immediately. For more information, please refer to the Student Handbook.

Married (Family) Student Housing

Married student housing is available on a limited basis. Rates vary from those of the residence halls. For information on rates and availability, contact the office of Business Development and Property Management at (951) 785-2511. Because of high demand, students are encouraged to apply early.

Meal Plans

Meal Plan Increase

Residence hall students may request an increase to the standard meal plan option by checking the appropriate box on the Residence Hall Housing Agreement Meal Plan contract. Changes can only be requested during the first five days of the term.

Meal Plan Reduction

For consideration of a reduction in meal plan fees because of special circumstances, a student must submit the Meal Plan Variance form to Financial Administration during the first week of the quarter. Meal Plan Variance forms are available at the Financial Administration office.

Past Due Accounts

Failure to pay scheduled charges or to make proper financial arrangements with Student Financial Services will cause the account to be considered past due. Past due accounts are subject to late fees and debt collection processes. Students with past due accounts may not be allowed to register for future terms. Students whose past due accounts have been forwarded to La Sierra University collectors must pay for future terms in advance of registering for classes.

Debt Collection

Past due accounts may be assigned to a collection agency or attorney, and may be reported to commercial credit agencies. Appropriate charges for these services, including court costs, if incurred, will be added to the student’s account balance.

Finance Charge

An annual finance charge of 10 percent, compounded quarterly on the unpaid balance is applied at the end of December, March, June, and September.

Late Payment Fee

Each quarter a $250 late payment fee will be assessed to accounts in which the student has not met their financial arrangement, as agreed to on Confirmation of Registration.

Payment Options

Three payment options are available to meet the financial needs of students:

1. Payment of the year’s charges in full during Fall registration, for which a 7 percent discount is granted (only available for on-campus full-cost programs).
2. Payment in full each quarter during registration for which a 2 percent discount is granted (only available for on-campus, full-cost programs; not available for Divinity School programs).
3. Monthly payments on the projected yearly balance. This option is available at $30 per quarter. Students can enroll online for this option.

Refunds

Students may request a refund of their credit balance by submitting a signed request form to the office of Student Financial Services. Processing time of the request varies from five to ten working days to allow time for all records such as cashier receipts and registration records to clear through the normal accounting procedures. Students receiving Title IV (federal) aid in excess of their charges who have not signed an authorization to retain funds to pay for future charges will be issued a refund check within 14 days of the date of the credit appearing on the account. These checks will be mailed to the student’s current address, unless the student authorizes the funds to be deposited directly in the student’s bank account.
Release of Transcripts/Diploma

The University will withhold the release of official transcripts and diplomas for a student who has an unpaid account, or who has failed to complete a federally mandated loan exit interview. No official transcripts are issued until the student’s financial obligations to the University have been met as set forth in this bulletin. This includes being current in repayment of any Perkins, La Sierra University, or Commitment to Excellence Loan. A student who wishes immediate release of a transcript must clear outstanding financial obligations (including all installment payments of the current quarter, even if they have not yet come due) by cash, money order, credit card, or cashier’s check before the transcript will be issued. Personal checks must clear before a transcript will be released.

Required Fees

Comprehensive Fee

This fee is charged to all students admitted to an on-campus program. It covers various support services and campus resources.

Summer Required Fees

All students enrolled in classes during the Summer Quarter are charged a comprehensive fee of $255.

Room and Board

La Sierra combines all housing and meal charges into a single Room and Board charge. The standard cost for room and board is a double occupancy room with 40 meals per quarter. If you wish to purchase additional meals per quarter please refer to Meal Plan increase. Students who withdraw from La Sierra University will have their room and board charge prorated according to the number of days in residence.

Study Load Change

A student who drops a class during the first 60% of the quarter may be eligible for a partial refund (see “Total Withdrawal,” this section). No refund of charges will be processed until either a drop form is turned in and accepted by the Records Office, or the student completes the drop online. Financial aid may be modified when a student changes study load by adding or dropping classes.

Total Withdrawal

Total withdrawals may be initiated at the Records Office, or may be completed online as follows:

1. Establishment of the Date of Withdrawal: The student may either request a Total Withdrawal form, which is date-stamped by the Records Office, or he/she may go online to withdraw. The date on the Total Withdrawal form, or the date the student withdraws online, is used to determine the percentage of financial aid earned and the amount (if any) of tuition refund. If the student leaves without notifying the University, then the student’s last recorded date of attendance, as documented by the institution, will be used to determine the date of withdrawal. The refund will be calculated based on this date. If the student began attendance but there is no specific record of the last day of attendance, the refund will be calculated at 50 percent in accordance with federal regulations. If a student receives all “Fs” for a term, it is assumed that the student completely withdrew (unofficial withdrawal), unless the student can provide appropriate evidence of completing any of the classes attended.

2. Tuition: There is no charge for withdrawing during the first week of each quarter. There is a minimum charge of 20 percent of the billed tuition for withdrawal during the second week of school regardless of whether or not a student attended classes. Thereafter, an additional 15 percent of the billed tuition is charged per week, up through the 7th week of the term. After the 7th week the student is charged 100% of tuition costs.

3. Fees: The comprehensive fee is prorated on the same schedule as tuition. Course material and lab fees are only refunded if the office of Student Financial Services

Residence Change

As stated in the Residential License Agreement, students who move out of the Residence Hall during the term will be charged for the entire term. Students who move out due to extenuating circumstances may petition to receive a partial refund. Students who totally withdraw from the University during the term will have their room charges prorated as stated in the Total Withdrawal section of this Bulletin.

Residence Hall Study Load

Any student living in University residence halls is to be officially registered for an academic load of at least 8 units per quarter.
receives written authorization from the academic department.

4. Board: The charge for meals will be prorated on a daily basis, calculated on the daily minimum to date or actual use, whichever is higher.

5. Room: The charge for room is governed by the Residential License Agreement, and is prorated on a daily basis. (See Section IV of the agreement).

6. Damage Deposit: Refund will be made to the student’s account when the residence hall dean returns the signed residence hall release to the Bursar’s office. The amount refunded will reflect any deductions made for damages or cleaning.

7. Illness: Special consideration will be given for tuition refunds in the case of accident or prolonged illness, if certified by an appropriate health professional. All requests should be submitted to the Student Financial Services Exceptions Committee.

8. Financial Aid: When a student totally withdraws from the institution after beginning attendance, his/her institutional and state financial aid is prorated in the same manner as tuition, as stated under item two above. Federal financial aid is prorated based on a calculation prescribed in federal regulation which is slightly different from that used for institutional aid. The calculation determines the amount of federal aid the student earned while enrolled. The amount earned is calculated by multiplying the total financial aid for the term by the percentage of the term completed. The unearned federal aid (total financial aid less earned financial aid) must be returned to the student financial aid programs in the order prescribed by law and regulation:

- Unsubsidized/Direct Loan
- Perkins Loan
- Subsidized/Direct Loan
- Direct PLUS Loan
- Federal TEACH Grant
- Other Title IV Programs

If any portion of the unearned financial aid was paid directly to the student (rather than applied to institutional charges), the student is responsible for returning these funds in the order listed above. The student must return the unearned funds for which he/she is responsible, to loan programs in accordance with the terms of the loan, and to grant programs as an overpayment, as per federal regulations.

The University does billing and collection of repayments, but a student who fails to repay will be referred to the U.S. Department of Education for collection (unless overpayment is a result of school error) and will no longer be eligible for further federal financial aid funds.

Veterans

A student who has been accepted and is eligible to receive veteran’s benefits under the 1966 enactment should contact the Records Office for information regarding these benefits.

Financial Aid

How to Apply

Financial assistance for educational costs at La Sierra University is available from federal, state, University, and private sources. Most financial aid is awarded based on financial need as determined by the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), although some scholarships and unsubsidized loans are non-need based. All applicants must file the FAFSA by mail or Internet (recommended – http://www.fafsa.ed.gov.). Dependent students must include parental information. Students are encouraged to file early to receive maximum financial aid. The earliest date to file is January 1 for the following school year. The application deadline for the state of California's Cal Grant program for first time students is March 2 for the following school year. The FAFSA may be completed prior to acceptance to the University but the student must be officially accepted through the La Sierra University Office of Admissions before receiving an official financial aid award. Financial aid awards are calculated on the basis of full-time enrollment. Aid is generally credited to the student’s account for each term in which the student is enrolled. Awards are made without regard to sex, race, religion, nationality, or ethnic origin, age, or physical disability.

Awarding Process

The financial aid awarding process requires the coordination of federal, state, and University aid programs. Therefore, it is imperative that students read and respond to all correspondence from the office of Student Financial Services. Otherwise, the student’s financial aid may be delayed, decreased or forfeited.

Award Notification

After students are accepted they will be notified of their eligibility for aid. The University requires that the student accept the financial aid award for the upcoming school year. Prompt response will allow the University to reserve financial aid funds for the student. If changes are made to a student’s award a revised award notification will be sent to the student via email. Students are not required to respond to subsequent award notifications.
Graduate Financial Information

Budgeting for Financial Aid

A student’s “cost of attendance” is the total amount it will cost the student to attend La Sierra University during a specific period of enrollment, usually the academic year. Tuition and fees as determined by Financial Administration and estimated costs as determined by the California Student Aid Commission and Student Financial Services determine allowable budget amounts. The cost of attendance budget items include tuition and fees, books and supplies, room and board, personal costs, transportation, and student loan fees. The student’s “financial need” is the cost of attendance, minus the students (and parents, if dependent) expected family contribution (EFC), as determined by the FAFSA. The total aid a student receives from all sources cannot exceed the student’s cost of attendance.

La Sierra University’s financial aid annual budgets for the 2013-2014 year (9 month) for full-time students are:

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Graduate (CAS &amp; SE)</td>
<td>$35,683</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Divinity School</td>

<td>$37,297</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Document Request

Some financial aid programs require students and/or their parents to provide additional documentation to establish eligibility. The University will notify students via email if supporting information/documentation is required. If requested information is not provided by specified deadlines the award may be forfeited. No documents are accepted beyond the end of the aid year.

Loan Process

The University will notify student, parent, or sponsor borrowers when they need to complete paperwork or take some action in the loan process. Failure to respond promptly may jeopardize the student’s eligibility for the loan funds.

Types of Financial Aid

Grants: Aid that does not have to be repaid unless the student does not complete the term

Loans: Borrowed funds that usually must be repaid with interest

Loan-to-Scholarship: Loans that become scholarships upon graduation from La Sierra University

Federal Work Study: See following information

Federal Programs

Eligibility

Most federal financial aid programs require that a student have financial need as determined by the FAFSA. A student must also be enrolled and working toward a degree or certificate in an eligible program. Other eligibility criteria include being a US citizen or eligible non-citizen; having a valid Social Security number; making satisfactory academic progress; and, if required, registering with the Selective Service. International students are not eligible to receive federal aid.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

A graduate student must maintain both an overall cumulative GPA and a La Sierra University cumulative GPA of at least 3.00, and must satisfactorily complete two-thirds of the units attempted each year. In addition, a student will become ineligible if he/she exceeds the time limit established for his/her degree as set forth in this bulletin. (i.e. 5 years for Master’s degree, 7 years for EdS or EdD). (For more information, refer to the “Academic Status” portion in the Academic Policies and Procedures section of this bulletin.)

Federal Programs

Evaluation of a student’s eligibility to continue to receive federal aid will be made each year. A student who does not meet satisfactory academic progress standards will not be eligible for federal, state, or institutional aid until additional academic work is satisfactorily completed. A student may file a written appeal with the Director of Student Financial Services to seek an additional quarter to meet the required standards. Contact Student Financial Services for more information. Students who are disqualified from receiving financial aid may choose to re-enroll, however any previous balance and all tuition and fees for the current term must be paid prior to enrollment. Federal financial aid funds are packaged according to federal Title IV guidelines. For more information please contact Student Financial Services.

The following US Department of Education Student Financial Assistance Programs are available at La Sierra University:

Federal Direct Loans

Direct loans are either subsidized or unsubsidized. Beginning July 1st, 2012, the federal government only offers unsubsidized student loans for graduate programs. An unsubsidized loan is not awarded on the basis of need. Interest will accrue from the time the loan is disbursed until it is paid in full but payments... can be deferred during periods of at least half-time enrollment. For information on deferment, grace period, and forbearance, please contact Student Financial Services. The interest rate is fixed at 6.8%. A fee of up to 1.051% will be deducted from each disbursement. Repayment of the unsubsidized loan begins six months after graduation or separation from the University or when enrollment status falls below half time. There is a ten-year repayment period. Students are required by federal regulation to complete a loan exit interview at the time they separate from the University or when their enrollment status falls below half time. Failure to do so will prevent the student from receiving an official academic transcript and/or diploma.

Federal Stafford Loan Yearly Borrowing Limits

Federal Grad PLUS loan

PLUS loans enable graduate students with good credit histories to borrow funds for educational expenses. The maximum PLUS loan is the cost of attendance less other financial aid received. The interest rate is fixed at 7.9%. A fee of up to 4.204% will be deducted from each disbursement. Students may defer payment on the PLUS loan until 6 months after leaving school or dropping below half-time. Interest will accrue during times of deferment.

Federal Perkins Loans

Perkins Loans are low-interest (5 percent) loans for students with financial need. No fees are deducted from this loan; accrual of interest and repayment begin nine months after graduation or separation from the University or when enrollment status falls below half time. There is a ten-year repayment period. Students are required by federal regulation to complete a loan exit interview at the time they separate from the University or when their enrollment status falls below half time. Failure to do so will prevent the student from receiving an official academic transcript and/or diploma.

Federal TEACH Grant

The Teacher Education Assistance for College and Higher Education (TEACH) Grant program awards up to $4,000 per year to students who are completing, or intend to complete, coursework to begin a career in teaching and who agree to serve for not less than four years as a full-time, highly-qualified teacher in a high-need field at a low-income school. If the recipient of a TEACH Grant does not complete four years of qualified teaching service within eight years of completing the course study for which the TEACH Grant was received, the amount of the TEACH Grant converts into a Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan. Students should contact Student Financial Services to find out which academic programs qualify for this grant program.

Federal Work-Study

This program funds part-time jobs for students with financial need, allowing them to earn money to help pay educational expenses. Federal Work-Study (FWS) awards must be coordinated with other financial aid received. Payment is made directly to the student. Students receiving FWS awards in the summer are required to use these funds for Summer or Fall Quarter charges only. No FWS funds may be used to pay a balance from a previous aid year.

California State Programs

The following California State Programs are available at La Sierra University:

California State Grants (Cal Grant)

Cal Grant A and B are available to California residents who meet GPA, financial need, and deadline requirements. Contact Student Financial Services for more information. Cal Grant funds must be coordinated with other aid and are designated only for tuition costs. Postgraduates who remain for the fifth-year teaching credential program are eligible for a fifth-year Cal Grant. To apply, file the FAFSA and GPA Verification form (GPAVF-available at www.csac.ca.gov or www.calgrants.org) by the March 2 postmark deadline for the following academic year. It is wise to obtain a certificate of mailing for both the FAFSA and the GPAVF as proof that the forms were mailed on time. Contact the California Student Aid Commission at 916-445-0880, for more information. Current recipients of a Cal Grant are not required to file the GPAVF; however, they must file the FAFSA and list the school they plan to attend the following year.

California Chaffee Grant

This grant is available for current or former foster youth who are enrolled at least half-time. Applicants must be both currently eligible for foster care or have been eligible between their 16th and 18th birthdays, and they must be under 22 years of age as of July 1, following the school year for which they are applying. Recipients must maintain satisfactory academic progress to renew the grant. Contact Student Financial Services for more information.
Assumption Program of Loans for Education

The Assumption Program of Loans for Education (APLE) offers partial loan repayment for future teachers in exchange for four years of service in specific California K-12 public schools. Applicants must have completed a minimum of 90 quarter units prior to the Fall Quarter in which they apply, and they must continue to be enrolled at least half-time. The application deadline is June 30 preceding the year for which the student is applying. Application materials are usually available at the School of Education and at Student Financial Services.

Outside Resources

Students are also encouraged to research outside scholarship resources that may be available. Libraries have publications outlining eligibility criteria. Student Financial Services posts lists of outside resources on the SFS bulletin board. Scholarship announcements are also located in the various schools and in the residence halls. Students are encouraged to go online at www.finaid.org for more comprehensive information.

Other Programs

Students attending La Sierra University are not limited solely to the US Department of Education Student Financial Assistance Programs and the California State Programs. Other options include:

Endowed Scholarships and Awards

Each year enrolled students are considered for various scholarships and awards, granted on the basis of one or more of the following criteria: academic excellence, citizenship, contribution to campus life, and financial need. The application deadline is late February for the following academic year, and scholarships are announced at a University Awards Luncheon at the end of May. Contact the Advancement office for a current list of the scholarships and awards that are available.

Non-need based La Sierra University Scholarships

Students may find aid in a number of non-need based La Sierra University scholarships. Because these scholarships are not awarded on the basis of financial need, completion of a FAFSA is not required to qualify. Contact La Sierra University Enrollment Services for more information.

Divinity School Graduate Tuition Discount

A tuition discount of $312/unit (off the graduate tuition of $716/unit) is available to all students admitted to a graduate program in the Divinity School. The discount will post immediately when the student registers. This discount and the Masters of Divinity Tuition Scholarship, awarded by the Divinity School, are the only institutional aid awards available to graduate students in the Divinity School.
Student Responsibility

Application to and enrollment in La Sierra University constitute the student’s commitment to honor and abide by the practices and regulations stated in the announcements, bulletins, handbooks, and other published materials both on and off campus and to maintain a manner that is mature and compatible with the University’s function as a Seventh-day Adventist institution of higher learning.

The University was established to provide education in a distinctive Christian environment. No religious test is applied, but students are expected to respect the Sabbath and to honor the church values, standards and the ideals of the University. If prospective applicants choose to apply and are accepted to enroll as students, they must abide by these church values, standards, and ideals while they are enrolled at the University.

From University to Student

The University regards the student from a cosmopolitan and comprehensive point of view: cosmopolitan, in that historically the University’s global mission has promoted bonds and opportunities in education and service without regard to sex, national or racial origin, or geographical line, and comprehensive, in that the University’s concern for the welfare of the student has been traditionally an integrated concern for assisting the student in balanced development of the intellectual, emotional, physical, spiritual, and societal potentialities.

General Information

Counseling Center

The Counseling Center, located in Suite B of the La Sierra University convenience center, provides students with personal counseling. Personal counseling addresses a wide range of student concerns, including personal and relationship issues, premarital counseling, and stress and anxiety management. In addition, workshops and groups are available to address specific student needs. For more information, contact the Counseling Center at 951-785-2011.

Health Services

Maintaining optimum health in the midst of the pressures of pursuing an education is an important part of student growth. Health Services provides referrals, advice, prescriptions, and basic care in accordance with the University health service plan.

All new and transfer students, both foreign and domestic, must assist Health Services in compiling a complete health record. Prior to attending classes, students must provide Health Services with evidence of a recent TB skin test, a recent complete physical examination, and updated immunization records. If a student does not have these records, he or she will be required to have the required tests and immunizations completed by Health Services prior to enrolling in classes. In that case, fees will apply.

Identification Number

All students will be assigned a University identification number, by the Records Office, and issued an identification card, by the Office of Student Life. After 5:00 pm until 10:00 pm, student I.D.'s are issued at the Security Office. The seven-digit ID number must appear on all checks payable to the University to ensure crediting to the proper student account. The ID card will be used for purposes of perimeter gates, admissions and records; for admittance to campus locations like the Library, healthcare, Fitness Center, residence halls, and cafeteria; and to access many of the campus services. When the student withdraws from all classes at the University during a term, the student must return their ID to the Office of Student Life.

Property Protection

Because a responsible adult has regard for the property of institutions and individuals, the mature student will endeavor to protect and safeguard University property, facilities, equipment, and supplies. Students are expected to assume responsibility for the safekeeping of personal belongings, using lockers where these are available, and otherwise exercising appropriate attentiveness to the protection of their own property and that of others.

Security and Safety

The Security Department’s main goal is to protect and secure the campus. On-campus duties of officers include patrolling the campus, assisting motorists, escorting, opening and securing buildings and gates, and helping to control parking for staff and students. The entry kiosk is now available to assist off-campus visitors and registration for vehicles is now online at lasierra.edu/parking.
Student’s Official Name

The official name for a student is the name the student submits on the original application for admission to the University. The Records Records Office will monitor any corrections and obtain names for initials submitted at registration. The official name of a student may be changed during attendance at La Sierra University by submitting a “Change of Data” form to the Records Office and an official document. Documentation may be required. A maiden name (where applicable) may be incorporated as a part of a student’s official name. The official name will be used for all University records such as registration forms, grade reports, transcripts, graduation programs, and diplomas/certificates of completions.

Transportation

The student is responsible for transportation arrangements and costs to off-campus assignments. The student who brings a car on-campus must arrange for campus vehicle registration and a parking permit. The law requires that adequate public liability insurance be carried by car owners, and the driver must have a valid driver’s license issued by the state of California.

Worship

University Worship and assembly programs, residence hall worships, small group studies, Rendezvous, and church worship services offer opportunities for personal spiritual enrichment. Choosing to enroll at this University implies the student’s willingness to meet required worship appointments as part of the educational experience. For specific policies and requirements regarding these services, refer to the Student Handbook and Guide to Residential Life.

Student Handbook

Detailed information concerning the University’s expectations of its students is explained in the Student Handbook, which is provided to every student admitted to the University. A copy is also available on the La Sierra University Student Life website.

Campus Organizations

Many campus organizations offer opportunities for extra-curricular activity, experience, and growth. The following sample list suggests the range of groups that regularly function on the campus, governing themselves under bylaws approved by the Student Life Committee. International Students

Admissions Requirements

International applicants are responsible for all regular requirements for admission except test scores from the College Board. Applicants whose previous education has been completed in countries other than the United States will be required to:

Request official transcripts in the original language (together with official English translations if the original language is not English). Students submitting transcripts from postsecondary institutions outside the United States of America will need to request an external evaluation of their records before credits are transferred. In some cases, the external evaluation may be required prior to acceptance. The student will need to contact the Office of Admissions and Records to start the external evaluation process.

Submit scores for the Michigan Test of English Language Proficiency (MTELP) or the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) if educated in countries other than the United States. Students submitting transcripts from postsecondary institutions outside the United States of America will need to request an external evaluation of their records before credits are transferred. In some cases, the external evaluation may be required prior to acceptance. The student will need to contact the Office of Admissions and Records to start the external evaluation process.

Submit scores for the Michigan Test of English Language Proficiency (MTELP) or the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) if educated in countries other than Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, or the USA. (Those students who have taken 0 level or equivalent examinations and have received a passing grade with credit in English will be eligible for regular English placement testing rather than ESL testing.) For those applicants unable to provide either the TOEFL or MTELP tests, the University can provide MTELP testing as needed.

English Competence

See criteria above for those required to submit a Michigan Test of English Language Proficiency (MTELP) or Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) test score along with their secondary school and/or postsecondary transcripts as part of the application process. Applicants with MTELP percentiles of 90 or above or TOEFL scores 550 or above will be required to take the La Sierra University College Writing Test. Students who do not qualify for Freshman English will be placed in an appropriate pre-foundational reading and/or writing class which must be satisfactorily completed before entering ENGL 111.

The undergraduate student who does not have a sufficient score on the MTELP (percentiles of 90 or above) or the TOEFL (550 or above), will be required to take classes in the American Experience and Language Program (AELP) or English as a Second Language (ESL) program. An intensive language program is also offered during the summer. Further study of English may be required to assure progress toward a degree.

Any international student who has not taken an international TOEFL test before arrival at La Sierra University will be given a MTELP.

The University retains the right to re-test any students (even those indicated above) who experience academic difficulty related to language deficiency. If the scores indicate a need, such students will be placed in the appropriate pre-foundational English or ESL classes. For more information, refer to the “English as a Second Language” portion in the Academic Policies and Practices section and the English as a Second Language section of this bulletin.

Exchange Visitors

Through the US Department of State and the General Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, the University has a program for exchange visitors that may be advantageous for international exchange visitors and scholars. Further information may be obtained from the English Language Culture Program (ELAC).

I-20 Requisites

To be issued an I-20, all international applicants are required to submit a financial plan through the Financial Guarantee Form (FGF). This document shows how the student plans to cover the expenses of their planned education and must be approved by the Office of International Student Services before clearance will be given for the issuance of the I-20 form. Assistance with this plan and the Financial Guarantee Form is available from enrollment counselors in the Enrollment Services.

All international applicants (with the exception of Canadian citizens & Calexico graduates) are required to post an “international student deposit” of $1,000. In addition, students from Africa pay 1st quarter’s tuition. At the student’s request, the deposit will be refunded when the student completes his/her studies at La Sierra University. The deposit can also be used as partial payment for the student’s last academic term of attendance.

International students residing abroad must also post a $100 I-20 processing fee, used for postage and expenses related to the acquisition of the I-20. In order to insure proper and timely delivery, official documents necessary to obtain a student visa will be sent by Federal Express only after an applicant has been accepted, assurance has been provided that funds will be forthcoming to meet school expenses, and any and all deposits and the I-20 fee have been pre-paid. It is the University’s aim to use the most cost effective express mail service.

Because international students do not qualify for loans and grants listed under Financial Aid, parents or sponsors are responsible for making payment arrangements each quarter at registration. Students cannot carry over a balance from one quarter to the next.
In addition to regular I-20 requirements, international students transferring to La Sierra University from other US institutions are required to provide a completed “Transfer-in Form” completed by the institution that currently holds their I-20 form at the time of their application.

Immigration Requirements Once in the US

Undergraduate students entering the United States on a student visa (F-1) must report to the Office of International Student Services at La Sierra University within seven days of their arrival in the United States. In addition, students in F-1 status must be enrolled for at least 12 units for each quarter of attendance and must be enrolled for three consecutive quarters before they are allowed to take a break, while remaining in the US.

Once enrolled, international students who wish to change their programs of study must first obtain the approval of the Office of International Student Services. When such approval is granted, application for formal change of status may then be made to the Office of Admissions and Records according to the same procedures governing United States citizens.

Employment is limited by regulations of the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). This means that the international student is allowed to work on-campus for a maximum of 20 hours per week while school is in session (if work is available). Off-campus employment is, however, prohibited, unless it is a part of an academic requirement. Consult with the Office of International Student Services for up-to-date immigration regulations/procedures regarding employment.

International Student Health Insurance

La Sierra University requires all international students to carry health insurance while on a valid La Sierra I-20 or DS-2019 form. The Office of International Student Services will register international students with a comprehensive insurance plan. This insurance plan will be purchased for the student at the time of initial registration and will be automatically renewed while the student is listed as SEVIS-Active with a La Sierra I-20 or DS-2019 form. This will include periods when the student is not enrolled for classes or is out of the country. J-1 visa holders are required to have medical insurance for themselves and their dependants in the United States at all times.

To help reduce the cost of the international insurance premium, international students will be required to seek medical attention first at Health Service for basic medical needs such as doctor visits, some medications, check-ups, and health information. For the current fee amount, contact the Office of International Student Services at 951-785-2237. The insurance fee will be charged to the international student’s tuition account, will appear on the billing statement mailed to the student, and will be payable immediately. For more information, please refer to the Student Handbook.

Office of International Student Services

The Office of International Student Services (OISS) provides services that meet the diverse needs of the La Sierra University international student community and offers programs that foster global perspectives, intercultural awareness, and international goodwill. OISS is also dedicated to ensuring that the experience of the international student at La Sierra University is as positive and fulfilling as possible.

The OISS offers a comprehensive orientation program at the beginning of each quarter, designed to provide the international student with the initial framework for adjustment to a new cultural and academic environment. Upon their arrival, international students are given information on such topics as immigration and US Department of Homeland Security regulations, US income tax, and Social Security; told ways to make a successful cultural adjustment; provided with an introduction to La Sierra University and the Riverside community; and advised on practical issues like housing, transportation, and banking.

The OISS assists the international student in complying with regulations and documentation requirements of the US Citizenship and Immigration Service and the US Department of State, including information on regulations that govern on- and off-campus employment. On a continuing basis, OISS advises students and scholars on personal, academic, and professional concerns. The OISS further provides access to cross-cultural experiences to broaden students’ and scholars’ exposure to American society, culture, and institutions and to provide the opportunity to share the language, culture, and history of their home country with Americans.

The Office of International Student Services is in the Administration Building, Room 206 and can be reached at 951-785-2237.
Academic Policies and Procedures

The information in this bulletin is made as accurate as possible at the time of publication. Students are responsible for informing themselves of, and satisfactorily meeting, all requirements pertinent to their relationship with the University. The University reserves the right to make such changes as circumstances demand with reference to academic standing, admission, attendance, candidacy, conduct, curriculum, graduation, registration, and tuition and fees.

Academic Authority

Within each of the schools of the University, the Office of the Dean is the final authority in all academic matters and is charged with the interpretation and enforcement of academic requirements. Any exceptions or changes in academic requirements, graduation requirements, test schedules, and grades are not valid unless approved by the dean of the school. Any actions taken by individual faculty members in regard to these matters are advisory only and are binding neither on the school nor the University unless approved by the dean.

The Office of the Provost oversees the implementation of the University's academic mission, ensures that the schools maintain acceptable University standards, and monitors the consistent application of the University's policies.

Types of Graduate Studies Programs

Graduate degree programs are classified as graduate academic and graduate professional. The former are research based and are designed to prepare graduates for research and other careers in the discipline and for further graduate study. The latter are practice oriented and are designed to prepare graduates for professional careers. Because of the nature of the programs and common practice among institutions that deliver them, certain admission and graduation requirements may differ between the two types of programs. See the program description sections in this bulletin for specific requirements.

Academic Integrity and Honesty

La Sierra University is committed to education for character, community, and culture. Embracing the principles of academic integrity is an important part of that commitment and provides a vital foundation for this community of scholars and its larger society. The following guidelines define academic integrity and establish a process to restore the community when violations occur. The University believes that education is fundamentally a place for scholars to work, learn, and grow in an atmosphere of trust and appreciation while providing fair and just corrective procedures to deal with those who breach such trust.

Academic Integrity Statement

All members of the community of scholars (students and faculty) at the university must agree to the following Academic Integrity Statement: I will act with integrity and responsibility in my activities as a La Sierra University student or faculty member. I will not participate in violations of academic integrity, including plagiarism, cheating, or fabricating information. I will not stand by when others do these things. I will follow the academic integrity policy.

Academic Integrity Committee

The Academic Integrity Committee (AIC), composed of students and faculty, has the responsibility of promoting academic integrity on campus, investigating and adjudicating appeals and violations, and issuing reports of its decisions to the appropriate campus administrators.

Violations of Academic Integrity

Violations of academic integrity include behaviors such as the following:

1. Plagiarism occurs when a writer appropriates another’s ideas without proper acknowledgement of the source or uses another’s words without indicating that fact through the use of quotation marks.
2. Cheating is the use of unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in an academic exercise as well as collusion in both visual and/or oral form.
3. Fabrication is the falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise. This includes lying to any member of the campus community.
4. The facilitation of academic dishonesty occurs when someone knowingly or negligently aids others or allows his/her work to be used in a dishonest academic manner. Such a person is as guilty of violating academic integrity as is the recipient.

Levels of Academic Dishonesty & Consequences

In cases where academic integrity is violated, there are multiple goals that must be balanced: the desire to ensure consequences that will preserve the integrity of the community of scholars; the hope that the violation can be an opportunity for those involved to learn honesty, respect, and responsibility; and the desire to allow for forgiveness and restoration.

The following classifications are used as rules of practice for faculty, administration, and the AIC in balancing these goals. The general descriptions of the levels apply to violations of academic integrity for students. Consequences for violations of academic integrity will be proportionate to the level of violation, with Level Four violations generally resulting in dismissal.

Level One

Level One violations involve a small fraction of the total course work, are not extensive, and/or occur on a minor assignment. Cases involving Level One are primarily viewed as teaching opportunities and are therefore to be handled by the instructor in consultation with the student and subsequently reported to the AIC chair. In cases where no resolution is reached, the instructor or student may refer the case to the AIC. Students may appeal the decision of the AIC to the Discipline Committee.

Level Two

Level Two violations are characterized by dishonesty of a more serious nature or by dishonesty that affects a more significant aspect or portion of the course work. Cases involving Level Two are still primarily viewed as teaching opportunities and are therefore to be handled by the instructor in consultation with the student and subsequently reported to the AIC chair. In cases where no resolution is reached, the instructor or student may refer the case to the AIC. Students may appeal the decision of the AIC to the Discipline Committee.

Level Three

Level Three violations include dishonesty that affects a major or essential portion of work done to meet course requirements, or involves premeditation. All cases involving Level Three violations are heard by the AIC. Students may appeal the decision of the AIC to the Discipline Committee.

Level Four

Level Four violations represent the most serious breaches of intellectual honesty. All such cases are heard by the AIC. Students may appeal the decision of the AIC to the Discipline Committee.

Responsibility of Students

It is the responsibility of the students to avoid both dishonest practices and the appearance of dishonesty. Students should make the necessary effort to ensure that their work is not used by other students. They have the responsibility to protect the integrity of their academic work by doing all they can to stop the dishonest practices of others.

Responsibility of Faculty

It is the responsibility of faculty to aid students in developing honest academic habits by reporting all instances of academic dishonesty. Faculty requiring independent work (e.g., take-home tests, research papers, etc.) as part of the student's grade should take appropriate precautions (e.g., teacher-student conferences, examination of research notes, etc.) to ensure that the work represents the student's own efforts. It is recommended that faculty avoid basing an excessive amount (over 20%) of the student's grade on such work where adequate supervision and controls are not possible.

In a situation involving actual or potential academic dishonesty, it is the responsibility of the faculty member to investigate all appearances or allegations of academic dishonest, determine the level of violation, and take the appropriate action as outlined in the Faculty Manual.

Student Academic Appeals

A student who believes that he/she has been academically unfairly treated or disciplined may enter into the academic appeal process as set forth below.

General Considerations

An academic decision is one regarding such things as a grade on an assignment or in a course; academic standing; or eligibility to participate in an academic program or to receive an academic honor, certificate, or degree.

An academic decision may be posted in several ways such as the return of a graded assignment or exam, the response to a request for variance, the posting of course grades on the university website, or the delivery of a certified letter.
 Appeal Alteration

The appeal of an academic decision must claim one or more of the following or similar reasons for the alteration of an academic decision:

1. The decision rests on an inaccurate factual claim.
2. The decision rests on a misinterpretation of a university policy.
3. The decision rests on an inconsistent application of a university policy.
4. The decision flows appropriately from a general university policy, but there is good reason in the particular case in question to grant an exception to this policy.

Where an appeal claims a factual inaccuracy or challenges the interpretation or application of a university policy, it is the responsibility of the student to demonstrate that the decision was clearly in error or that the entity that made the decision abused its discretion. It is also the responsibility of the student to comply fully with all aspects of the appeals process, including providing information in a timely fashion as requested by each entity hearing an appeal.

A student who wishes to appeal an academic decision must do so within fifteen school days (defined as the days within academic terms) after the decision is posted. The appeal must be in writing and should note which specific reason(s), as outlined above, the student claims in support of the appeal for an alteration of the earlier decision. The student should attach all available supporting documentation and should, if appropriate, identify persons who can provide evidence relevant to the appeal.

Steps for Appealing a Decision Initially Made by an Instructor Regarding a Particular Course

I. Step One: The student shall first discuss the decision with the instructor in an informal conference immediately after its occurrence, but no later than fifteen school days after the decision is posted.

II. Step Two: If the student is dissatisfied with the results of Step One, he/she may submit a written appeal to the department chair and/or program director whose department and/or program offers the particular course within fifteen school days of the conference accomplished in Step One. The department chair and/or program director, in consultation with the instructor, shall reply in writing within fifteen school days of receipt of the written appeal and shall state and affirm the decision, modify the decision, or overturn the decision based on information received subsequent to the conference. This reply will be reported to all persons currently involved—the student and the instructor—and will be filed in the permanent files of the department and/or program.

III. Step Three: If the student is dissatisfied with the results of Step Two, he/she may submit a written appeal to the dean in an informal conference immediately after its occurrence, but no later than fifteen school days after the decision is posted.

A. If a panel is convened, the panel will comprise three faculty members: one chosen by the student, one chosen by the instructor, and one—who will function as the panel chair—chosen by the dean or the Office of the Provost. The appeal shall be considered at a meeting of the appointed panel. This shall be commenced within fifteen school days following receipt of the appeal by the dean or Office of the Provost. The panel shall report to the dean or the Office of the Provost within fifteen school days of its initial meeting. The dean or the Office of the Provost shall reply to the student in writing within fifteen school days of receiving the panel's report and shall state the decision of Step Two and affirm, modify, or overturn the decision.

B. If a panel is not convened, the dean or the Office of the Provost shall reply in writing within fifteen school days of receiving the appeal and shall state the decision of Step Two and affirm, modify, or overturn the decision. The decision of the dean or the Office of the Provost is final.

C. The reply generated in either situation will be reported to all persons currently involved—the student, the instructor, the department chair and/or program director, the dean, and, if convened, the panel members. The reply must also be reported to other campus entities as appropriate (e.g., the Records Office and the Office of Student Life). This reply will be filed in the permanent files of the department and/or program and the office of the dean or the Office of the Provost.

Steps for Appealing a Decision Initially Made Within the Office of the Dean of a School

I. Step One: The student shall first discuss the grievance decision with the dean in an informal conference immediately after its occurrence, but no later than fifteen school days after the decision is posted.
II. Step Two: If the student is dissatisfied with the results of Step One, he/she may submit a written appeal to the Office of the Provost within fifteen school days of the conference, accomplished in Step One. The Office of the Provost must consider the student’s claims carefully. When the interests of justice so require, the Office of the Provost may decide to convene an appeal panel to review the appeal and report on its merits.

A. If a panel is convened, the panel will comprise three faculty members: one chosen by the student, one chosen by the dean, and one—who will function as the panel chair—chosen by the Office of the Provost. The appeal shall be considered at a meeting of the appointed panel. This shall be commenced within fifteen school days following receipt of the appeal by the Office of the Provost. The panel shall report to the Office of the Provost within fifteen school days of its initial meeting. The Office of the Provost shall reply to the student in writing within fifteen school days of the receipt of the panel’s report and shall state the decision of Step One and affirm, modify, or overturn the decision.

B. If a panel is not convened, the Office of the Provost shall reply in writing within fifteen school days of the receipt of the appeal and shall state the decision of Step One and affirm, modify, or overturn the decision. The decision of the Office of the Provost is final.

The reply generated in either situation will be reported to all persons currently involved—the student, the dean, and, if convened, the panel members. The reply must also be reported to other campus entities as appropriate (e.g., the Records Office and the Office of Student Life). This reply will be filed in the permanent files of the offices of the dean and the Office of the Provost.

Registration & Attendance

Attendance

Class attendance is required beginning with the first day of each session. Attendance at all appointments is expected. It is the prerogative of the instructor to establish a reasonable attendance policy for each class taught and to make this known in writing to the students at the beginning of the quarter. When there is no stated policy by the instructor, students who are absent for as much as 20 percent of the class hours should not expect to receive credit.

Audit

Audit indicates registration for attendance only. A notation of AU will appear on the grade report if the student attends at least 80 percent of the class meetings; otherwise, a notation of AUW (Audit Withdrawal) will appear. There is a special audit charge rate. A student may audit only lecture courses. Courses requiring special instruction and laboratories, such as studio art, private or group music lessons, science courses, etc., cannot be taken on an audit basis.

Class Schedule

The class schedule prepared each quarter by the University includes classes offered by subject, location, campus, as well as service learning and general education fulfillment. The schedule is available electronically prior to advisement and registration each quarter or the student may elect to obtain it at the Records Office. Students are responsible for being aware of information contained in the class schedule.

Course or Program Changes and Withdrawal

To add a course or withdraw from a course a student has the option of processing the change on the web or at the Records Office. This should be done in consultation with the student’s advisor and/or department chair.

Deadlines

Since many summer session courses are taught at dates other than the standard six-week session, students should consult the Records Office for registration deadlines for such courses.

A course dropped during the first 10 class days of a quarter is not included on grade reports or transcripts. If a student withdraws after 10 class days and by 13 class days before the beginning of final test week, a notation of W is recorded.

A student who wishes to add a course, or to change registration in any course from audit to credit, or credit to audit, must do so within the first six class days of the quarter. See the calendar found in this bulletin for the exact dates pertinent to each quarter.

A student wishing to be graded for a course on a satisfactory/unsatisfactory basis must complete the appropriate form, have it signed by his/her advisor, and turn it in to the Records Office no later than 10 class days before the first day of final examination week.

Registration

A student must be admitted to the University through the Office of Admissions and must register on the dates designated in the University calendar found in this bulletin. Complete instructions are published each quarter in the class schedule. A student is not registered until financial clearance has been obtained from Student Financial Services, all classes joined have been entered into the campus database by the date published, and the student has completed the Confirmation
Academic Policies and Procedures

Academic Definitions

Academic Probation
A student who fails to make acceptable academic progress.

Non-degree/Unspecified
A student who has not been admitted to a degree, certificate program, or pre-professional program but who is registered for selected courses in one of the schools of the University.

Provisional
A student who has not yet received regular status, because of qualitative and/or quantitative deficiencies in academic record. A student with provisional status must sign a contract that outlines restrictions on course load and participation in any extracurricular University activity such as mission trips, athletics, recruiting, etc., as well as required utilization of academic resources, and an interview with the Director of the Learning Support and Testing Director.

Regular
A student who has met all entrance requirements as listed in this bulletin and is making acceptable academic progress while registered for a standard course of study leading toward a degree or certificate in one of the schools of the University.

Graduate Student Classifications

Non-degree
A student who has not been admitted to a degree or certificate program but who is registered for selected courses in one of the schools of the University. Nondegree status is reflected on the transcript.

Though there is currently no limit to the number of graduate courses a student may take in a nondegree status, satisfactory completion of such courses does not guarantee either (a) acceptance into a degree program or (b) credit toward a degree program to which the student is subsequently admitted. If the student is admitted to a degree program, a maximum of 12 quarter units taken in the nondegree status may be counted toward the degree. No course with a grade below B (3.00) is eligible for such credit, and only courses successfully completed during the previous five years are eligible.

Credential
A student who has completed a baccalaureate degree and is working toward a credential.

Master’s Degree
A student who has completed a baccalaureate degree and is enrolled in a program leading to a master’s degree.

Specialist in Education
A student who has completed a master’s degree or its equivalent and is enrolled in a program leading to a Specialist in Education degree.

Doctorate
A student who has completed a master’s degree or its equivalent and is enrolled in a program leading to a doctoral degree.

Graduate Assistants and Fellows

Graduate Assistant
A student who provides specified services to a department of the University, and is granted a stipend upon recommendation of the department and approval of the Dean of the school.

Graduate Fellow
A student who is granted a stipend and/or remission of tuition, upon recommendation of the department and approval of the Dean of the school, without required services.

Post-doctoral Fellow
A person at La Sierra University who is engaged in further scholarly activity under supervision but not leading to a degree.
Course Load

Course Sequence and Credit for Prerequisites

Credits toward graduation are generally not granted for a beginning or introductory course that is taken after a more advanced course in the same area, or for a course that is taken after another course for which it is a prerequisite. It is expected that prerequisites as printed in this bulletin will be completed before enrollment in any course.

Normal Limit

A normal graduate study load is 6 units of coursework per quarter, including all coursework for which the student is registered in the schools of the University or elsewhere. A student of exceptional ability may register for additional study with the consent of the dean of the school of the student's enrollment. A student on academic probation is subject to a restricted course load.

Student Status

Full-time Status

A graduate student carrying 6 or more units per quarter is considered a full-time student.

Part-time Status

Fractions of a load for part-time students (1/4, 1/2, 3/4) are based on 6 quarter units for graduate students.

Unit of credit

Credit is granted in terms of the quarter unit, which represents a minimum of 10 hours of university-level instruction during a quarter, plus a reasonable period of time outside of instruction (the requirement is 100 minutes of preparation/homework for every 50 minutes of class) in preparation for planned learning experiences (such as the requisite study, preparation for instruction, study of course material and practices); or a minimum of 25-30 laboratory hours or its equivalent in pre- and/or post-laboratory studies. One hour of class time is defined as 50 minutes of actual class time not counting breaks. A break is expected for any class period longer than 100 minutes.

Student Teacher

The directed teaching experience is considered a full academic load. A student will be allowed to take an additional course only in exceptional cases and by permission of the coordinator of student teaching.

Special Coursework

Directed Study Courses

Independent study is offered to provide the opportunity for a student to have a special academic experience, beyond that which offered in the regular coursework, and that is supervised by a faculty member with expertise in the area of study. It is evaluated according to specific goals prescribed in a document of agreement which includes a description of the work to be done, the basis of grading, the number of credits to be awarded, and an agreed upon schedule for the student-teacher contact.

In degree programs, independent study is limited to 8 quarter units of graduate credit. Courses appearing in the bulletin shall always be taken under their own course number regardless of class size.

Special Credit Situations

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit is defined as credit earned at another postsecondary institution in the United States accredited with a regional or national association recognized by the American Council on Education; credit earned at a postsecondary institution accredited by the Accrediting Association of Seventh-day Adventist Schools, Colleges, and Universities; or credit earned at a foreign postsecondary institution recognized by its government. Transfer credit is determined by the Records Office in consultation with the appropriate academic dean.

The University may require a written, oral, or practical examination in any course for which transfer credit is requested. In such cases, an examination fee may be required.

1. Credit is accepted from a professional school only if the school is recognized by its regional or national accrediting organization and if the work is substantially equivalent or essentially relevant to courses offered at La Sierra University. (In addition, half credit is allowed from professional schools for some professional classroom courses.)
2. Credit for students at an Armed Forces School is granted according to recommendations of the American Council on Education.
3. Students who have transcripts from non-accredited institutions and/or transcripts showing non-transferable courses may request to take equivalency examinations in courses which are comparable to those offered by the University. Upon successful completion of the examinations, the student will be given equivalent credit as specified.

4. Credit is granted for scores of 4-7 on International Baccalaureate higher level diploma courses (no credit for subsidiary level) taken while enrolled in secondary school and submitted on an International Baccalaureate (IB) transcript. The amount of credit is determined for each examination by the Records Office in consultation with the appropriate academic dean and is dependent, in part, on the length of the course (half- or full-year course).

5. Non-United States institutions will be evaluated in harmony with the most recent available information from the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admission Officers, the National Association of International Educators (NAFSA), the Department of Education of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, previous in-house evaluations, and the current practices of other Seventh-day Adventist and/or local and national accredited institutions of higher learning. Comparabilities, course-by-course, will be assigned where necessary, taking into consideration the student’s projected plan of study.

Waiver of a Requirement

A student may request the waiver of a requirement if a prior course or experience fulfills the requirement but does not qualify for transfer of credit. An examination may be required.

1. A request to waive a requirement is made to the Dean of the school and/or program director offering the course, and if applicable, to the Dean of the student’s school of enrollment. The request must be petitioned and the examination, if any, taken before the final quarter of residence.

2. The maximum amount of coursework that may be waived is determined by the University Academic Affairs Committee Council.

3. A waiver does not reduce the credit hour or residency requirements.

4. Waiver examinations are not given for courses assigned basic skills course numbers nor for courses that have been attempted for credit or have been audited.

5. The minimum passing performance must be the equivalent of a B (3.00) for graduate courses.

6. A waiver examination does not carry academic credit and may not be repeated.

7. The testing fee for a waiver examination is listed in the Financial Information section of the bulletin.

Scholastic Standing

Basic Assumptions

The following assumptions form the basis on which the grading system operates:

1. Acceptable standards of performance (objectives) are specified for a course in the syllabus.

2. The teacher provides opportunities for the student to practice the kinds of performance called for in the objectives.

3. Letter grades are based on achievement of valid objectives.

4. Credit for completing a course is given only when a student has achieved an acceptable standard of performance.

Failure, given for not meeting minimal performance.
Academic Policies and Procedures

S

Satisfactory performance, units counted toward graduation. Equivalent to a C (2.00) grade or better in undergraduate courses or a B (3.00) grade or better in graduate courses. May not be given for basic skills coursework or for coursework in a student’s major field or professional curriculum requirements, except for courses in which it has been determined that letter grades are inappropriate. A course in which a student has requested to be graded on an S/U basis may be applied only toward the general physical education activity requirement or as a free elective toward graduation. To request S/U grading, the student files with the Records Office, the appropriate form, signed by the advisor, by 10 class days before the first day of the final examination week. Once filed, the grade is not subject to change. An “S” grade is not computed into the GPA.

U

Unsatisfactory performance, units not credited. Given only when performance for a course falls below a C (2.00) grade in the undergraduate courses or a B (3.00) grade in graduate courses, and the student has filed with the Records Office the appropriate form requesting an S/U grade, signed by the advisor, 10 class days before the first day of final examination week. Once filed, the grade is not subject to change. The “U” grade is not computed into the GPA.

NS

No grade submitted.

Notations

(AU) AUDIT

Indicating registration for attendance only. This option does not include a pre-dominantly laboratory experience course. A student must attend at least 80 percent of the class meetings. A request to change an audit course to credit or credit to audit may be made no later than the sixth class day after the beginning of a quarter.

(AUW) AUDIT WITHDRAWAL

Given when the 80 percent class attendance audit requirement was not observed.

(I) INCOMPLETE

Given for circumstances beyond a student’s control, and only if at least 75 percent of the coursework has been completed. A student requests an I grade from the instructor by completing a Petition to Receive an Incomplete Grade Grade Form which includes the reason for the request. It is the student’s responsibility to request the signature of the instructor and the department chair and/or program director or dean and, if granted, leave the form with the instructor. On the Petition to Receive an Incomplete Grade Form, the instructor will state the deadline for completion (no later than the end of the following term, but excluding the summer session for those not in attendance during that term) as well as the default grade which the student will receive if the deficiency is not removed within the time limit. Incomplete units are not calculated in the grade point average. An I may be changed to a grade only by the instructor processing a Change of Grade Form within the time limit; otherwise the default grade will be assigned.

(IP) IN PROGRESS

Given at the end of the first quarter for classes indicated as IP classes prior to registration. Classes eligible to be offered with the possibility of IP grading are determined by the dean of the school offering the course and this designation is indicated to the Records Office prior to class registration. IP courses have a maximum duration of four quarters (three quarters following the quarter in which the student first registers for the course). Classes that involve continuing research, extended dissertations, the implementation of certain features of education, fieldwork, and directed teaching illustrate the types of classes that merit IP grades. The student’s final grade is entered at any time upon submission to the Records Office by the instructor of a completed Change of Grade Form. If the work is not completed within the designated time for the completion of the IP course, a grade shall be issued by the instructor. When a grade is issued, the date of issue will appear on the student’s transcript.

(IPW) IN PROGRESS WITHDRAWAL

Given at the request of the student by filing the appropriate form with the Records Office after the end of the first quarter but prior to the fourth quarter cut-off date for withdrawal. (For withdrawal during the first quarter a W is assigned.) When an IPW is issued, the date of issue will appear on the student’s transcript and becomes irreversible at that time.

(W) WITHDRAW

Given for withdrawal from a course after the first 11 class days of the quarter and by 10 class days before the beginning of final test week. Withdrawals during the first 11 class days of a quarter, or as designated in the calendar of the summer session, are not recorded if the student files with the Records Office the appropriate form prior to the cut-off date.
Transfer Credit

Definition

Transfer credit is defined as credit earned:

A. At another United States postsecondary institution accredited with a regional or national association recognized by the American Council on Education.

B. At a postsecondary institution accredited by the Accrediting Association of Seventh-day Adventist Schools, Colleges, and Universities.

C. At a foreign postsecondary institution recognized by its government. This University generally does not accept from unaccredited institutions either (a) credit for transfer towards a degree or (b) a degree as a basis for admission. Guidelines for exceptions must be approved by the Graduate Council.

Transfer credit is determined by the Records Office in consultation with the dean of the school involved. The University may require a written, oral, or practical examination in any course for which transfer credit is requested. In such cases, an examination fee may be required.

Requirements and Procedures

Transfer credit is accepted by La Sierra University according to the following criteria:

1. For acceptance as transfer credit, courses must not have been previously applied to another degree program or curriculum. Exceptions in the case of combined programs must be approved by the Graduate Council.

2. Transfer credit may reduce the minimum requirements for credit units for a degree earned at La Sierra University; however, the requirement of 36 units to be earned at La Sierra University is not to be altered. The maximum number of transfer credits toward an academic master’s degree is the equivalent of 9 quarter units. The maximum number of transfer units acceptable for a professional Master’s degree or a degree above the master’s level is determined by the school offering such a degree. The transfer student may petition to have additional transfer credit accepted at the discretion of the Graduate Council.

3. A minimum grade of B (3.00) is required for each course accepted for transfer graduate credit.

4. Transfer-credit courses must be equivalent to courses appropriate to degree requirements as specified in this bulletin.

5. Transfer credit is not applicable if the coursework was completed more than seven years prior to registration for graduate study at La Sierra University.

6. Extension credits earned at another accredited institution are not accepted for transfer credit unless accepted toward a degree at the originating institution and approved by the appropriate school or department at this University.

7. Non-United States credentials are evaluated in harmony with the most recent available information from the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admission Officers, the National Association of Foreign Student Advisors, the Department of Education of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, previous in-house evaluations, and the current practices of other Seventh-day Adventist and/or local and national accredited institutions of higher learning. Comparabilities, course-by-course, will be assigned where necessary, taking into consideration the student’s projected plan of study.

8. Credit for prior experiential learning is granted by portfolio according to written policies available in the office of the dean of each school.

Graduation Requirements

Minimum Requirements

On the recommendation of the faculty of the school granting the degree, the University awards graduate degrees at the end of the term when the student has completed the following minimum requirements:

1. Completed all requirements for the degree in his/her bulletin of Graduation with no required course receiving below a B (3.00) for an academic degree program. No course below a C (2.00) may be used for a professional degree program.

2. Satisfactorily completed a comprehensive examination as designated by the department of specialization.

3. For a master’s degree, both an overall grade point average including transfer, if any, and an overall grade point average of courses taken at La Sierra University of B (3.00).

4. Maintained continuous registration from advancement to candidacy to the awarding of the degree.

5. Met the full-time graduate enrollment requirements, never less than two academic quarters. A year of full-time enrollment is defined as three quarters of full-time academic work. A full-time quarter of graduate enrollment is defined as the completion of at least 8 units of course work.
Residency

Nine units is the maximum amount of transfer coursework allowed to apply to a master’s degree at La Sierra University unless special consideration has been allowed by the Graduate Committee of the school. An additional nine quarter units of transfer coursework is allowed toward the specialist’s degree. All such transfer credits must be approved by the student’s guidance committee and the transcript must be sent promptly. Note carefully the requirement that at least 36 units must be earned at La Sierra University for any postbaccalaureate degree. The residency requirement for the doctoral degree is outlined in the Degree Requirements in the School of Education section of this bulletin. Also see item 2 under “Transfer credit” in this section of the bulletin.

Bulletin of Graduation

Students who are enrolled continuously in the University for successive years may choose to meet the requirements for graduation listed in the Bulletin of the year of their entrance or any subsequent year. If a graduate student discontinues enrollment for one quarter without leave of absence, residency has been broken and the requirements listed in the Bulletin of the year of re-entrance or any subsequent year must be met.

General Degree Requirements

Participation

To be eligible to participate in the formal events of graduation, candidates are expected to have completed all requirements for their degrees. The University reserves the right to limit participation in graduation or recognition ceremonies to students who have satisfactorily completed all the requirements for a degree.

A resident student who completes the requirements for a degree at the end of the spring quarter is expected to be present at the University’s annual conferring of degrees and the presentation of diplomas in June. Permission for the conferral of a degree in absentia is contingent on submission of an academic variance petition and the approval of the dean of the school.

A student who completes the requirements for a degree at the end of the autumn or winter quarter, or the summer session, is invited and encouraged, but not required, to participate in the subsequent conferring of degrees, at which time the printed program lists all candidates who have completed requirements for degrees since the preceding commencement. In some cases, graduate students, who can complete their studies during the summer session immediately after graduation, may participate in the graduation ceremonies that academic year, provided that they have received special permission from their department chair and from the dean.

A graduate is considered a member of the class of the calendar year in which the diploma is dated.

Recognition of Candidates for Degrees

Recognition of Candidates for Degrees is a formal recognition event which may occur away from the home campus when a school has a significant number of candidates completing degree requirements in an off-campus or extended campus setting. Diplomas are not formally awarded at this event but will be forwarded to the student later. The names of the candidates are also included in the printed program of the next Commencement event. The Dean of the school or the Director of the off-campus program coordinates this ceremony.

Diploma and Statement of Completion

Diplomas are available after the student’s final quarter, after the receipt of all instructor grade reports, after final academic checks have been completed, and after all including financial obligations to the University.

Those candidates who complete the requirements for a degree at times other than the regularly scheduled diploma date may request from the Records Office a statement of completion to be used until the diploma is available, if all financial and academic obligations have been met.

Progress Through a Graduate Program

Acceptable Academic Progress

For a graduate student, acceptable academic progress is considered to be:

1. The removal of all prerequisites and deficiencies during the first term (or 6 units) of attendance as determined by the dean at the time of enrollment.
2. The maintenance of a grade point average of at least 3.00.
3. The completion of the conditions of residency.
4. The maintenance of continuous registration from advancement to candidacy to the awarding of the degree.
5. The completion of all requirements for a degree within five years from date of admission for master’s programs and within seven years from the date of admission for the educational specialist or doctoral degree.
Advisor and Guidance Committee

Each student accepted into a degree program is assigned an advisor who helps to arrange a program of studies to meet University requirements. Subsequently (no later than when applying for candidacy) the student is put under the supervision of a guidance committee. This committee is responsible to and works with the coordinator of the student’s program in arranging courses, screening thesis topics (where applicable), guiding research, administering final written and/or oral examinations, evaluating the thesis and other evidence of the candidate’s fitness to receive the degree, and recommending the student for graduation.

Continuous Registration

A student is required to maintain continuous registration from advancement to candidacy to the awarding of the degree. For the terms during which the student is not paying course tuition, a fee may be charged.

Leave of Absence

A student in the College of Arts and Sciences, the Zapara School of Business, or the HMS Richards Divinity School who wishes to withdraw for a quarter or longer submits a written request for a leave of absence, indicating the reason for it and the length of time needed to be out of the program, up to a maximum of one year. This request requires the approval of the student’s department and dean. Stipulations for reentry are given to the student in writing. During the period of leave, students may need to maintain continuous registration by payment of a quarterly fee.

A student in the School of Education follows the specific time requirements for the degree sought.

Potential Consequences of Failure to Make Acceptable Academic Progress Include:

1. Academic Probation: A student whose grade point average for any term falls below 3.00 is placed on academic probation the next quarter and is subject to a restricted course load.
2. Academic Disqualification: A student on academic probation who fails to raise the current quarter grade point average to 3.00 is placed on academic disqualification, the Office of Admissions is so notified, and the student is not allowed to register the next quarter. To be readmitted after a period of academic disqualification, the student must reapply through the Office of Admissions.

A student who is academically disqualified a second time will not be readmitted to the University. Students failing comprehensive exams for a second time are academically disqualified, they are not readmitted to the program, and the Records Office is so notified.

Prerequisites and Deficiencies

Gaps in an applicant’s academic achievement are identified by subject and classified either as prerequisites or as subject deficiencies. Applicants lacking certain program or subject prerequisites are not admitted to a graduate program until the prerequisites are completed (at La Sierra University or elsewhere) and acceptable grades are reported. However, subject deficiencies do not necessarily exclude an applicant from admission or enrollment, but they must be removed as specified by the advisor or dean, usually at the beginning of the graduate experience at this University.

Readmission

A student who interrupts graduate study without arranging for a leave of absence may be administratively withdrawn from a graduate program. Resumption of study toward a graduate degree requires reapplication for admission and is subject to the requirements in effect at the time of readmission.

Research Competence

Required skills in languages, investigation, and computation are specified in each program's description in this bulletin.

Study Plan

The student’s advisor develops with the student a written outline of the anticipated graduate experience, with times and activities specified as fully as possible. This outline serves as a guide to the student and the advisor, as well as to members of the guidance committee. The study plan is changed only after careful consultation. As the student moves toward completion of the program of study, information regarding the thesis, comprehensive examination, a second master’s degree, and/or dual or shared credit within the University may be obtained from the Records Office.

Time Limits

Any credit transferred to the University or taken in residence and submitted toward a graduate degree is nullified seven years from the date when the course was completed. In certain cases, credit may be given for nullified courses after such refresher provisions as readings, reports, conferences, and examinations bring the student up to date.
The time allowed from admission to a master's degree program to the conferring of the degree generally may not exceed five years. A short extension of time may be granted on recommendation of the dean and approval by the Graduate Committee of the school. Specialist and doctoral degree time limits generally do not exceed seven years.

Candidacy for a graduate degree lapses after three years from the date of admission to candidacy.

Other Policies and Procedures

Change of Grade

A grade may not be changed by the instructor except when an error has been made in arriving at or recording a grade. Such changes are acceptable up to the end of the following term and are processed by the instructor submitting a change of grade form to the Records Office.

Any exception to this policy must have the signed approval of the chair and/or program director, Dean, and Provost before any change is made. The Provost must, in writing, notify the course instructor of the change of grade with the reasons necessitating the change.

Courses Taken Off-Campus

Students wishing to take a course at another school (including correspondence coursework) after having enrolled at La Sierra University must receive approval before the course is taken in order to establish acceptance of the course. Forms for this purpose are available in the Records Office.

Final Examinations

A four-day examination schedule allowing a two-hour period for each class is available with the schedule of classes. Students are required to take the scheduled final examination at the appointed time and place in order to secure credit. Examinations may not be taken before or after the scheduled period, nor may the time of an examination be changed without authorization by the dean of the school of the student’s enrollment.

All classes meet at the time scheduled for the final examination. If the time is not needed for an examination, it is to be used for some other educationally appropriate class activity. Exceptions to the examination schedule are granted only for emergency situations. Students with examinations covering more than 12 units on one day may petition the dean of the school of the student’s enrollment to take one examination at another time during the examination week.

Grade Reports

Under the Buckley Amendment of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (1974), students have full rights of privacy with regard to their academic records, including their grade reports. The University will send a copy of the student’s grade report to the parents upon the student’s release or copies will be sent upon request to those qualifying under the Buckley amendment.

Repeating a Course

When a student repeats a course at La Sierra University or any other approved institution, both the original and repeat grades become a part of the student’s permanent file, but only the repeat grade and credit units are computed in the cumulative grade point average and included in the total units earned. In order to assure that the GPA reflects the new situation, the student must check with the Records Office.

To assure course comparability, the Records Office, in consultation with the chair of the La Sierra University department offering the repeated course, approves all transfer courses allowed to be used to repeat a course taken at La Sierra University in which a student received a grade below C (2.00). Unless the student obtains approval prior to enrollment, it is not guaranteed the course will replace the repeated course.

Resident Scholar Program

An individual who has an earned a doctorate, or its equivalent, who wishes to undertake research and study on a specific educational theme is invited to contact the dean of the School of Education.

Transcripts

The La Sierra University transcript is the official copy of the student’s academic record and includes only all courses attempted and grades earned at the University. The transcript will reflect degree or nondegree status for each quarter’s entry. A transcript of transfer credit is maintained and is intended for internal use only.

Withdrawal

Formal withdrawal from the University must be arranged at the Records Office.

Courses numbered below 100 and in the 800s and 900s do not offer credit toward any degree or diploma at La Sierra University.

Continuing Education Units

Courses with the prefixes: ASCE (College of Arts and Sciences Continuing Education), or BMCE (Zapara School of Business Continuing Education), or ELCE (English as a Second Language Continuing Education), or SECE (School of Education Continuing Education), or SRCE (Divinity School Continuing Education), followed by a number in the 900s, offer continuing education units (CEU).

One CEU is awarded for ten contact hours of participation; hours less than ten are shown as tenths of CEUs. The CEU is a means for measuring and recording noncredit, postsecondary-level study. Courses carrying CEUs may be useful when employers or relicensure agencies require a specific number of hours of instruction for career advancement purposes, and when noncredit study is acceptable.

Note: Continuing education units, contact hours or clock hours cannot be converted at any time into academic units to be used toward any degree or diploma at La Sierra University.

Units of Credit

Credit is granted in terms of the quarter unit, which represents a minimum of 10 hours of university-level instruction during a quarter plus a reasonable period of time outside of instruction (the requirement is 100 minutes of preparation/homework for every 50 minutes of class) in preparation for planned learning experiences (such as the requisite study, preparation for instruction, study of course material and practices); or a minimum of 25-30 laboratory hours or its equivalent in pre- and/or post-laboratory studies. One hour of class time is defined as 50 minutes of actual class time not counting breaks. A break is expected for any class period longer than 100 minutes.

Prefixes and Areas of Instruction

The four-letter prefix preceding each course number is an abbreviation of the subject area in which the course is found. Following is a list of codes referred to in this bulletin, the subject area for which the code stands, the department or program in which the subject is taught, and the school in which the department or program is located. For convenient reference, the areas of instruction are listed alphabetically by code.

Master of Arts in English

The Department of English offers a MA in English degree, focused on British and American literature, which requires courses in literature, literary criticism, and research methods. Graduate students also accepted into the College Writing Instructor program will further study composition theory. The MA in English degree prepares students for further post-graduate work or to succeed in a wide variety of occupations where analytical thinking, strong writing, research skills, and effective communication abilities are essential.

Program Acceptance

Students with a baccalaureate degree with a major in English from an accredited institution are encouraged to apply, although students with a BA degree in a related area of study who demonstrate strong interest in literary studies will also be considered for admission.

Along with the graduate application, applicants are required to provide a piece of recent academic writing, that preferably demonstrates the applicants skills in literary interpretation, or otherwise displays the applicant’s analytical skills. The essay should reflect upper division course work or an equivalent effort, demonstrate the applicant’s best writing skills, and be between 2,500-5,000 words in length.

Successful applicants will provide transcripts, recommendations, a writing sample, and Graduate Record Examination (GRE) scores that reflect promise of exceptional work in English language and literature. The program is designed to be completed in two years of full-time study (8 units per quarter); however, those students who did not complete their undergraduate degree in English should expect to take additional units to earn the graduate degree. A personal plan of study that takes into account previous collegiate experience and career goals will be designed for each student.

Up to 8 units of graduate level work taken at La Sierra University prior to acceptance into the graduate program may be counted toward the MA degree.
College Writing Instructor (CWI) Program

Students accepted into full study for the MA in English degree are invited to apply for a College Writing Instructor (CWI) position. CWIs receive a stipend and partial scholarship in exchange for teaching one class of College Writing per quarter. Once awarded, a CWI must take 8 units each quarter that apply toward graduate requirements in English in order to maintain their CWI status, including ENGL 606 during their first year. Interested and qualified students may reapply to the CWI program for a second year.

Degree Requirements

General Requirements

For information about requirements and practices to which all graduate students are subject, consult the Academic Practices section of this Bulletin.

Specific Requirements

A minimum of 48 graduate-level units (i.e. at the 500 or 600 level) is required for degree completion, with no fewer than 24 units of graduate courses at the 600-level. Students whose undergraduate degree is not in English should expect to complete 60 units of course work to meet the degree requirements. The S/U grading option is not available to students in the English MA program.

Required Courses

- For all graduates, to be taken during the first year:
  ENGL 604 Methods and Materials of Literary Study

- For College Writing Instructors (CWIs):
  ENGL 606 Composition Theory and Practice

- Religion requirement to be met by one of the following:
  ENGL 545, 546U (C.S. Lewis), 559, 645; an upper-division or graduate-level course in RELB, RELE, RELH, or RELT

Program Study Plan

Each student’s graduate study plan when combined with courses taken as an undergraduate English major should meet the following basic requirements by the time graduate courses have been completed:

- 2 courses in American literature
- 2 period courses in English literature
- 2 additional courses in literature, chosen in consultation with advisor
- 2 courses in major authors (including either Shakespeare, Milton, or Chaucer)
- 1 genre course
- 2 courses in literary criticism
- 1 graduate course in research methods (ENGL 604)
- 1 writing course, taken while in residence
- 1 course in advanced grammar and style
- or in language and linguistics
- 1 course in religion or religion and literature (as specified above)

Up to 12 units of these requirements may be fulfilled by appropriate courses taken as part of the student’s baccalaureate program (i.e. upper-division literature courses in which a B or better was earned); a student’s graduate program will make up any deficiencies in these requirements, as well as meet individual interests and professional goals. All graduate students will need to complete the minimum 48 graduate-level units to graduate with the master’s degree. Students must finish their graduate program in five years after starting the program.

Foreign Language Requirement

Prior to graduation, but preferably upon admittance, each student must demonstrate reading competency in Spanish, French, German, Latin, or another language approved by the department. Competency may be demonstrated by an academic transcript indicating that courses have been taken through the intermediate level in college or by an examination administered or approved by the Department of World Languages.

Assessment Examination

During the first term of enrollment, each student will take an assessment examination. The results of this examination, together with the student’s undergraduate records and test scores, will be used by the advisor or guidance committee in planning the student’s overall program.
Comprehensive Examination

At the end of their program, students must satisfactorily complete a comprehensive examination over English and American literature, literary terms, genres, and periods. Throughout their program, students are expected to prepare for this examination through independent study, collaborative groups, and in consultation with department faculty.

Directed study

Graduate students may take a maximum of 8 units of directed study courses (e.g. ENGL 599), but only when regular course offerings cannot meet the student’s academic needs in a reasonable manner. Only English graduate students may register for ENGL 599. For approval, a student should complete the Directed/Independent Study Request Form available at the Office of Admissions and Records, submitting it first to course instructor and then to the graduate advisor, who will present it to the department faculty. The form must be accompanied by a proposal explaining the need for directed study and outlining an intended study plan. The deadline for submitting the request is three weeks before the beginning of the term.

Learning Outcomes

Students graduating with a Masters in English, in addition to the learning outcomes for the undergraduate English majors (literary emphasis), should be able to:

- Articulate the defining characteristics of the major periods in British and American literature, coherently framing them within the preceding and succeeding periods, and making insightful comparative and contrasting observations about them;

- Design and execute effective literary research projects, which engage the ongoing critical discussion from a variety of theoretical perspectives;

- Produce advanced level, persuasive rhetoric in support of their interpretive arguments about literature;

- Participate in the professional activities of literary scholarship, such as conference paper presentations.

COURSES

500-level courses are cross-listed at the 400 level. However, departmental policy requires that graduate students are held to a higher standard of intellectual inquiry, analysis, and critique than undergraduates. Additional work (papers, presentations, or exams) is required of graduate students (500) over undergraduate (400) as outlined by instructors in course syllabi

ENGL 505 Creative Writing: Advanced theoretical and practical application of writing techniques. Focus is provided in a genre.

ENGL 505A Short Story (4): Students will read short stories by masters of the craft, paying attention to the methods they use to shape their fiction. Students will apply these tools to their own work as they write, workshop, and revise.

ENGL 505B Poetry (4): While investigating the methods of the great poets of the Romantic, Modern, and Contemporary eras, students will write their own original verse with an eye towards form, rhyme, and imagery.

ENGL 505C Playwriting (4): Advanced theoretical and practical application of playwriting techniques. While consulting models from a variety of historical eras, writers will brainstorm, draft, and revise a full one-act play. Techniques of character invention, plot construction, and dialogue will be practiced in a workshop setting.

ENGL 505E Humor Writing (4): Students will read humor literature, paying attention to what makes the pieces funny. Students will apply these tools in their own work as they write, workshop, and revise.

ENGL 505F The Long Project (4): Students will consider what it means to tell a story for the larger canvas—be it fiction or memoir. Students will read books in each, examining such craft issues as structure, point of view, plot, theme, and characterization. Students will write a book proposal and two sample chapters.

ENGL 505G Memoir (4): Students will read memoirs by masters of the craft, paying attention to the tools they use to shape their narratives. Students will apply these tools in their own work as they write, workshop, and revise.

ENGL 506 Writing for Publication (4): Students will analyze writing venues, writing guidelines, and published pieces. They will write, workshop, and revise, submitting work for publication at the end of the quarter.

ENGL 510 Literary Genres (4): Considers various genres of literature in English including poetry, the essay, drama, film, autobiography, the novel, short story, etc. May be repeated for new content.
ENGL 514 World Literature (4): Study of masterpieces of classical and/or world literature in English translation. May be repeated for new content.

ENGL 515A Classic Children's Literature (4): This course examines the genre of children's literature from the time that stories and books were written specifically for children through the first half of the 20th century. It will also focus on trends in children's literature during this time (particularly gender presentation), the role of traditional literature, and the relationship between literature for children and society.

ENGL 515B Modern Children's Literature, Post 1940 (4): This class is designed to introduce students to a wide range of literature written for children. Emphasis will be placed on reading and evaluating modern children's books (preschool to reading level 5) through investigation of significant authors and works, diverse genres, problem areas, literary merit, etc.

ENGL 516 Young Adult Literature (4): An examination of adolescent literature, focusing on genres, cultural diversity, literary elements, and problem areas. Required for State Teacher Credential, 7-9.

ENGL 525 Major American Authors or Movements (4): The course focuses on a major figure or group in American literature. May be repeated for new content.

ENGL 545 Biblical Literature (4): An introduction to the reading of the Bible from the standpoint of a literary critic, with an assessment of the importance of the influence of the Bible on Western literature. Required for Seventh-day Adventist Secondary Teacher Credential.

ENGL 546 Major British Authors or Movements (4): An examination of a major figure, group, movement, or period in British literature. May be repeated for new content.

ENGL 557 Chaucer (4): A study primarily of the "General Prologue" and selected stories in The Canterbury Tales. Not offered every year.

ENGL 558 Shakespeare (4): A study of the dramatist through representative comedies, tragedies, and histories.

ENGL 559 Milton (4): An intensive study of Milton's early poetry and drama, prose, and his three major epic works.

ENGL 565 Topics in English (4): Seminars in various current topics in English. Specific topics listed in class schedule. May be repeated with new content for additional credit.

ENGL 566 Topics in Film (4): Seminars in various film topics (e.g. Film and Literature). Specific topics listed in class schedule. May be repeated with new content for additional credit.

ENGL 582 Advanced Grammar and Style (4): Study of traditional, structural, and transformational grammars with additional emphasis on standard American usage rules and stylistic features; taught especially for prospective teachers and writers. Offered alternate years.

ENGL 584 Language and Linguistics (4): Major descriptions of the origins, development, and grammar of modern English, with additional emphasis on phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, and the acquisition of language. Offered alternate years.

ENGL 587A Classical Rhetoric and Criticism (4): A consideration of the formative theories of persuasion and interpretation, dating from the Greek, Roman, and early Christian eras. Particular emphasis is given to the relevance of classical theory to contemporary rhetoric and literature.

ENGL 587B Contemporary Literary Criticism (4): An examination of modern and post-modern literary theory, including the schools of formalism, psychoanalysis, feminism, post-structuralism, and cultural criticism. Readings survey the writers, philosophers, and social commentators whose contributions shaped and continue to shape current methodologies of interpretation.

ENGL 596 History and Theory of Drama (4): The course provides an introduction to the history and development of theatre. Students will gain exposure to various cultures in social, historical, and geographical context through study of the world of artistic and literary expression as it is revealed through the art of theatre. Emphasis is placed on the student exploring the various ways changes in technology and a changing worldview affect the theater of a given period and reflect the behavior and responsibilities of individuals and societies. The course is designed to enable the student to develop their understanding of theatrical history and form through lectures, play script readings, and attending theatrical performances. Students will conduct a major individualized research project that requires the formulating, organizing, and communicating the original ideas and information in a paper and formal presentation. Students will also collaborate on short projects, presenting the results of their reflection, analysis, and critical thinking in oral presentations. Prerequisites: ENGL 113 or ENGL 124 or permission of instructor and an additional 4 units of a 200-level ENGL course.
ENGL 599 Directed Study (1-4): Independent study in consultation with an advisor. See policy above for more information. Maximum of eight units will be counted toward the degree.

Graduate-Only Courses

ENGL 604 Methods and Materials of Literary Study (4): Graduate seminar required of first-year graduate students. This course explores the nature and practices of scholarship in literary studies. It orients students to the culture of academic careers, and clarifies the distinction between graduate and undergraduate literary studies.

ENGL 605 Seminar in Genre (4): Focused study of the conventions, themes, and evolution of one of the following: poetry, novel, short story, drama, comedy, and autobiography.

ENGL 606 Composition Theory and Practice (4): Designed as both theoretical and practical, this course emphasizes major composition theorists and their research. Students explore writing as a process in more depth through frequent writing opportunities with the aim of becoming more effective writers themselves. Finally they analyze theory, research, grammar, and writing experiences to discover principles for effective teaching.

ENGL 608 Special Topics in English Language and Linguistics (4): Graduate seminar that offers an advanced study of issues pertinent to the English language and its linguistics. Content varies according to the specialization and research interest of the teacher.

ENGL 615 Special Topics in Literary Criticism (4): Explores the recent history and development of modern literary theory and criticism, with particular emphasis on contemporary modes of interpretation. Students read theory, criticism, and relevant literature. Emphasis is offered in different movements, including postcolonial literature and criticism, feminist criticism, and various cultural criticisms.

ENGL 625, 626 Seminar in a Major Literary Period (4, 4): Advanced study of literature, culture, and context of a major period of literature in English from the medieval period to the present.

ENGL 635 Seminar in a Major Author (4): Advanced study of the major works of a significant author. Each course will examine style, themes, genres, and other aspects of a specific author’s work.

ENGL 645 Seminar in Religion and Literature (4): Graduate seminar that offers an advanced study of issues pertinent to the relationship between religion and literature. Content varies according to the specialization and research interest of the teacher.

ENGL 665 Seminar in Writing (4): Advanced study and practice in one of various traditions in writing. Emphases vary but include: journalism, memoir, business, technical writing, and academic publication.

ENGL 685 Workshop (1-4): Varied content offered in concentrated courses (such as Shakespeare on film, C. S. Lewis in the secondary classroom, humor in American literature, etc.). May be repeated for new content.

ENGL 697 Research (1-4): An opportunity for graduate-level students to pursue an area of special interest in further detail. Restriction: The proposal for the research project must be submitted to and approved by the graduate advisor and department faculty three weeks before the beginning of the term that the project is to be completed.
The La Sierra University Zapara School of Business develops leaders who create value and make a difference and enlarges human understanding of business and society.

To fulfill this mission, the School:

- Delivers a curriculum that stimulates creativity; reflects La Sierra’s Seventh-day Adventist Christian mission; and encourages moral responsibility, spiritual growth, collaboration, and economic and social entrepreneurship;
- Challenges students to redefine business and raise global living standards by building innovative products, markets, and organizations;
- Supports a co-curricular program that offers students distinctive opportunities to grow as leaders, develop business skills, and engage in global service; and
- Encourages faculty members and students to engage in wide-ranging creative, intellectual inquiry validated through professional practice and publication in scholarly books and journals.

Expression of the Mission

Responsible work in God’s world will always have two dimensions: the struggle for social justice and the enrichment of creaturely life. Liberation and development go hand in hand; and each is an integral part of the mission of the Zapara School of Business. It is committed to fostering God’s shalom—wholeness, fulfillment, and justice in community.

The School’s curricula emphasize workplace spirituality, social entrepreneurship, and ethics. The focused study of these themes as part of the business curriculum fosters intellectual development and expands students’ moral and spiritual horizons. Immersion activities simultaneously express its commitments to excellence in the School’s areas of distinctive competence and provide students with the chance to develop appropriate habits and skills.

The School intends to foster a commitment to humane patterns of work life; proactive moral action; acknowledgment of special responsibilities to employees, local communities, and other stakeholders; socially conscious investment; recognition of the value of life outside the workplace; and creative social entrepreneurship on behalf of hurting people. The School encourages its students and other constituents to embody excellence and image God’s creativity—to create value; to foster human flourishing; and offer people new opportunities for comfort, beauty, insight, enjoyment, and health.

The School recognizes the importance of business education in cultivating the development of students as whole persons. It educates students—its own majors and others—for active citizenship by assisting in their moral development, facilitating their awareness of culture, and helping them to integrate their work and the rest of their lives. It challenges them to understand work as a potential vocation, a unique responsibility they can receive as a gift from God and an opportunity for service.

Service is central to the ZSB curriculum. By directly assisting people in need, engaging in social entrepreneurship or community education and organizing, or conducting policy analysis, students come to understand the significance of their studies and develop greater empathy.

The ZSB seeks to embody in its scholarship La Sierra University’s dedication to truth and service. Working where appropriate with students, its faculty members engage actively in scholarly activity to foster shalom, enlarge human understanding, and expand their own horizons.

Leadership in the Curriculum:

The Zapara School of Business is dedicated to helping its students become leaders who will enhance the lives of people and their communities using business skills and business creativity. Rooted in its Seventh-day Adventist Christian vision—marked by appreciation for the unique value and potential of each individual, the liberating nature of social cooperation, and the transformative value of service—the School’s commitment to leadership rests on five pillars:

- Character—embracing a shared vision rooted in restoration and healing; treating others with dignity, respect, and kindness; promoting justice and peace; fostering and modeling flourishing; being authentic and transparent; acting with courage, humility and accountability.
- Community—understanding and valuing people with diverse characteristics, perspectives, and lifestyles; empowering others to act; collaborating with and supporting others; resolving conflict; acknowledging others; embracing win-win thinking; promoting global awareness.

- Creativity and critical thinking—challenging the status quo; solving problems using innovation and imagination; integrating, analyzing, and embracing new ideas; exhibiting curiosity and adaptability; valuing multi-disciplinary approaches; thinking big.

- Skills—making effective use of reason, argument, and evidence; nourishing discipline-related skills; engaging in research, communication, and self-expression; mastering the use of technology in business; demonstrating excellence.

- Execution—accomplishing the task and modeling the way; applying the results of learning; serving others; being proactive; being a change agent; increasing individual, business, and societal value; assessing, synthesizing, and evaluating; creating, designing, constructing, producing, developing, and inventing; nurturing others by inspiring, mentoring, and guiding; synergizing.

The School encourages leadership development through coursework and co-curricular activities—including the Paul Cone Program in Leadership, which includes a yearly weekend orientation seminar, lectures and colloquium events for both campus and community, and a year-long team-focused competition

Zapara School of Business Additional Opportunities:

Paul Cone Program in Leadership

In honor of Paul Cone, the Zapara School has instituted a Paul Cone Program in Leadership. Among the components of the Program are

- the Paul Cone Leadership Development seminar, which takes place at the beginning of each academic year, and which may feature elements including an introduction to the mission and values of the Zapara School, an overview of curricular elements and degree requirements, opportunities to discover and become involved in Enactus projects, intensive leadership training exercises, an orientation to the Cone Practicum, and micro-courses delivered by faculty members and guest lecturers

- the Paul Cone Practicum in Leadership, a year-long team-building and leadership development exercise that provides each student the opportunity to compete, throughout the year, as a member of one of four teams, on fronts including grades, fundraising for the ZSB, a for-profit microbusiness, a not-for-profit enterprise, and the organization of ZSB co-curricular activities

- the Paul Cone Lecture Series, which will expose Zapara School students and faculty members to guest speakers who exemplify Paul Cone’s commitment to academic excellence and creativity.

Rent-a-Brain

The ZSB’s consulting group, Rent-a-Brain, provides students and faculty members alike with valuable experience and significant growth opportunities. It serves business, labor, and community organizations by providing advice regarding management, marketing, finance, ethics, and other topics.

Center for Philanthropy

La Sierra University’s Center for Philanthropy is housed in the Zapara School of Business. The mission of the Center is to encourage the practice of effective philanthropic giving and fund-raising and the integration of philanthropy into the mission of effective charitable and not-for-profit enterprises. It educates leaders who will create, implement, and promote innovative models of philanthropy in partnership with those who seek effective, long-lasting social change. As a contributor to La Sierra University’s mission of global service, it is a significant resource for students, faculty members, the philanthropic community, and the countless ordinary people it serves.

Center for Conflict Resolution

The Center for Conflict Resolution helps people and organizations resolve and manage conflicts without resorting to the legal system or using violence. It does this in three ways: by providing courses, lectures, and certificate programs focused on alternative dispute resolution; by providing professional mediatorial services (delivered through a free-standing corporation); and by facilitating research designed to lead to the peaceful resolution of conflict. The Center for Conflict Resolution will cooperate with entities including La Sierra University’s Center for Entrepreneurship and Students in Free Enterprise program by fostering just economic development as a means to peaceful conflict resolution. The Center’s mission is an apt expression of La Sierra University’s Seventh-day Adventist heritage—marked by a commitment to peacemaking and global service.

Edward C. Allred Center

The Edward C. Allred Center exists to promote free market economics through the education of students, especially those at Seventh-day Adventist high schools. The center provides high school students with interactive, online materials that teach them the principles and practices of financial literacy and personal finance. In the summer, it offers on the University campus a boot camp on entrepreneurship for selected high school students and a workshop on free market economics for high school teachers. The center also awards prizes for high school students and their teachers who respectively write on and teach the principles of free market economics.

TransResearch Consortium

The TransResearch Consortium, drawing on the scholarship of faculty members at La Sierra University, Claremont Graduate University, and Portland State University, but headquartered at La Sierra, explores political and economic change related to the developing global economy, with a particular focus on the role and impact of countries in East Asia and South Asia.

Zapara School Resource Center

Zapara School Resource Center offers academic, professional, and personal support services, including tutoring, assistance with job placement, life coaching, resume preparation assistance, internship/practicum identification assistance, proctoring, and substitute teaching.

Enactus

Enactus is an international non-profit organization that works with leaders in business and higher education to mobilize university students to make a difference in their communities while developing the skills they need in order to become socially responsible business leaders. Some 57,000 students, organized in roughly 1,600 teams, operating in thirty-nine countries apply business concepts to develop outreach projects that improve the quality of life and standard of living for people in need. An annual series of regional, national, and international competitions provides a forum for teams to present the results of their projects, and be evaluated by business leaders serving as judges. In addition to the community-serving aspect of the program, Enactus’ leadership and career initiative create meaningful opportunities for learning and exchange as well as the placement of students and alumni with companies in search of emerging talent.

Organized in 1991, the La Sierra University Enactus team is sponsored by the Zapara School of Business. The team’s many educational and service projects have had a tremendous impact on our local and global community, further validated by the team’s six Enactus National and International championship wins, including two Enactus World Cup competitions in 2002 and 2007. The team invites students from all disciplines who are interested in developing their potential in leadership, entrepreneurship, and social responsibility to join the organization, resulting in a group rich with diverse academic and cultural backgrounds. Led by students and supported by Sam Walton Fellows John Razzouk, S. Eric Anderson, Deanna Wisbey, and Warren Trenchard, the team’s work actively embodies the mission of the university. Learn more at lasierra.edu/enactus.

Placement and Internships

The Zapara School of Business attempts to help students obtain employment after graduation. Internships enable students to integrate business theory and practice, grow professionally before entering full-time employment, and acquire valuable professional contacts. Academic credit may be available for an internship. Internships are available on a regular basis with entities including Adventist Health System—North, Adventist Risk Management, KPMG, and Florida Hospital. The School’s annual Sam Croft Meet the Firms Night provides opportunities for students to network with potential employers and arrange for interviews. The school also schedules other placement-related events throughout each academic year with various organizations and firms. See the Coordinator of Student Services for internship and placement information.

Curricula

The Zapara School of Business offers the Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree with majors in:

- Accounting
- Finance
- General Management
- General Management - Law, Policy, and Ethics
- Human Resource Management
- Marketing
- An individually designed customized major is also available

The Zapara School of Business also offers:

- Certificate in Management
- Certificate in Philanthropy and Development

The Zapara School of Business and Richards Divinity School jointly offer a combined program leading to the completion of both the Master of Business Administration and the Master of Divinity.

Master of Business Administration Program

The MBA program is designed to educate leaders who will simultaneously create value and make a difference. La Sierra trains students motivated by a commitment to integrity, compassion, and social justice who will use their skills in nongovernmental organizations, corporations, government agencies, church institutions, or community organizations as social entrepreneurs: people who expand economic opportunity and grow wealth in underdeveloped communities by promoting the creation of innovative enterprises that in turn make tangible, positive social change happen.
While the School equips students with business skills they can use in any morally appropriate business environment, it concentrates its educational efforts on training them to be social entrepreneurs. The MBA program builds on La Sierra’s distinctive strengths: a multicultural student body, opportunities for interdepartmental and interinstitutional cooperation, special resources in the areas of social entrepreneurship and ethics, and links with an international church community that is serious about cross cultural understanding and global service.

The 45-unit program features:

- A focused introduction to key business skill areas; opportunities for involvement in research projects that build competence and provide exposure to current trends and issues; educational strategies including integrated courses, customized learning materials, field-based learning, and various curricular programs; immersion activities that simultaneously express the School’s commitments to excellence in its areas of distinctive competence and provide students with the chance to develop appropriate habits and skills; a distinctive emphasis on ethics, workplace spirituality, and social entrepreneurship within the framework of Christian commitment;
- An over-arching curricular emphasis on leadership, intended to develop the whole person and drawing both on specific coursework and on leadership components incorporated in classes throughout the program;
- A flexible structure that permits each student to select her or his own emphases—even to design customized curriculum while completing the program at her or his own pace.

Completion timetable

A student may proceed through the program on a full-time or part-time schedule. Normal progress through the program for a full-time student will be three courses per quarter. Normal progress for a part-time student will be one or more courses per quarter. The time allowed from admission to the graduate program to the conferring of the MBA degree will not ordinarily exceed five years; the dean of the Zapara School of Business may consider applications for extensions on a case-by-case basis.

Repetition of courses

A student may repeat an Integration, Diversification, or Major course only if her or his previous grade in the course was a B- or lower.

Probationary status in the MBA program

A student will enter probationary status whenever the Zapara School of Business so determines. In particular, a student will enter probationary status if:

- The student completes twelve units on provisional status and earns less than a 3.00 GPA;
- By the point at which she or he needs to complete only thirty-six further units to earn an MBA, the student’s cumulative GPA is 2.50;
- By the point at which she or he needs to complete only twenty-four further units to earn an MBA, the student’s cumulative GPA is 2.75 or lower;
- By the point at which she or he needs to complete only twelve further units to earn an MBA, the student cumulative GPA is 2.90 or lower.

A student on probationary status may not register for any MBA course for which she or he has not already received a grade. Until the student’s cumulative GPA reaches 3.0, she or he may only retake a course if it is one she or he may retake under the MBA program course repetition policy.
A student on probationary status will return to regular status when her or his cumulative GPA reaches 3.00.

S/U grades

No course in which a student elects to receive S/U credit will count toward the student’s MBA degree requirements. This policy does not apply to credit earned for MGMT 518, which is required of all MBA students.

Professional preparation

The MBA program is designed to provide interested students with valuable preparation for examinations leading to recognized professional certifications, including the Certified Public Accountant, Certified Management Accountant, Chartered Financial Analyst, Certified Financial Manager, and Professional in Human Resources designations.

MDiv/MBA

A combined program leading to the completion of both the Master of Divinity and Master of Business Administration degrees is offered jointly by the HMS Richards Divinity School and the Zapara School of Business. The program is designed especially for persons interested in congregational leadership, church administration, church planting, and the use of entrepreneurial skills to enhance congregational and community life.

Twelve units completed in the School of Religion by a student enrolled in the program may be used to fulfill requirements for the MBA program, and twelve units completed in the Zapara School of Business by such a student may be used to fulfill requirements for the MDiv program, with the result that twenty-four fewer units will be required to complete the combined program than would be required to complete the two degrees separately.

A student wishing to complete the combined degree must be accepted into both the MDiv and the MBA programs. For further information, please contact the School of Religion dean’s office or the Zapara School of Business dean’s office.

Program in Customized Majors

Program Faculty

Gary Chartier, Coordinator
Associate Dean, Zapara School of Business
Professor of Law and Business Ethics (2001)
JD University of California at Los Angeles 2001
PhD University of Cambridge 1991
Law and legal theory, ethics, political theory

Curricula Offered

The Program in Customized Majors oversees the customized MBA program.

Customized Curriculum

1. A person with academic objectives not readily achievable through an existing Zapara School of Business Master of Business Administration program may receive an MBA degree in a customized major field from the School of Business after the completion of a special curriculum approved by the School.

2. A customized MBA curriculum must feature a minimum of forty-five units of non-Foundation courses, including at least thirty-two units offered by the School of Business. A student completing a customized MBA major will be expected to meet all applicable MBA Integration and Foundation requirements.

3. A proposal for a customized MBA major should ordinarily include the following:

   A. A list of the courses to be included in the proposed curriculum;

   B. A title for the major, which will appear on the student's diploma and transcript if the curriculum is approved; and

   C. Documents or other materials supportive of the proposal, including any information requested regarding the rationale for the curriculum, the curriculum's intended academic focus, and the goals it is intended to serve.

4. A customized MBA curriculum meeting the requirements contained in this policy may be designed and approved simultaneously for a specific cohort of students.

5. No undergraduate course will fulfill any requirement for a customized MBA degree.

6. A customized MBA major proposal must be approved in accordance with a review process established by the dean's office. The Program in Customized Majors is primarily responsible for certifying the academic credibility of each proposed customized MBA curriculum during the review process. Thus, it may require revisions in a proposal, or reject it entirely. The Program will notify the Office of University Records once a customized MBA major has been approved.

7. While the University will attempt to ensure that a person whose customized MBA major has been approved will be able to complete requirements for the major on schedule, the approval of a customized MBA major constitutes only a commitment on the university's part to make reasonable efforts to ensure the major's completion. Approval of a customized MBA major is not a guarantee that the courses included in the proposal, or others to be substituted for them, will be available at the times required for the degree to be completed as planned.

Curricula Offered

The Program in Management and Marketing offers curricula leading to the MBA with majors in general management; general management with a concentration in law, policy, and ethics; human resource management; and marketing.

The Program in Management and Marketing also offers curricula leading to two certificates: the Certificate in Management and the Certificate in Philanthropy and Development.

Admission Requirements

Admission to study for master’s degree programs in management and marketing is competitive. For more information, please refer to the Zapara School of Business section of this bulletin and contact the ZSB dean’s office.

Outcomes

Management Outcomes: Each student will demonstrate the ability, at an appropriately competitive level, to:

1. Comprehend, analyze and synthesize how organizations function; and propose, evaluate, and apply appropriate contemporary management strategies in order to create and sustain effective and efficient organizations.
2. Understand, evaluate and apply theories of management and human processes that affect individual and group behavior at work, human capital management, leadership and culture within a framework of respectful human relations, dignity, legal mandates, and organizational effectiveness.
3. Understand and synthesize the basic functional areas of business management (leadership, strategy, planning, innovation, organization, implementation, change management and control). Evaluate, verify and choose between different theoretical and operational strategies for implementation.
4. Analyze, evaluate and apply managerial strategies in light of clear comprehension of managers’ fiduciary and social/moral responsibilities, often-diverse stakeholders’ interests, and long-term organizational well being.
5. Develop, manifest, and implement stronger societal, ethical, and global perspectives in management decision making.

Marketing Outcomes: Each student will demonstrate the ability, at an appropriately competitive level, to:

1. Comprehend, analyze and apply the theory of marketing, the marketing process, and the dynamic role of marketing strategy in the modern organization.
2. Understand the role of marketing in society as a whole; and include societal, ethical, and global perspectives in managing the marketing function.
3. Comprehend, analyze and evaluate markets, market demand, market environment, and behaviors and trends of consumers and business buyers in order to manage profitable customer relationships.
4. Perform strategic market analysis (marketing research, segmentation, targeting, positioning and planning for competitive advantage).
5. Understand the importance of innovation, develop innovative strategies and innovate to add value to the organization. Apply and utilize all technological advancements for effective and efficient management of the marketing function in the organization.

Prerequisite: MGMT 519

MGMT 634 Compensation Management (4): The major methods used in determining effective wage and salary systems, including factor, point, ranking, and classification system; examination of health and welfare programs and retirement related benefits; legal requirements affecting today's manager; and techniques of integrating governmental regulation with corporate objectives for financial and non-financial rewards. The class will focus on compensation as a tool for talent management and human capital motivation and organizational performance. The class creates development of an entire organizational compensation system as a capstone project.
Prerequisite: MGMT 604

MGMT 644 Employment Law (4): A legal analysis of the process of recruitment, hiring, promotion and training, retention, and termination of employees with particular reference to the legal rights of both employers and employees and the extent of legal liabilities organizations encounter in the implementation of the human resource management process.
Prerequisites: MGMT 604 & MGMT 547

MGMT 647 Advanced Topics in Business Law (4): Explores legal issues of special interest to those specializing in business fields. May be repeated for additional credit with the consent of the instructor.

MGMT 657 Women as a Business Imperative (4): This course examines the role of women in society and business through historical and contemporary lenses. In particular, it will consider the growing influence of women in leadership and management positions as major contributors to the corporate bottom line from the beginning of the modern period to the present. The class requires a final project examining and proposing best practices and strategies for advancing women into management and leadership positions.

MGMT 664 The Start Up Garage: Create a New Venture From Idea to Launch (4): This is an integrated lab course in entrepreneurship designed to teach students the process of creating a new viable venture from idea to launch. It is a dynamic and interactive course organized around projects undertaken by an individual student or team of students who want to take an idea to market. This course is designed not only for students with immediate entrepreneurial aspirations, but also for any student considering starting an entrepreneurial venture at some point in her or his career. Students will research, design, and morph their idea into a viable business concept as well as develop a strategy and plan to attract financial, human and other resources. The teaching method is primarily learning by doing through a structured process and supported by relevant lectures. Learning is further enhanced through meetings with the instructor, coaching by experienced mentors and review by peers. Field research as well as prototype product development are integral to the course.
Prerequisite: completion of MBA Foundation requirement or consent of the instructor.

MGMT 666 Advanced Legal Issues in Health Care (4): Common law principles, government regulations, and public policy issues as they pertain to health care services.
Prerequisite: MGMT 547.

MGMT 667 Governance, Risk Management, and Financial Reporting (4): This course introduces students to the use of financial information in corporate governance, with a particular focus on risk and internal and external financial reporting (including auditing), paying persistent attention to the interaction between management and other stakeholders. Combines techniques analysis, problems, and examples with case studies. Cross-listed with ACCT 667.

MGMT 669 Taxes and Business Strategy (4): An examination of the pervasive role of taxes in business decision-making. Integrates knowledge of tax laws with the fundamentals of corporate finance and microeconomics and offers a framework for understanding how taxes affect decision-making, asset prices and the financial and operational structure of firms and appreciating the differences and trade-offs between the taxation and financial reporting of a transaction. The goal is to provide a framework for recognizing tax planning opportunities and applying basic principles of tax strategy. Cross-listed with ACCT 669.
MGMT 674 Reading Tutorial in Management (1-4): Independent study at an advanced level in management, focused on specified readings. May be repeated for additional credit with consent of the instructor.
Restrictions: Consent of the instructor & the dean's office

MGMT 688A Entrepreneurship Internship Lab (1-4): The entrepreneurship internship lab allows students to participate in an internship with a start-up company. Internships can be in traditional, global, or socially focused areas.
Prerequisite: Consent of Instructor.

MGMT 688B Social Entrepreneurship Lab (1-4): In the Social Entrepreneurship Lab students explore social entrepreneurship first-hand by working with local nonprofit and for-profit enterprises that have social missions. After careful analysis, students make strategic recommendations to the participating organizations and firms in order to leverage greater growth.
Prerequisite: Consent of Instructor.

MGMT 688C Start Up Garage Lab (1-4): The Startup Garage Lab is an experiential lab course that focuses on the design, testing, and launch of a new idea. Students work in teams through an iterative process of understanding user needs, ideating and prototyping new products and services. Teams will present their prototypes to a panel of entrepreneurs, investors and faculty members.
Prerequisite: Consent of Instructor.

MGMT 691 Management Strategy (4): Design and application of strategic, operating, and contingency plans using a systems approach. Content may vary by major.
Additional Requirement: Completion (or waiver) of all of the MBA Foundation requirements.

MGMT 694 Practicum in Philanthropy (1-4): Provides academic credit for supervised work activity that draws on graduate-level skills in philanthropic fund-raising and philanthropic management and that is documented by an appropriate exercise or set of exercises. Enrollment is dependent on the student’s proposal of a practicum site and identification of an appropriate supervisor as well as on the approval of the appropriate ZSB program coordinator.
Prerequisite: MKTG 604
Restrictions: Consent of the instructor & consent of the dean's office

MGMT 695 Topics in Management (1-4): Advanced issues in management. Subject matter varies with student and instructor preference. May be repeated for additional credit with consent of the instructor.
Restriction: Consent of instructor

MGMT 696 Practicum in Management (1-4): Provides academic credit for supervised work activity that draws on graduate-level skills in management and that is documented by an appropriate exercise or set of exercises. Enrollment is dependent on the student’s proposal of a practicum site and identification of an appropriate supervisor as well as on the approval of the appropriate ZSB program coordinator.
Restrictions: Consent of the instructor & the dean's office

MGMT 697 Practicum in Human Resource Management (1-4): Provides academic credit for supervised work activity that draws on graduate-level skills in human resource management and that is documented by an appropriate exercise or set of exercises. Enrollment is dependent on the student’s proposal of a practicum site and identification of an appropriate supervisor as well as on the approval of the appropriate ZSB program coordinator.
Prerequisite: MGMT 604
Restrictions: Consent of the instructor & consent of the dean's office

MGMT 699 Directed Study (1-4): Independent study under the direction of a supervisor on a topic concerning management, to be selected by the faculty member and the student, with regular and periodic conferences with the instructor.
Restrictions: Consent of the instructor & the dean's office

Marketing

MKTG 505 Marketing Foundations (3-4): An introduction to the practice and significance of marketing. Focuses on the marketing environment, consumer and industrial buying behavior, marketing research, and marketing ethics. Particular attention is paid to the basics of marketing strategy (market segmentation, targeting, and product differentiation and positioning) and to the marketing mix – product, price, distribution, and promotion.
Restriction: Not open to students with credit in MKTG 305.

MKTG 586 Advertising (4): The role and use of advertising and other promotional techniques within the marketing function. Development of an advertising plan including media selection, creative strategy and advertising appeal, and budgeting. Legal, ethical, and international aspects of advertising are highlighted.
Prerequisite: MKTG 605 or consent of the instructor.
Restriction: Not open to any student who has earned a grade of C or better in MKTG 386.
MKTG 589 Health Care Marketing (4): This course will provide students with the knowledge and skills needed to effectively market health care products and services. It addresses issues including environmental analysis, problem identification, priority identification, strategy development, and tactical planning. Fundamental concepts of marketing such as segmentation, targeting, positioning, customer satisfaction and perceived value will be reviewed in the context of health care marketing. Specific health care marketing tools will be presented to help in identifying problems and developing strategies.

MKTG 605 Marketing Management (4): The marketing management process. Focuses on decision-making and problem-solving within the marketing strategy framework: target market, segmentation, positioning, product development and policy, pricing, channels of distribution, and promotion. Emphasizes the development of a coherent marketing program for profit and nonprofit organizations.

MKTG 614 Seminar in Marketing (4): Advanced topics in marketing; variable content. May be repeated for additional credit to a maximum of 12 units. Prerequisite: Consent of the instructor

MKTG 624 Advanced Marketing Research (4): Highlights the importance of marketing information and information technology in management decision making. Includes the marketing research process: methods and applications, techniques of data collection, analysis, and interpretation, with an emphasis on consumer surveys and test marketing. Prerequisites: ECON 525 & MKTG 605.

MKTG 626 Sales Management (4): Management of the sales territories, personnel, and activities. Includes territory management; the personal selling process; and managing the sales force (sales force strategy and structure as well as recruiting, selecting, training, motivating, and supervising salespeople). Prerequisite: MKTG 605.

MKTG 631 Marketing, Planning, and Strategy (4): Concepts, analytical methods, and models used in strategic marketing for situation analysis; strategy development, evaluation, and selection; marketing plan development; implementation; and control. Prerequisite: MKTG 605

MKTG 636 Retailing Management (4): Overview of the different retail organizations and retail activities. Organization and management of retail institutions. Emphasis on retail store operations: location, layout, planning, managing human resources, pricing, and customer services. Design of retail and merchandising strategies. Prerequisite: MKTG 605.

MKTG 638 Quantitative Methods in Marketing Decisions (4): Quantitative skills application in executive and managerial decisions related to marketing. Topics include strategic marketing decisions, market segments evaluation, target market selection, profitability analysis and financial ratios, new products/projects evaluation, pricing and margins, distribution alternatives evaluation, operating efficiency indicators, inventory management and control, setting promotional budget, and budget allocation among different promotional tools. Prerequisite: MKTG 605

MKTG 644 Consumer Behavior Analysis (4): The consumer decision-making process. Influences on the purchasing behavior of consumers. Attitude formation and change. Behavioral models utilized to understand consumers’ buying behavior and its importance in the application of the marketing concept. Prerequisite: MKTG 605

MKTG 656 New Product Development (4): The new product development process from idea generation to commercialization. Examines how start-up companies and the product development departments of major organizations develop new products. Analytical techniques used in ideation, product concept development and evaluation, concept testing, product testing, and product launching. Prerequisite: MKTG 605

MKTG 657 Supply Chain Management (4): Analysis of supply chain management for products and services and the dynamic interaction of companies within an integrated supply chain. Topics include: factors guiding companies’ supply chain development and management; technology as a supply chain tool; intra-supply-chain positioning; and performance measures used across the supply chain. Prerequisite: MKTG 605

MKTG 658 Marketing Channels (4): The course explores ways in which manufacturers and service providers access markets through their design and management of marketing channels—pipeline or pathway through which products and services are made available for purchase by customers. Prerequisite: MKTG 605
MKTG 659 Digital Marketing Management (4): Explores the impact of advancing digital business technologies on customers, markets, industries and business models. Both theoretical and operational implications of the digital marketing manager’s role are addressed to help students develop the strategic perspective and practical skills necessary for effectively navigating the new frontiers being opened every day in marketing via the Internet and other electronic venues. The course will consider topics that may include: social news, promotion through social media channels, primary and secondary traffic, viral content distribution, photo and video sharing, online community and network building, search engine rankings, spam, forums and message boards. Additional topics may include: marketing strategic approaches on the Internet, e-CRM, e-marketing research, digital positioning and branding, managing social networks, integrated communications on digital media, new pricing approaches, digital competition, virtual merchandising and e-commerce strategies.
Prerequisite: MKTG 605

MKTG 674 Reading Tutorial in Marketing (1-4): Independent study at an advanced level in marketing, focused on specified readings. May be repeated for additional credit with consent of the instructor.
Prerequisites: Consent of the instructor & the dean’s office

MKTG 676 Advertising Management (4): Decision making for the advertising program: setting objectives and budgets, developing advertising strategies, creating integrated campaigns, and measuring results.
Prerequisite: MKTG 605

MKTG 686 Promotion Strategy (4): The role and use of promotion and promotional techniques within the marketing function. Development of a promotional plan, including all components of the promotional blend, and budgeting and budget allocations. Legal, ethical, and international aspects of promotion are highlighted.
Prerequisite: MKTG 605 or consent of the instructor

MKTG 687 Global Marketing Management (4): Methods utilized for developing marketing strategies in the global market. Cultural, political, legal, economic, and distribution differences within foreign markets.
Prerequisite: MKTG 605.

MKTG 695 Topics in Marketing (1-4): Advanced issues in marketing. Subject matter varies with student and instructor preference. May be repeated for additional credit with consent of the instructor.
Restriction: Consent of the instructor

MKTG 696 Practicum in Marketing (1-4): Provides academic credit for supervised work activity that draws on graduate-level skills in marketing and that is documented by an appropriate exercise or set of exercises. Enrollment is dependent on the student’s proposal of a practicum site and identification of an appropriate supervisor as well as on the approval of the appropriate ZSB program coordinator.
Restrictions: Consent of the instructor & the dean’s office

MKTG 699 Directed Study (1-4): Independent study under the direction of a supervisor on a topic concerning marketing, to be selected by the faculty member and the student, with regular and periodic conferences with the instructor.
Restrictions: Consent of the instructor & the dean’s office
School of Education

Mission

Within the context of the La Sierra University mission statement, the School of Education’s mission is to prepare individuals for exemplary service in the various fields of education to the end that their students may realize their fullest potential in service to God and humanity. Its goals are:

- To assist pre-service and in-service educational personnel in building a sound philosophy of education that reflects Christian values and ethical principles.
- To enable the student to implement basic principles of education which reflect sound theories and practices.
- To motivate investigative curiosity and a desire to participate in the advancement of knowledge.
- To help develop skill in educational research.

Accreditation

The following credential programs are approved by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing:

Preliminary Teaching Credential
- Multiple subjects
- Single subjects

Professional Clear Teaching Credentials
- Multiple Subject
- Single Subject

Services Credentials
- Administrative Services: preliminary and professional
- Pupil Personnel Services: School Psychology and school counseling

The following credential programs are approved by the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists Department of Education:

Teaching Credentials
- Elementary
- Secondary

Services Credentials
- Administrator Endorsements: principal, supervisor of instruction, superintendent of schools
- Guidance and Counseling

Degrees and Programs

Curricula are offered for the degrees: Master of Arts in Teaching, Master of Arts, Master of Arts in Special Education, Master of Education (Canada extended campus only), Specialist in Education, and Doctor of Education. Postbaccalaureate (or “fifth-year”) credential programs and a certificate program are also available. The credential programs are structured to fulfill requirements for teaching and service credentials prescribed by the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists Department of Education and/or the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

Administration

The dean is the chief administrative officer of the School of Education. The department chairs are directly responsible to the dean. The faculty, department chairs, and dean collaborate to develop instructional programs in the three departments: Administration and Leadership, Curriculum and Instruction, and School Psychology and Counseling. Directors of the various services of the School are also responsible to the dean, who maintains responsibility for the curricula, ensures that academic policies, ethics and standards are maintained, and presides at meetings of the department chairs and of the School of Education faculty. The dean also chairs the Planning Committees for Extended Campus Programs.

Undergraduate Teacher Preparation

The Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science degrees applicable to elementary or secondary teaching are available through the College of Arts and Sciences, with professional education and advisement provided by the School of Education’s Department of Curriculum and Instruction. (See the Undergraduate Bulletin for more details.)

Admission to Graduate Programs

Prospective candidates must apply for admission to the University for the purpose of pursuing a graduate degree. (See the Graduate Admission Information section in this bulletin.)

Responsibility of the Student

It is the responsibility of the student, in consultation with an advisor within the department, to ensure that all requirements are fulfilled in their proper sequence and within specified time limits. No course taken in the School of Education with a failing grade may be repeated more than one time. In graduate studies a course with a grade of B- or lower may not be counted toward completion of the degree.

Dismissal Policy:

The School of Education expects all students to demonstrate a high level of professional ethics. The faculty in the School of Education has voted the following policy: The department faculty reserves the right to use its collective professional judgment in the evaluation of a student's professional readiness to enter an educational profession. If, in their professional judgment, the faculty decides that a student is unqualified for that profession, the student will be asked to withdraw from the program. This decision will be based on the Code of Ethics for the Teaching Profession from the National Education Association.

In every profession, evidences may become observable when someone is not meeting professional performance standards. An occasional lapse is not generally a cause for concern. However, if a pattern develops, steps may be taken to address the concern.

Causes for automatic dismissal include, but are not limited to: violence, sexual harassment, drug abuse, academic dishonesty, and other criminal activity.

Causes which may cumulatively become cause for dismissal include, but are not limited to inability to effectively teach content in the classroom, repeated absences or tardiness, failure to respond to suggestions for improvement, inability to confidently present or communicate with others, unrealistically high or low expectations of students, gossip about students, parents or other professionals, inaccuracy in record keeping, displaying inappropriately confrontational or angry behaviors, ineffectiveness in classroom management, failure to dress professionally, inappropriately casual or unprofessional behavior with students, breach of confidentiality, and/or dishonesty.

School of Education Graduate Degree Programs

Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT)
- Curriculum and Instruction

Master of Arts (MA)
- Administration and Leadership
- Curriculum and Instruction
- Counseling
- Special Education (Mild/Moderate Disabilities)

Specialist in Education (EdS)
- Administration and Leadership
- Curriculum and Instruction
- Educational Psychology
- School Psychology

Doctor of Education (EdD)

Teacher Education Programs

The Teacher Education Program is offered via two approaches. The first approach is a blended program in which students take methods courses and prerequisite courses for the program as part of their undergraduate degree. The Teacher Education Program and the Liberal Studies Program are both State of California approved. Students completing the Liberal Studies Program and/or a single subject major are required by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC) to take the California Subject Examination for Teachers (CSET) in addition to completing the 4 tasks of the Teaching Performance Assessment (TPA).

The Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) is the second approach available for completing the approved Teacher Education Program. The credential program is integrated with graduate courses that enhance students’ ability to teach in California schools. The Master of Arts in Teaching is a 57 quarter unit degree. Students in both the blended undergraduate program and the Master of Arts in Teaching are required to take the examinations required by the State of California (See examinations below).

Because the Teacher Education Program is a California Commission of Teacher Credentialing approved program, program decisions are made based on the requirements of the State of California, the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists, and the Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Throughout the teacher education program, students must participate in periodic assessments. Should the assessment results received by the department indicate an area of concern, the student may be asked to follow an individualized remediation plan in order to attain the success expected in the profession. As this is a State of California approved program, the program content may not be otherwise adjusted.

Examinations

The examinations required of students in the Teacher Education program are as follows:
At the beginning of the program:

CBEST: California Basic Education Skills Test

After taking the Reading and Language Arts courses:

RICA: Reading Instruction Competency Assessment
(required of multiple subject candidates only)

Immediately after completion of the bachelor’s degree major requirements, or prior to acceptance into the MAT:

CSET: California Subject Examination for Teachers

Throughout the program:

TPA: Teaching Performance Assessments

The largest in the series of examinations is the Teaching Performance Assessment (TPA), which occurs at four points in the program. The total time for a student to complete the four examinations is about 20 hours per assessment for a total of 80 hours. TPAs are based on California’s 13 Teaching Performance Expectations (TPEs). TPAs are listed following the program requirements provided below.

Prerequisite courses required of all students before beginning the MAT include:

- EDCI 204/502 Teaching in the Multicultural Classroom (3)
- EDCI 507 Psychological Theories of Instruction (3) OR EDOF 305 Psychological Foundations of Education (4)
- EDCI 503/HLSC 214 Dimensions of Health (3/4)
- HPSC 274 The Construction of American Political Life (4) (or pass an exam on the U.S. Constitution)
- EDCI 413/516 Computers in the Curriculum (3)

Program Requirements

The student must request and work with an advisor in the Curriculum and Instruction Department from the beginning of the program. This advisor will help the student plan the program to meet the goals of the student and the requirements for credentials and certification.

Core requirements

Courses listed below include statutory requirements of the State of California preliminary credential.

- EDCI 512 Integration of Faith and Learning (3)
- EDCI 545 Brain Science and Learning (3)
- EDCI 580 Cooperative Learning (3)
- EDCI 664 Social and Emotional Intelligence (3)

Prerequisites and Admission

1. Applicants for the MAT degree must hold a bachelor’s degree or its academic equivalent from an accredited institution and must meet the entrance requirements of the University for a credential program.
2. Entry requirements include:
   - Minimum GPA of 2.75
   - A passing score on CBEST
   - A negative TB test
   - Cardiac-pulmonary-resuscitation (CPR) training (must be current for Student Teaching)
   - Certificate of clearance granted
   - Completion of pre-professional coursework.
3. All credential candidates are required to meet requirements for State of California credentials. NAD requirements must be met by Seventh-day Adventist students desiring an SDA credential.
4. Acceptance into the MAT program is contingent on content area skills and knowledge. This must be demonstrated through the completion of an approved bachelor’s degree and passing CSET.
5. The 57 units in the MAT program do not include the following prerequisite courses:

Prerequisite courses required of all students before beginning the MAT include:

- EDCI 204/502 Teaching in the Multicultural Classroom (3)
- EDCI 507 Psychological Theories of Instruction (3) OR EDOF 305 Psychological Foundations of Education (4)
- EDCI 503/HLSC 214 Dimensions of Health (3/4)
- HPSC 274 The Construction of American Political Life (4) (or pass an exam on the U.S. Constitution)
- EDCI 413/516 Computers in the Curriculum (3)

The Teaching Performance Assessments are designed to assess the Teaching Performance Expectations. The TPAs are:

- Task 1: Subject Specific Pedagogy
- Task 2: Designing Instruction
- Task 3: Assessing Learning
- Task 4: Culminating Teaching Experience

To complete a Master of Arts in Teaching, the following four courses must be taken and passed:

MAT Core

- Integration of Faith and Learning: EDCI 512 (3)
- Brain Science and Learning: EDCI 545 (3)
- Cooperative Learning: EDCI 580 (3)
- Social and Emotional Intelligence: EDCI 664 (3)

MAT Total: 57 units

Total Units in Professional Coursework (45)

Total Units for the Degree (57)

Student Teaching Prerequisites

- Resume
- Autobiographical Sketch
- TPA 1 and 2 passed
- Current CPR certificate

Student Teaching

(18 weeks student teaching, including seminar)

1. Authorization to do student teaching is requested by making application to the Department of Curriculum and Instruction. Applications should be submitted no later than three months prior to the anticipated start date, in order to allow for arrangements in locating placements.

2. Eighteen weeks (18 weeks) are required for student teaching. Specific dates and locations will be arranged through the director of student teaching. Candidates are not to attempt to make their own student teaching site arrangements. La Sierra University maintains legal contracts with school districts and only university faculty work with these contracted agreements.

3. Each student teaching placement involves full time commitment; therefore, during this time students may not enroll in a class or hold a job outside of placement. Students should be in the schools from about 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. (the daily schedule will vary in different schools) five days per week for 18 weeks. During the student teaching experience, attendance at a weekly seminar is required. Student teaching during the summer session is not an option, except in rare situations.
4. Students are expected to provide their own transportation for student teaching. Refer to the Student Teaching Handbook for additional specific requirements.
5. Small Schools Requirement: All students applying for elementary Seventh-day Adventist credentials are required to spend a portion of their student teaching experience in a small school class of 3 grades or more. The department will arrange this placement.

Student teaching may be waived for

Credential candidates who have taught successfully for several years. When this is the case, students may elect to take a discipline emphasis in place of student teaching.

Requirements for Graduation

- Complete coursework (57 units) for the MAT.
- Maintain a GPA at 3.0 or above.
- Submit Application for Graduation

Master of Arts General Information

Program Completion Sequence:

Steps in the sequence toward completion of the master’s degree program are the same, regardless of the department in which the degree is taken.

1. Program Approval: Develop a program of study with an advisor in the department of degree specialization. The program must be approved by department committee.
2. Application for Candidacy: Apply for advancement to candidacy after completing 27-30 units of the approved program with a grade point average not less than 3.00. The application for advancement to candidacy allows the department to review the student’s eligibility and progress in completing the program.
3. Satisfactorily complete all coursework in the approved program of study, with a grade point average not less than 3.00, and no course grade lower than a B-. A maximum of two repeats of courses is permitted.
4. Petition for Graduation: Submit a petition for graduation two quarters prior to completion of the program.
5. Departmental Comprehensive Examination: Pass a departmental comprehensive examination prior to beginning of the Masters Project.
6. Portfolio completion (if required by the program).
7. Graduation.

Residence and Time Requirements

Policies on academic residence and time limits are found in the Academic Policies and Practices section of this bulletin. Full-time students usually complete the master’s degree in four to five quarters. Since most courses are offered in late afternoons, evenings, and summers, it is often possible for part-time students to continue regular employment while extending the time period for program completion. Some fieldwork and class assignments may require occasional activities during regular school hours.

Second Master’s Degree

A second master’s degree from La Sierra University requires a minimum of 30 quarter units. For information about other requirements, see a faculty advisor.

Program of Study

The Master of Arts degree in the School of Education is comprised of a minimum of 45 quarter units beyond an approved baccalaureate degree, plus all prerequisites.

Core Requirements (15 units):

- EDAD 524 Educational Organization & Leadership (3)
- EDCI 514 Curriculum Planning (3)
- EDRS 504 Methods and Material of Research (3)
- EDPC 561 Counseling Theory (3)
- EDCI 512 Faith and Learning (3)

Content Specialization (21 units, minimum):

Courses will vary depending on the discipline and the inclusion of credential requirements.

MA Degree Total 45 units (minimum)

Master of Arts Administration & Leadership

The Master of Arts degree in Administration and Leadership provides students with the opportunity to plan a personalized program focusing on the needs and goals of the individual student. All programs are designed to assist the student in developing leadership and organizational skills. Requirements for the Seventh-day Adventist Administrator Certificate and/or the state of California's Preliminary Administrative Services Credential may be included in this MA program. (For further information about this degree contact the Department of Administration and Leadership.)
Required

• Core requirements (15 units; see program of study under “Master of Arts: General Requirements.”)
• Content Specialization (21 units minimum)
• Electives (selected in consultation with the advisor)
• A portfolio is required of candidates wishing to obtain their administrative credential through the state of California. A portfolio is not required of candidates who are seeking a master’s degree without state credentials.

Comprehensive Examination

Students must arrange with the Department of Administration and Leadership to take the comprehensive examination. Successful completion of the examination is required for degree completion. Unsatisfactory performance on one or more portions of the examination will necessitate the student retaking those sections of the examination. Unsatisfactory performance on the entire examination will result in the student being assigned a program of additional study as approved by the Department of Administration and Leadership. Unsuccessful completion of any portion of the qualifying exam on the second attempt may result in the student being dropped from the program.

Master of Arts Curriculum & Instruction

The three essential points of the University Mission Statement that apply to the Master of Arts degree are to seek, to know, to serve. The goals, objectives, and learning outcomes for this degree are based on the mission of the university and the mission of the department. The goals, objectives, and student learning outcomes are listed below.

Program Goals

To know:

• To expand students’ knowledge of the field of Curriculum and Instruction.
• To clarify student values and worldviews in a Christian context.

To seek:

• To further develop critical thinking and analysis of teaching and learning through practice of research.
• To develop academic writing skills at a graduate level.

To serve:

• To promote professionalism in education.
• To refine the art of teaching and learning through professional practice.

Program Objectives

The program aims to:

• Expand students’ knowledge of the field of Curriculum and Instruction.
• Promote an understanding of the science of learning.
• Require students to apply critical analysis.
• Develop the ability to do projects or theses.
• Develop students’ ability to write in a scholarly style.
• Encourage students to participate in analytical discussions with increasing skill.
• Encourage students to articulate their values and worldview.
• Persuade students to exhibit professional behavior.
• Teach students how to conduct educational research and/or develop programs or projects.
• Exhibit acquired knowledge of Curriculum and Instruction.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completing this program, the candidate will:

• Exhibit a broad knowledge of the field of Curriculum and Instruction in order to be a better curriculum and instruction practitioner.
• Participate in analytical discussions with increasing skill in order to develop critical thinking regarding effectiveness at professional sites/classrooms.
• Demonstrate the ability to write in a scholarly style and with critical thinking in order to write for professional journals or for curriculum leadership tasks in school settings.
• Demonstrate the ability to discuss course content and to reflect on the readings in order to develop a strong sense of scholarly content.
• Be able to articulate values and worldviews in order to develop a framework for thinking about moral responsibility in educational practices.
• Exhibit professional behavior in order to be a role model for students, in carrying out educational responsibilities, in treatment of students and colleagues with dignity and respect, and in mindfulness of the limits of one’s own knowledge.
• Conduct educational research and/or develop programs and projects in order to contribute to the body of knowledge in educational research or program development.
• Develop a research project, or thesis in order to practice the research/writing process.
• Develop a knowledge of the science of learning in order to better understand how people learn.
• Complete successfully the comprehensive examination in order to demonstrate the knowledge and skills gained in the program.

The Master of Arts in Curriculum and Instruction builds on the baccalaureate degree. The program is designed to cover a combination of theory, practical skills and research, which meets the needs of the professional educator. (For further information about this degree, contact the Department of Curriculum and Instruction.)

UCR Extension

La Sierra University and University of California Riverside Extension offer articulation of UCR-E coursework from UCR-E to La Sierra University. Programs available in:

- Certificate in Autism Spectrum Disorders
- Early Childhood and Family Studies
- Computer Concepts and Applications
- Gifted and Talented Education
- Response to Intervention
- CLAD through CTEL Certificate
- Reading and Language Arts Specialist
- TESOL Certificate

Area of emphasis can be defined through advisement within the department.

Required

Students must arrange with the Department of Curriculum and Instruction to take the comprehensive examination prior to registering for EDCI 597 Masters Project. Successful completion of the examination is required for degree completion. Unsatisfactory performance on one or more portions of the examination will necessitate retaking those sections of the examination. Unsatisfactory performance on the entire examination will result in the student being assigned a program of additional study as approved by the Department of Curriculum and Instruction. Unsuccessful completion of any portion of the qualifying exam on the second attempt may result in the student being dropped from the program.

Master of Arts in Special Education

Mild/Moderate Disabilities

The graduate program in special education (mild/moderate disabilities) builds on the baccalaureate liberal studies major or the single subject matter. This degree does not lead to a credential. See the chair of the La Sierra University Department of Curriculum and Instruction.

- EDAD 524 Educational Organization and Leadership (3)
  - EDCI 512 Faith and Learning (3)

Total Units in Special Education MA program: (48 units)

Master of Arts Counseling

A Master of Arts (MA) degree in counseling may be earned through an elective program which does not lead to state certification. A Master of Arts degree is typically taken by those students who are pursuing an EdS degree or California Clinical Counseling license if they begin the program at the post-baccalaureate stage at La Sierra University. For further information about this degree and licensure contact the Department of School Psychology and Counseling.

Prerequisites and Admission

In addition to the admission requirements for graduate study as described in the Graduate Admission Information section of this bulletin, further specialized prerequisites may be specified for the Master of Arts degree program in Counseling.
Documentation must be submitted confirming the absence of any conviction for a felony and of any communicable or contagious disease, either of which would prevent the student from performing mental health services.

Counseling Program

The Master of Arts in Counseling degree program allows students to select from three concentrations: School Psychology and Counseling, Student Life and Development, and Community Intervention and Development. Some individuals may require more than the minimum 45 units because of particular concentration, interests or the needs as listed below for particular programs and students.

Students in the joint La Sierra University—University of California at Riverside – Extension (UCRX) M.A. in School Counseling program may contact the Department of School Psychology and Counseling for program requirements. The degree requirements for the joint La Sierra-UCRX program differ from the requirements for the M.A. degree in Counseling at La Sierra University and must be approved by the Department prior to entering the program at La Sierra University.

Prerequisites:

EDPC 460/560 The Exceptional Child (3)*

*Only required for students in School Psychology

Required

- Core requirements (15):
  EDRS 504 Methods and Materials of Research (3)
  EDCI 512 Faith and Learning (3)
  EDPC 561 Counseling Theory & Technique (3)
  EDAD 524 Educational Organization & Leadership;
  or
  EDAD 540 Personal & Philosophical Aspects of Leadership (3)
  EDCI 514 Curriculum Planning (3);
  or
  EDCI 664/
  EDPC 651 Emotional & Social Intelligence (3)

- A portfolio (see department)

- Content Specialization (30-39 units):
  School Psychology/Counseling Concentration (30 Units)
  Student Life/Development Concentration (33 Units)
  Community Intervention/Development Concentration (39 Units).

Students may contact the department or refer to the Department website for the sequence and specific course requirements of each concentration.

Additional Requirement

A satisfactory score is required on the portfolio assessment, department comprehensive examination and the PRAXIS school guidance and counseling section, and must be received by the University at least four weeks prior to graduation or the issuance of a diploma.

Extended LPCC Education Program

Continuing education courses leading to the Licensed Professional Clinical Counselors (LPCC) are available through the Extended Master of Arts (MA) in Counseling Degree Program. This is a post-MA counseling program for students interested in completing the prerequisites necessary to qualify and apply for California LPCC licensure.

Application for LPCC licensure may be made when the following requirements are met: (1) completion of Master of Arts in Counseling (2) a minimum of 90 units of coursework, and (3) completion of 3,000 clock hours of internship.

Specialist in Education: General Requirements

Two options are available in achieving the Specialist in Education degree:

- Option 1- Prior completion of a Master of Arts degree followed by a minimum of 45 units of post-MA coursework.
- Option 2- Completion of 90 units with a grade point average no less than 3.3 (this option is for individuals who have not previously completed a Master of Arts degree)

Program completion sequence

Steps in the sequence toward completion of the education specialist degree program are the same regardless of the option chosen or the department in which the degree is taken.

Steps are as follows:

1. Program approval—develop a program of study with an advisor in the department of degree specialization. The program must be approved by department committee.
2. Application for candidacy—apply for advancement to candidacy after completing 27-30 units of the approved program under Option 1, or 75 units under Option 2, with a grade point average not less than 3.30. The application for advancement to candidacy allows
3. Satisfactorily complete all coursework in the approved program of study, with a grade point average not less than 3.30, and no course grade lower a B-. A maximum of one repeat of a course is permitted.

4. Petition for graduation—submit a petition for graduation two quarters prior to the date of anticipated completion of the program.

5. Portfolio completion (if required by the program).

6. Comprehensive Examination-- Successfully pass a written and oral comprehensive examination (if required by department). Continuation toward a doctorate degree (if acceptance is granted) is contingent on successfully passing this comprehensive examination.

7. Graduation

Residence and Time Requirements

Policies on academic residence and time limits are explained in the Academic Policies and Practices section of this bulletin. The Option 1 program requires that 36 of the 45 units for the EdS degree must be taken at La Sierra University, while the Option 2 program specifies 72 units in residence. Full-time students can usually complete Option 1 in four to five quarters and Option 2 in eight to ten quarters. Since most courses are offered in late afternoon, evenings, and summers, it is possible for part-time students to continue their employment while extending the time period for program completion. Course units become obsolete after seven years.

Program of Study

The Specialist in Education degree in the School of Education requires a minimum of 90 quarter units beyond an approved baccalaureate degree or 45 units beyond the Master of Arts degree.

Specialist in Education Administration & Leadership

- Core courses (27 units)
- Electives (18 units selected in consultation with the advisor)
- Application for admission to candidacy
- Petition for Graduation (two quarters before completion)

Portfolio

A portfolio is required for candidates wishing to obtain their administrative credential through the state of California. A portfolio is not required of candidates who are seeking an EdS degree without state credentials.

Specialist in Education Curriculum & Instruction

The Specialist in Education degree in Curriculum and Instruction contributes to the development of professional personnel for service in a variety of educational settings, including that of the professional teacher (K-16); supervisory functions; and other central office functions involving curriculum leadership. For further information about this degree contact the Department of Curriculum and Instruction.

At the end of the EdS program there are benchmarks that determine whether the student will be allowed to progress toward the doctoral degree. These are a written qualifying examination with an oral defense of the written examination, and successful completion of courses with a minimum GPA of 3.3. After successfully completing these benchmarks, the student is eligible to apply for candidacy for the doctoral program.
Program Goals

The program goals for the Educational Specialist degree are:

To know:
- To expand students’ knowledge of the field of Curriculum and Instruction.

- Synthesize the theories that relate to education in order to read, write, research, and analyze scholarly educational work.
- Demonstrate a high level of writing, critical thinking, and analysis in order to clearly communicate in a scholarly way. For further information about this degree, contact the Department of Curriculum and Instruction.

Specialist in Education

School Psychology

The Specialist in Education degree for School Psychology provides all the elements specified by the state of California for the Pupil Personnel Services Credential with authorization for school psychology. The credential may also be pursued without earning an EdS degree.
Recommendation for the credential will be based on demonstrated competencies as well as on the accumulation of a specific number of course credits. It is important for students to keep in mind that admission to a program does not guarantee permission to complete the program. If, during the student’s course of study, the Department of School Psychology and Counseling observes academic limitations, documented behaviors, and/or personality/characterological limitations that are inconsistent with the professional expectations for a graduate of the program, the student may be dismissed from the program.

For candidates for the school psychologist credential who have previously obtained a Master of Arts degree in school counseling or related mental health area, the program will ordinarily require two years (including the 1,200 hour internship) to complete the, 45-unit minimum if all prerequisites have been met. Those without a prior graduate degree or certification in counseling will choose to do a master’s degree plus the EdS degree. All candidates must acquire a graduate degree either by previous study or as a part of the credential program.

Within the limits of School of Education policy, transfer credits from other schools may be considered for inclusion in the program. However, according to state-mandated guidelines, a total of 90 postbaccalaureate units must be accumulated for an approved school psychologist credential whether or not a graduate degree is earned.

A student must maintain at least a 3.3 GPA throughout the EdS program. Students with provisional standing are expected to earn a 3.5 GPA or higher on the first 12 units in order to move to regular standing in the program.

For further information about this degree contact the Department of School Psychology and Counseling.

Prerequisites and Admission

In addition to fulfilling all the admission requirements for graduate study, as described in the Graduate Admission Information section of this bulletin, applicants selecting the school psychology specialization must meet the following:

1. Documentation must be submitted verifying the absence of any conviction for a felony and of any communicable or contagious disease, either of which would prevent the student from teaching or performing other certified services. Students should apply for state criminal clearance immediately following admission to any of the state credentialing programs.

2. A pre-admission interview and writing test are to be scheduled with faculty in the Department of School Psychology and Counseling who will evaluate the applicant’s communication abilities, commitment, values, writing abilities and professional attitudes. Admission to the program is contingent upon a satisfactory rating by the interviewers.

The Program

The Educational Specialist Degree in School Psychology is comprised of all prerequisites and a minimum of 45 quarter units beyond 45 MA (Counseling) units or a Master’s degree in an academic field related to counseling psychology.

The program for an EdS degree in school psychology must include all of the coursework and field experiences required for the PPS-School Psychology Credential. (When a school psychologist credential is sought without a degree, core courses EDFO 606, EDAD 687, and religion are not required.)

Required

Core Requirements (15 units):
EDAD 688 Moral Leadership (3)
EDRS 604 Educational Statistics I (3)
EDFO 606 Sociology of Education (3)
or EDCI 545 Brain Research and Learning (3)
EDAD 687 Leadership in the Organization (3)
or one EDAD Course (3) approved by the Department

Content Specialization (30 units):
Students must contact the Department or refer to the Department website for the sequence and specific course requirements for the degree.

Internship Requirements (12 units):
EDPC 676 Internship in School Psychology (12) (1200 hours)

Additional Requirements:

1. California Basic Education Skills Test (CBEST). Out-of-state applicants must take this test no later than the second available administration date following their enrollment in the program.
2. Application for field practice six weeks prior to placement.
3. Satisfactory score on the PRAXIS school psychology section. A satisfactory score report must be received by the University at least four weeks prior to graduation or the issuance of a diploma.
4. Application to the School of Education Credential Office for a state and/or denomination credential, if eligible.
Specialist in Education
Educational Psychology

The Specialist in Education degree in educational psychology is a noncredential elective program which provides advanced preparation for educational generalists, teachers in all disciplines, administrators, college instructors desiring a professional educational background, and practitioners aspiring toward clinical or research applications. Although the earning of a master’s degree is not a mandatory prerequisite, applicants must satisfy all requirements specified below. For further information about this degree contact the Department of School Psychology and Counseling.

Prerequisites

In addition to regular admission for graduate study in the School of Education, applicants for an EdS degree in educational psychology must provide evidence of the following:

1. Within the past seven years, at least one introductory or advanced course must have been satisfactorily completed in each of the following:
   - Foundational educational psychology
   - Developmental psychology

2. Within the past 7 years, at least 15 quarter units of credit must have been earned at the upper division or graduate level, with no grade less than C (2.00), in one of the following areas:
   - Professional education, including teaching and/or administration
   - Counseling and/or school psychology
   - Behavioral sciences and/or psychology

3. For those entering the 45-unit post master’s option, the master’s degree must have been earned in an area of professional education, teaching, counseling, school administration, or an equivalent specialization.

Deficiencies in the above prerequisites may be removed after entrance to EdS study. Eligible credits thus earned may be used as electives for the program when all other requirements have been met.

Program Requirements

Core Requirements (15 units):
- EDAD 688 Moral Leadership (3)
- EDRS 604 Educational Statistics I (3)
- EDFO 606 Sociology of Education (3)
  or EDCI 545 Brain Research and Learning (3)
- EDAD 687 Leadership in the Organization (3)
  or one EDAD Course (3) approved by the Department

Electives (9 units selected in consultation with the advisor)

Portfolio (see the Department)

Content Specialization (21 units minimum):

Content specialization courses may vary depending on a student’s interests or needs. All specialization courses must be approved by the Department at the beginning of a student’s program.

Doctor of Education:
General Requirements

Admission to Doctoral Program

Official admission to the doctoral program and full approval of the program of study takes place as part of the process of admission to the university and the School of Education. (See Graduate Admission Information section of this bulletin.)

Residence Requirements

A minimum of 42 credits of a doctoral program must be earned in residency. In the case of specified departmental prerequisites, a student not having completed the necessary components of the MA or EdS levels is required to complete the deficiencies. Furthermore, the School of Education Graduate Committee may determine that additional coursework or directed study is needed to update knowledge in important and relevant areas in which the student has not kept current by continuing professional experience and/or study.

Candidates entering full-time residency should typically expect two academic years of study beyond the master’s degree, whereas one full academic year of 42 units is required beyond the EdS level. The completion of prerequisites and the dissertation may extend the time beyond these estimates. All 42 units must be taken in residence at La Sierra University following admission to the doctoral program and must be completed within seven years.
Advancement to Candidacy

The purpose of the application for advancement to candidacy is for the department to review the student’s eligibility and progress for completing the program. The following criteria must be met for advancement to candidacy:

1. Completion of all required coursework, other than the dissertation, with a grade point average not less than 3.50;
2. Successful completion of qualifying examinations administered by the department in the area of specialization. Students must be accepted into candidacy prior to requesting a dissertation committee and preparing a dissertation proposal.

Qualifying Examination

During the final quarter of coursework, students must arrange with the department to take a qualifying examination. Successful completion of the examination will qualify the student to petition for advancement to candidacy and to proceed to the dissertation stage of the program. Unsatisfactory performance on the examination may result in the student’s discontinuance from the doctoral program.

Degree Completion and Petition for Graduation

Toward the end of the dissertation study, the candidate will petition the School of Education Graduate Committee for permission to graduate with a Doctor of Education degree based on fulfillment of the following requirements:

1. Completion of an approved program of study with no less than 132 quarter units postbaccalaureate, including a minimum 87 units beyond the master’s degree, and fulfillment of all prerequisite and specialization requirements.
2. Completion of 42 units beyond the EdS level with no grade below B-, and a grade point average not less than 3.50. A maximum of two repeats of courses is permitted.
3. Successful completion of the qualifying examination.
4. Satisfactory oral defense of the dissertation not later than one month prior to graduation.
5. Submission of the approved and signed dissertation to the Office of the Dean of the School of Education in its final form ready for binding prior to graduation.
6. Recommendations for the conferral of the degree by the departmental faculty and by the Graduate Committee of the School of Education.

The Dissertation

The student is responsible for meeting dissertation requirements and procedures as described in the Dissertation Handbook available online at http://www.lasierra.edu/schools/ed/. A dissertation publication fee is charged for binding and final processing. (See the Dissertation Handbook for further details.) Students writing a dissertation must register for at least one unit of dissertation credit each quarter, up to 12 units minimum. Research and dissertation preparation are under the direction of the student’s dissertation committee chair. The student should secure the committee’s approval of the topic and research design as early as possible.

If the student has been advanced to candidacy, has completed all course requirements, and has registered for, but not completed, the research and dissertation, maintenance of continuous registration is required until the manuscript has been accepted. This may be accomplished by registering for SECE 910 Dissertation Continuation (1) each quarter (excluding summer) until the dissertation is completed.

Timelines

The following is the required program sequence for the Doctor of Education degree:

1. Admission to the doctoral program. This occurs at the completion of EdS level work and prior to beginning the 42 units of doctoral residency.
2. Program approval. Develop a program of study with an advisor in the department of specialization during the first quarter in residence. The program must be approved by the School of Education Graduate Committee.
3. Portfolio completion (if required by the student’s program of study).
4. Successful completion of the qualifying examination.
5. Application for advancement to candidacy. Occurs after passing the qualifying examination, immediately following coursework completion. The application for advancement to candidacy is for the department to review the student’s eligibility and progress for completing the program.
7. Oral defense of dissertation. Must take place no later than four weeks prior to date of graduation.
8. Petition for graduation. Must be submitted upon final approval of dissertation by the student’s dissertation committee.
9. Program completion. All degree requirements must be completed within seven years after admission to the doctoral program.
Program of Study

The curriculum for a Doctor of Education degree in the School of Education is comprised of all prerequisites and a minimum of 132 quarter units beyond an approved baccalaureate degree, or 87 units beyond the Master’s degree, or 42 units beyond the Specialist in Education degree.

Previous Credits

The degree may be earned via either of the following two options:

Option 1:

Prior completion of an Educational Specialist (or equivalent) degree followed by a minimum of 42 units of post-EdS coursework. Credits from the previous degrees will be assumed to contain the following:

- Masters degree in Education
- EdS core requirements or equivalent

Contingent on approval by department of specialization, any deficiencies in credits will be included in the EdD program of studies.

Option 2:

Prior completion of a master’s degree in any area. In this case, the EdD program will consist of a minimum of 87 post-master’s coursework units to include the EdS requirements. The department or specialization may require a comprehensive exam after completion of 45 units beyond the MA completion.

Core Requirements (9 units):
- EDRS 704 Research Design (3)
- EDFO 791 Contemporary Issues in Education (3)

Choose One of the Following:
- EDRS 702 Educational Statistics II (3)
  (Prerequisite - EDRS 604: Educational Statistics)
  OR
- EDRS 703 Qualitative Research Methodology (3)
  (Prerequisite - EDRS 605: Qualitative Research I)

Content specialization (21 units, minimum):
- Courses will vary depending on the discipline and whether specific credential requirements are desired.
- Twelve units for a dissertation are included.

EdD Degree Total: 42 units minimum (beyond EdS)

A student may earn a general Doctor of Education or may choose an emphasis. Additional requirements specific to the more common emphases are listed below:

Doctor of Education

Administration & Leadership

Required

Option 1: (Following completion of an EdS or equivalent)
- Core requirements (9 units; see program of study under Doctor of Education general requirements)
- Content specialization (21 units minimum, selected in consultation with the advisor)

School of Education: Credential Programs

The School of Education offers graduate, and graduate “fifth-year” programs for fulfilling the requirements of credentials and certificates prescribed by California’s Commission on Teacher Credentialing and/or the Office of Education of the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists. Details of coursework and other specifications for each credential must be obtained from the applicable departmental sections of this bulletin. Students must consult with advisors in the departments for further assistance with admissions and programs. Teacher preparation programs are offered by the Department of Curriculum and Instruction; programs for various services credentials are found in each appropriate department or school of specialization as indicated in the following section of this bulletin.

California State Credentials

Approved by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing:

Teaching Credentials:

(Department of Curriculum and Instruction)
- Preliminary: Multiple Subjects, Single Subject
- Professional Clear

Administrative Services (Department of Administration and Leadership)
- Preliminary
- Professional Clear

Pupil Personnel Services (Department of School of Psychology and Counseling)
- School Psychology
- School Counseling (in collaboration with University of California at Riverside-Extension)
Seventh-day Adventist Certificates

- Teaching (Department of Curriculum and Instruction)
  Basic, Standard, Professional-Elementary, Secondary
- Administration (Department of Administration & Leadership)
- Principal, Supervisor of Instruction, Superintendent of Schools
- Guidance and Counseling (Department of School Psychology and Counseling)

Admission to Credential Programs

In addition to fulfilling all requirements as outlined in the Graduate Admission Information section of this bulletin, the following are to be noted in connection with specific credentials.

Teacher Credential Program

Students seeking admission to any teacher education program must present evidence of an undergraduate GPA of 2.75 or better. If the grade point average is below 2.75, the student must pass the appropriate CSET examination before being accepted into the teacher education program. A course grade of 'B-' or better is required in all teacher education program coursework. If a Master of Arts degree or above is sought, a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or better is required. Application forms for admission to the teacher credential program are available in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction and in the Admissions Office.

Administrative Services Credential Programs

Students seeking admission to the Preliminary or Professional Administrative Services Credential program must meet the following requirements:

Preliminary Administrative Services
- MA admission requirements as published in the Graduate Admissions Information section in this bulletin.
- Other requirements as determined by state law. (See EDAD department for advisement.)

Professional Administrative Services
- EdS admission requirements as published in the Graduate Admissions Information section in this bulletin

Pupil Personnel Services Credential Programs

Students who are seeking admission to the Pupil Personnel Services Credential program must meet the following entrance requirements in addition to those listed in the Graduate Admission Information section of this bulletin:

1. GPA of 3.00 or higher for SDA certification in guidance and counseling.
2. GPA of 3.30 or higher for School Psychology and School Counseling Credential.

Admission to Teacher Education

Credential Application

Credentials are granted only to individuals who have attained the baccalaureate or higher degree from a regionally accredited college or university. Credentials are processed through the Credentialing Services Office in the School of Education. Processing of applications is subject to recommendation from the academic department. Requirements include personal recommendations, health requirements, criminal clearances, all transcripts, passing scores on the CBEST/TPA/RICA/CSET, and completion of an approved program of professional preparation.

Basic Skills Proficiency Test

California law stipulates that candidates who wish to be credentialed for public schools must take and pass the California Basic Education Skills Test (CBEST) before acceptance into a teacher education program. This examination is also required of applicants for credentials through the Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

A CBEST Information Bulletin is available in the Learning Support and Testing Center. Sunday testing dates are available for Saturday-Sabbath keepers.

Teaching Credential Requirements

The following route to a credential lists the requirements for obtaining a Seventh-day Adventist Basic Credential and/or a State of California Preliminary Credential for elementary and secondary teaching. This is a summary of the courses and activities that must be completed before the Department of Curriculum and Instruction can recommend an individual for a credential. Only coursework with a B- grade or above will be accepted toward any credential.

Standard Teaching Certificate -- SDA

The second level of teaching credential prescribed by the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists Office of Education is the Standard Teaching Certificate (valid for five years). To achieve the upgrading from basic to standard certificate, candidates must fulfill the following requirements:

- Three years of teaching in elementary or secondary schools with a Seventh-day Adventist Basic Teaching Certificate
- Completion of 9 units of professional education courses in area(s) of endorsement beyond requirements of the basic certificate
Renewal of Standard Certificate

Students should check with their Union Conference registrar for current requirements.

California State Professional Clear Credential (for SDA Teachers)

Within 5 years after completion of the California State Preliminary Teaching Credential, an individual must complete requirements for the professional clear credential. Students should consult with the Department of Curriculum and Instruction and the credential analyst for specific requirements.

The professional clear credential program is a 2-year program, which must be completed while the candidate is working full-time in his/her own classroom and under the mentorship of local, conference, and university supervisors. Additionally, during summers the candidate must complete the following coursework:

- EDCI 595 Clear Credential Orientation (1.5)
- EDCI 596 Clear Credential Portfolio (1.5)
- EDCI 511 Advanced Health and Safety (3)
- EDCI 513 Advanced Study of Teaching English Language Learners (3)

- EDCI 664 Social & Emotional Intelligence (3)

Educational Technology Certificate

The goals for integrating educational technology cover topics such as learning theory, the appropriate use of the Internet, using and managing school technology resources and developing plans for integrating computers and other technologies in the curriculum. Students may take one or more courses but must take all twelve courses to completely cover the competencies for the certificate. See the Educational Technology section for specific course requirements.

Educational and School Psychology Certificate

The purpose of this certificate is to provide an advanced foundation that will allow educators, administrators, and related service providers to become proficient in selected topics related to educational and school psychology, such as the Response to Intervention, career counseling, and disability studies. Course content will provide knowledge and hands-on training to identify students who are at-risk in academic and behavior performance, to monitor their progress in a systematic manner, and to generate intervention and counseling strategies specific to the student’s identified needs. Students should contact the department for specific course requirements for the certificate.

Administrative Credentials

Academic requirements for the Seventh-day Adventist Administrator’s Certificate, the California Preliminary Administrative Services Credential, and the California Professional Administrative Credential may be incorporated into the program for a Master of Arts, Specialist in Education, or Doctor of Education degree in administration and leadership.
Admission

Requirements for admission to the program for the Administrative Clear Services Credentials are similar to the requirements for Master’s level work but may vary according to the candidate’s academic goals and level of credential being sought. Students should consult with the Department of Administration and Leadership for specific admissions requirements for these credentials.

Seventh-day Adventist Certificate

Application for an administrator’s certificate with endorsement as a principal, supervisor, or superintendent may be made to the Office of Education of the Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists when the following requirements have been met:

1. Satisfy all requirements for an SDA Professional Teaching Certificate.
2. Hold a master’s degree (or higher), including at least 27 quarter units selected from the areas of curriculum, school administration, supervision, school law, school finance, school facilities planning, personnel administration, field experience, public relations, and religious education.
3. Fulfill conditions for endorsement in at least one of the following areas:
   a. Principal: a minimum of one graduate course each in curriculum, supervision, school law, school administration, and school finance. Supervisor of Instruction—at least two graduate courses in curriculum, two in supervision, and one in school administration.
   b. Superintendent of Schools: at least 36 quarter units of graduate credit, including at least one course each in school administration, personnel administration, curriculum supervision, school law, school finance, and school facilities planning. Also required is a minimum of three consecutive years of successful school administration and/or supervision of instruction.

California Preliminary Administrative Services Credentials

Application for the Preliminary Administrative Services Credential, approved by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing, may be made through the Department of Administration and Leadership. All of the following must be met for the Preliminary Administrative Services Credential:

1. Possess a valid California teaching credential or services credential.
2. Complete a minimum of three years of successful full-time classroom teaching experience in the public schools or in private schools of equivalent status, or three years of experience in a pupil services area.
3. Obtain a Certificate of Clearance
4. Pass the California Basic Education Skills Test (CBEST)
5. Successfully complete the specialized administrative and professional courses outlined below:
   - EDAD 524 Educational Organization and Leadership (3)
   - EDAD 540 Personal and Philosophical Aspects of Leadership (3)
   - EDAD 545 Supervision of Instruction (3)
   - EDAD 570 Personnel Administration in Education (3)
   - EDAD 574 Legal Aspects of Education (3)
   - EDAD 576 School Administration, K-12 (3)
   - EDAD 578 Supervised Field Experience at the School Level (3)
   - EDAD 579 School Finance (3)
   - EDCI 514 Curriculum Planning (3)
   - EDCI 552 Analysis of Curricular Alternatives (3)
   - EDET 575 Leadership and Change in Educational Technology (3)
   - Elective: (See department advisor) (3)

California Professional Clear Administrative Services Credentials

Application for the Professional Administrative Services Credential, approved by the California Commission on Teacher Credentials, may be made through the Department of Administration and Leadership. All of the following must be met for the Professional Administrative Services Credential:

1. Possess a valid California Preliminary Administrative Services Credential.
2. Hold an administrative position in an educational organization and have two years experience before applying for the credential. The preliminary (Tier 1) Credential is valid for 5 years from the date of receipt.
3. Select, in consultation with department advisor and district administrator a program of studies to include:
   - EDAD 695 Organizational Systems and Culture (3)
   - EDAD 687 Leadership in the Organization (3)
   - EDFO 606 Sociology of Education (3)
   - EDAD 688 Moral Leadership (3)

   - EDAD 697B Supervised Field Experiences/Assessment (3)
4. Six additional units of electives
5. Complete an additional 12 units of elective coursework, 120 clock hours of non-academic options, or a combination of these two.
California Pupil Personnel Services Credentials; California Board of Behavioral Science Licensure; SDA Counseling and Guidance Certificate

Graduate programs within the Department of School Psychology and Counseling incorporate requirements for the following credentials and licensure:

- California Pupil Personnel Services-School Psychology
- California Pupil Personnel Services-School Counseling
- California Professional Clinical Counselors
- Seventh-day Adventist Professional Endorsement-Guidance and Counseling

State School Psychologist Credential

Upon recommendation from the Department of School Psychology and Counseling, application may be made for most of the credentials through the School of Education Credential Office when the following general and specific requirements have been met.

1. Health, character, and criminal clearances.
2. A passing score on the California Basic Education Skills Test (CBEST).
3. Completion of a graduate degree with an approved program of professional preparation, including appropriate fieldwork.

For the advanced authorization in School Psychology, at least 90 units of postbaccalaureate study are required. The school psychologist credential may be issued without the EdS degree if all mandatory competencies have been acquired and demonstrated through an approved program of study. However, the State of California will not issue a school psychology credential without the candidate having a graduate degree, minimally a master’s degree. The School Counseling Credential is not a prerequisite for the school psychology credential.

State School Counseling Credential (in collaboration with University of California at Riverside- Extension)

The Pupil Personnel Services Credentials with authorization for School Counseling in grades K-12, require satisfactory completion of 85 postbaccalaureate units (27-30 units at La Sierra University and 55-58 units at University of California at Riverside—Extension), including all courses and competencies specified for the Master of Arts degree in Counseling.

State Professional Clinical Counselors Licensure (Extended Post-MA Counseling Education Program)

For the California Professional Clinical Counselors licensure, at least 90 units of postbaccalaureate study are required. The extended post-MA counseling program would prepare MA in Counseling students who are interested in completing the prerequisites necessary to apply for the California License of Professional Clinical Counselors. The license is issued by the California Board of Behavioral Science. The licensure program requires satisfactory completion of 90 postbaccalaureate units including most courses and competencies specified for the Master of Arts degree counseling.

Seventh-day Adventist Certificate

An endorsement certificate for guidance and counseling is issued by the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists’ Office of Education to applicants who have completed the following requirements:

2. A minimum of 27 quarter units in counseling. The MA degree in Counseling with the elective program is sufficient provided that all other requirements have been met.

Candidates for credentials are advised to consult early in their program with the department chair, the School of Education credential officer, and with the certification officer of the Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

School of Education Extended Campus

The Extended Campus concept came to fruition in 1978 when La Sierra University (then Loma Linda University) School of Education began offering graduate programs on the Union College and Southern Adventist University (formerly Southern College) campuses. Another campus, Canadian University College, (formerly Canadian Union College), was added in 1983. The programs leading to the Master of Arts or Master of Education degree in Curriculum and Instruction or Administration and Leadership are programmed primarily during summer quarters expressly for the purpose of offering further training and enrichment to Seventh-day Adventist administrators and teachers. Within these programs are certain core courses that are applicable to all graduate programs in the School of Education at La Sierra University. Students who wish to pursue a graduate degree at La Sierra may elect to take these core courses on an extended campus. The programs are also structured to assist in fulfilling requirements for teaching credentials issued by the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, Department of Education. Credentialing. responsibility is assumed by the respective union conference offices of education.

Extended campus programs in North America (Alberta, Canada; Lincoln, Nebraska) are authorized by the appropriate commissions or councils in those regions. For further information on any of the above programs, please write to the Coordinator, Extended Campus Programs, School of Education, La Sierra University, 4500 Riverwalk Parkway, Riverside, CA 92515, or to the appropriate extended campus as follows:

Canadian University College

Box 235, College Heights, Alberta, Canada T4L2E5

President: Mark Haynal
Vice President for Academic Administration: Joy Fehr
Extended Campus Coordinator: Julie Grovet

Union College

3800 South 48th Street, Lincoln, NE 63506

President: John Wagner
Vice President for Academic Administration: Malcolm Russell
Extended Campus Coordinator: Damie Elder-Hiscock

Operational Structure

The Extended Campus programs are coordinated through the office of the Dean, La Sierra University School of Education, in conjunction with the following committee structure.

Planning Committee for Extended Campus Programs (North America)

The planning committees for Extended Campus Programs in North America consist of the Dean and department chairs of the School of Education, the academic deans and program coordinators from Canadian University College and Union College, and the educational directors of the Mid-America Union Conferences and the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada. Additional members include, as needed, other local campus supporting personnel. La Sierra's Dean of the School of Education chairs this committee.

The Dean of the School of Education meets with the union directors and local campus members of the Planning Committee at each campus once per year for the purpose of program planning, review and evaluation.

Extended Campus Executive Committee

The Extended Campus Executive Committee, consisting of the Dean of the School of Education and the department chairs, functions as the body overseeing ongoing implementation, planning, and evaluation for all extended campus programs.

Extended Campus Program Coordinator

The program coordinator for each extended campus is appointed by the Extended Campus Planning Committee upon the recommendation of the academic administrators of the host campus. The appointment is done in consultation with the sponsoring union director of education. The extended campus coordinator serves as advisor to students and is responsible for the communication between the extended campus and the School of Education in all matters such as registration materials and procedures, instructor grade reports, teacher evaluations, program changes, etc.

Admission Information

Applicants seeking admission to the master’s degree program shall have completed a bachelor’s degree and otherwise have met regular requirements for admission to La Sierra University. (See the Graduate Admission Information section of this bulletin.)

Students wishing to enroll for professional enrichment may do so as non-degree students. Courses taken for enrichment may not apply to regular degree programs except by special approval of the School of Education.

Students with questions concerning Extended Campus Programs may call the Dean at 951/785-2266 or toll free at 800/874-5587. The School of Education fax number is 951/785-2230.

Application Process for Campuses at the North American Locations

Conference Teachers

Completed application forms (including a US$30 application fee for first-time applicants) should be returned to the Office of Admissions and Records, La Sierra University, 4500 Riverwalk Parkway, Riverside, CA 92515. Notification of Admission Committee action is mailed to first-time applicants. Students accepted into the program must complete their program within seven years.
Non-Conference Teachers

Non-conference employees may request an application form from the Dean, School of Education, La Sierra University, 4500 Riverwalk Parkway, Riverside, CA 92515, and must return the completed form (including a US$30 application fee for first-time applicants) to the Office of Admissions and Records. Notification of Admission Committee action is mailed to new applicants. (Non-conference employees are charged tuition at the current published rates.) Students accepted into the program must complete their program within seven years.

Library Facilities

Library facilities located on the respective campuses are available to Extended Campus students. Additionally, reciprocity has been established with local university libraries. The extended campus coordinator and the librarian on the Extended Campus provide guidance to library users.

Registration

The respective coordinators of the Extended Campus Programs are responsible for registration procedures on their own campuses. Students must register prior to the first class session and typically are expected to complete pre-assignments prior to the first class period.

Transfer Credit

Students may transfer 9 quarter units from an accredited graduate institution, as approved, into their graduate program with La Sierra. Additional units may be transferred by action of the graduate committee.

Official Transcripts

The applicant must request that official transcripts of all college work taken elsewhere be sent to: Office of Admissions La Sierra University, 4500 Riverwalk Parkway, Riverside, CA 92515.

Whom to Contact

For answers to questions regarding student programs write to: Dean of the School of Education at La Sierra University, Riverside, 4500 Riverwalk Parkway, CA 92515. For housing at the extended campus write: Extended Campus Coordinator (local campus).

Financial Information

Employees authorized by their respective union conferences and accepted into the Master of Arts or Master of Education degree program receive full tuition scholarships for the approved extended campus program. Students not on a union conference scholarship program will pay regular La Sierra University tuition rates.
GPA

To be eligible for graduation, the graduate student must earn a grade point average of 3.00 or above at the master's degree level and have no course grade lower than a B-.

Course Load

A student may take no more than twelve units during the summer term.

IP Grades

All short term courses require pre- and post-assignments. For such courses, students may be issued an “In Progress” (IP) grade. (For IP grade policies, see “Grades and grade points” under “Graduate academic practices,” in Section I of this Bulletin.)

Master of Education (Canada only)

The Master of Education (M.Ed.) degree is provided under the terms of an agreement between La Sierra University School of Education, Canadian University College and the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada, and is approved by the Campus Alberta Quality Council and the Western Association of Schools and Colleges. The programs (Curriculum and Instruction, and Administration and Leadership) are structured to assist in fulfilling requirements for Seventh-day Adventist teaching credentials and administrative certificates. The general information pertaining to the Master of Arts programs also applies to the M.Ed. degree offered in Canada. The structure of the programs varies slightly, however, and is structured as follows:

Master of Education, Administration and Leadership

Mission

The Department of Administration and Leadership is committed to preparing moral leaders who pursue excellence rather than accept mediocrity, focus on service for the common good rather than personal glory, seek truth rather than power, and exercise authority on principle rather than expediency.

Attainment of this mission is fostered through the discovery of meaning and purpose in the development of administrative and leadership skills and in acquisition of psychological, historical, philosophical, sociocultural, and spiritual insights. Such dimensions are basic to a truly scholarly appreciation of the educational process.

The department, with the support of the other departments of La Sierra University’s School of Education, offers programs leading to the Master of Arts degree, the Specialist in Education degree, and the Doctor of Education degree. The department offers approved programs leading to a Preliminary Administrative Services (Tier 1) Credential and the Professional Clear Administrative Services (Tier 2) Credential for the State of California as well as the Seventh-day Adventist Administrative Certificate with endorsements in elementary and secondary principalship, supervision, and superintendency of schools.

The comprehensiveness of course offerings and the extensiveness of library holdings and other resources for study and research, coupled with the quality and diversity of faculty and students, contribute to the excellence of our various degree programs. La Sierra University is located in a large concentration of public and Seventh-day Adventist elementary and secondary schools, colleges, and universities. This provides excellent opportunities for field experiences.

There is a constant need for highly qualified administrators and leaders. Effective leadership requires and deserves the finest quality of specialized preparation.

The department provides programs designed to prepare individuals for leadership positions in school and non-school settings. Department graduates hold positions such as principal, superintendent, supervisor, team leader, teacher, chairperson, residence hall dean, college administrator, school public relations officer, university and college professor, school business manager, government and private agency leader, pastor, and health services leader.
Degrees Offered

The department provides programs leading to the following graduate degrees. Requirements for obtaining these degrees may be found in the School of Education section of this bulletin.

- Master of Arts (MA)

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction seeks to develop (through degrees and credentials) competent, professional educators who are prepared to serve effectively in the Seventh-day Adventist school system, public schools, and private schools.

Curriculum and Instruction Mission Statement

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction seeks to empower students through a process of seeking, knowing, and serving. Students study theoretical principles and pedagogical practices in an effort to gain professional, ethical, and caring practices.

The mission statement of the Department is based on the University Mission Statement which is: “To seek truth, enlarging human understanding through scholarship; To know ourselves, broadly educating the whole student; To serve others, contributing to the good of the global community.”

The Department of Curriculum and Instruction in the La Sierra University School of Education is undergirded with the basic philosophy that all persons learn from their surroundings, and that learning and schooling are not synonymous. The Department has two major purposes. The first is the development of competent, professional teachers who are prepared to serve effectively in public schools and in private schools. The second major purpose is to provide opportunities for educators seeking advanced degrees who wish to hone their teaching skills and to develop a deeper metacognitive perspective of education and how people learn.

The Department encourages students to accept and practice those ethical and moral concepts that undergird tolerance for the rights and opinions of others, consideration toward the sensitivities of those from diverse ethnic, cultural, and socioeconomic groups, and cultivation of the ideal of service to humanity.

Degrees Offered

The department's major purpose is to provide opportunities for educators seeking advanced degrees. The Master of Arts in Teaching is a degree that prepares a student for a North American Division Certificate and a State of California Professional Credential. The Master of Arts degree in Curriculum and Instruction has several choices of areas of concentration including, special education (learning handicapped). The Specialist in Education (EdS) degree and the Doctor of Education (EdD) degree are available for those who wish to pursue a specialty in Curriculum and Instruction. For information about how to obtain these degrees, see the School of Education section of this bulletin and consult the Chair of the Department of Curriculum and Instruction.

Teaching Credentials Offered

The School of Education, in collaboration with the College of Arts and Sciences, offers programs leading to teaching credentials issued by the Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, Department of Education; and by the State of California Commission on Teacher Credentialing. Preparation for elementary and secondary school teaching credentials is available through the Department of Curriculum and Instruction.

Application for a credential may be made through the School of Education Credential Office when all statutory requirements have been met. (See the “Credential Information” portion of the School of Education section in this bulletin.) An outline of steps toward the completion of the credential programs will be given to the student upon acceptance into the Teacher Preparation Program. It is the student’s responsibility to be familiar with all provisions in this bulletin and to consult regularly with advisors in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction.

COURSES

A student must receive a grade of C or better in order for a class to count as a prerequisite for another course. This applies to both individual and sequenced classes unless otherwise specified. Waiver of any specified course prerequisite requires the approval of the course instructor.

GRADUATE

EDCI 500 Teaching Performance Assessment Seminar (1):
The state of California requires that all multiple and single subjects credential candidates attending California teacher preparation programs pass the four Teaching Performance Assessments. This seminar prepares students to take the four Teaching Performance Assessments.
Prerequisites: EDCI 204, EDFO 305 & acceptance into the Teacher Education program
EDCI 502 Teaching in the Multicultural Classroom (3): This is the first course in route to a California teaching credential and for North American Division certification. In addition to an introduction to the history of public education, the following topics are covered: motivation, lesson design, teaching strategies, discipline and classroom management, and professionalism. An observation component is based on these last five components. This course is required for admission to teacher education. ELD, components and mild/moderate disabilities are addressed.

EDCI 503 Health Perspectives for Teachers (3): A survey of health principles applied to daily living taught from a Christian perspective. Topics include mental, alcohol, and drug related problems; sex education; nutrition; disease; and safety education. This course meets the certification requirements for the North American Division and credential requirements for the State of California in health education for teaching credentials.

EDCI 504 Philosophical Aspects of Christian Education (3): The foundational course which integrates the education of the spirit, the body, and the mind. This course provides a framework for future research and scholarly pursuits. Meets the credentials requirement for the class Principles of Seventh-day Adventist Education, utilizing the structure of philosophy as a way of examining these principles.

EDCI 506 Learning and Assessment (3): A practical introduction to the principles and techniques of designing evaluation activities and tests for measuring classroom learning and instructional products. Includes criterion-referenced approaches, formative and summative instruments, critical incident observations, and other related measurement concepts.

EDCI 507 Psychological Theories of Instruction (3): Theoretical approaches to learning and teaching for the purpose of developing better understandings of the psychological dynamics underlying various learning and classroom practices.

EDCI 510 Classroom Management (2): This course focuses on classroom management and discipline. It examines a variety of strategies for effective classroom management and acceptable classroom practice. Prerequisites: EDCI 204, EDFO 305 & acceptance into the Teacher Education program

EDCI 510L Classroom Management Lab (1): This laboratory experience provides opportunity for the credentials candidate to interview teachers, and observe and practice good classroom management techniques. Concurrent registration in EDCI 510 is required.

EDCI 511 Advanced Safety and Health in Education (3): Safety and health, including the physical, mental, emotional, and social aspects of the individual student and school site, are dealt with in terms of maximizing student achievement. Specific strategies for prevention and intervention are included. Federal and state laws, district policies, and school site implementation are discussed. Twenty hours of fieldwork are required.

EDCI 512 Faith and Learning (3): This course examines contemporary thinking about spirituality, world views, epistemology, ontology, and axiology as they relate to Christian and public education. The focus is on the development of educators who are critical thinkers that are able to examine, evaluate, and synthesize values, spirituality, and education.

EDCI 513 Advanced Study of Teaching English Learners (3): In this course, each candidate builds on the knowledge, skills, and abilities acquired during the professional Teacher Education program for the delivery of comprehensive, specialized instruction for English learners. Thirty hours of fieldwork is required.

EDCI 514 Curriculum Planning (3): Provides an overview of current and historical philosophical trends; studies issues related to curriculum; examines issues of gender and cultural/ethnic diversity; and reviews the basis for curriculum development in a democratic society.

EDCI 516 Computers in the Curriculum (3): Designed to develop teacher skills in computer-assisted and computer-managed instruction against a background of the legal, social, and ethical issues related to the use of educational technology. Meets computer requirements for the California State Clear Teaching Credential and the North American Division educational technology initial and renewal certification requirements.

EDCI 518 Reading in the Content Area (4): Designed to assist the prospective single subject teacher to acquire knowledge and skills in teaching reading. The specific components of the reading process are examined, as well as appropriate methods and materials to be used in reading instruction. Assessment of students’ strengths and weaknesses relative to the reading act, the development of curriculum objectives, and planning of instruction are also included. Applications of skill and knowledge are provided through a practicum, in a single subject classroom. ELD and mild/moderate disabilities components addressed. Prerequisites: EDCI 204 or 502, EDFO 305 or EDCI 507 & acceptance into Teacher Education Program
EDCI 518L Reading in the Content Area Laboratory (1): Application of skills and knowledge are provided through a fieldwork experience in which class members instruct groups of students in the secondary reading class. Must be taken in conjunction with EDCI 518.

EDCI 520 Reading K-8 (4): Reading is designed to aid the prospective teacher in developing knowledge and skills in the teaching of developmental reading in grades K-8. The specific components of the reading process are examined as well as appropriate methods and materials to be used in instruction. Assessment of students’ strengths and weaknesses relative to the reading act, the development of curriculum objectives and planning of instruction are also included. ELD and mild/moderate disabilities components are addressed. Prerequisites: EDCI 204 or 502, EDFO 305 or EDCI 507 & acceptance into the Teacher Education Program

EDCI 520L Reading K-8 Laboratory (1): Application of skills and knowledge are provided through a fieldwork experience in which class members instruct groups of students in the elementary or junior high school reading class. Must be taken in conjunction with EDCI 520.

EDCI 521 Mathematics K-8 (3): The purpose of this course is to explore content knowledge, learning theory, and instructional strategies relevant to teaching mathematics in a linguistically, culturally, and economically diverse student population. Emphasis is placed on basic skills, manipulatives, problem solving, mathematical connections, estimation, mental math, assessment, cultural diversity, calculators, and computers as an integral part of teaching mathematics. Prerequisites: EDCI 204 or 502, EDFO 305 or EDCI 507 & acceptance into Teacher Education Program

EDCI 521L Mathematics K-8 Laboratory (1): This practicum is provided in a multicultural classroom where students may develop their teaching skills by putting theory into practice. Must be taken in conjunction with EDCI 521.

EDCI 522 Language and Literacy K-12 (3): Development of an integrative approach to teaching language, writing and basic language skills necessary for a successful use of the English language in both elementary and secondary schools. CLAD components addressed. Prerequisites: EDCI 204 or 502, EDFO 305 or EDCI 507 & acceptance into Teacher Education Program

EDCI 523A Religion K-12 (2): Study of the curriculum and methodologies used in teaching Religion from Kindergarten through secondary school within the Seventh-day Adventist context. Focus on instructional objectives, content, organization, methods and materials, and developmental spirituality. Prerequisites: EDCI 204 or 502, EDFO 305 or EDCI 507 & acceptance into Teacher Education Program

EDCI 523B Culture, Society and Ethics K-12 (2): This course will focus on pedagogy, theory, research, and practice relating to the historical, legal, social, political, and economic understandings of multiple linguistic and cultural groups as they relate to education in California. Students will learn how to recognize developmental milestones and to plan appropriate physical, cognitive, social, and language activities.

EDCI 569 Curriculum Development for Early Childhood Education (3): This course focuses on developmentally appropriate curriculum for early childhood programs. It examines the best and most appropriate practices for children. Specific strategies for content appropriate activities are studied and developed. Students will learn how to plan creative environments appropriate to developmental stages.

EDCI 570 Oral Communication & English Language Learners (3): This course is designed for graduate students interested in methods and techniques to teach English language components (grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation) and the theories related to language description, language learning, and language use with emphasis on factors, which affect second-language acquisition and learning.

EDCI 571 Cultural Issues for English Language Learners (3): This course discusses cultural issues and the English language learner. Students will study concepts and research methodologies within the context of culture. The course will focus on: cultural issues and psychological aspects of second language learning, communicative competence and cultural differences, second language and culture teaching, and methodologies for teaching English as a second language.

EDCI 572 History and Politics of TESOL (3): History and Politics of TESOL is a course designed for graduate students at an advanced level who are interested in the study of language policies, social linguistic change, and cultural and pedagogic trends in the field of TESOL/TEFL. This course promotes critical reading and thinking through a dialogical approach.

EDCI 573 Written Communication & English Language Learners (3): The focus of this course is on the methods and techniques to teach writing to ESL/EFL students. This course examines the writing-as-process approach to teaching writing. Also, this course addresses theories related to the teaching and learning of writing skills.

EDCI 574 Curriculum Issues for English Language Learners (3): Current curriculum issues affecting ESL/EFL education is the focus of this course. In order to understand those issues and their impact on the present ESL/EFL teaching and learning, this course will rely on studies of methodological, ideological, and theoretical trends and research. This course promotes an emphasis theory and application.

EDCI 577 Directed Readings in Curriculum and Instruction (1-4): The study and method of reporting to be arranged with a curriculum instructor. A minimum of 40 clock hours of study time is expected for each unit of credit. Approval by the department chair is required.

EDCI 578 Fieldwork in Curriculum (3): Provides opportunity to participate in curriculum planning and development at various educational levels and in a variety of settings.

EDCI 579 Work Conference (1-4): Educational conferences, clinics, and workshops designed for the development, revision, implementation, and evaluation of curriculum materials such as textbooks, curriculum frameworks, curriculum guides, and courses of study.

EDCI 580 Cooperative Learning (3): Provides theoretical foundation, instruction and methodologies for promoting student collaboration. Requires participants to structure cooperative interdependence for differing situations in classroom settings. Requires participants to evidence knowledge acquisition as well as ability to deliver practical application effectiveness.

EDCI 589 Hot Topics in Curriculum & Instruction (3): Focuses on current issues in education not also taught in program curricula.

EDCI 595 Clear Credential Orientation (1.5): Orients candidates to the 2-year Clear Credential program through exposure to a purposeful, logically sequenced structure of extended preparation and professional development. It prepares participating teachers to meet the academic learning needs of all P-12 students. The course design is responsive to individual teacher’s needs, and is consistent with Education Code and California’s Standards for the Teaching Profession. The design is relevant to the contemporary and complex conditions of teaching and learning in California classrooms.

Prerequisite: Completion of all required courses for a teaching credential
EDCI 596 Clear Credential Portfolio (1.5): Provides guidance in the development of an online Clear Credential Portfolio. Requires that candidates in the 2-year Clear Credential program evidence ability to meet the academic learning needs of all P-12 students in compliance with the Education Code and California's Standards for the Teaching Profession. Evidence must show ability to align with contemporary and complex conditions of teaching and learning in California classrooms as required in fully meeting the expectations for receiving the California Clear Teaching Credential.
Prerequisite: Completion of all required courses for a teaching credential and EDCI 595

EDCI 597 Master’s Project (3-6): As a culminating scholarly experience master’s degree students are required to do a research/writing project. See department chair for details.

EDCI 598 Seminar in Current Trends (3): The seminar discussions will be based on current thought and writings in curriculum and administrative implementation. Reading will be from the current literature and newsletters from professional organizations. This course is structured to view curricula from both administrative and instructional viewpoints.

EDCI 599 Research Topics in Curriculum and Instruction (2-6): Individual research and study under the guidance of a curriculum instructor. A minimum of 40 clock hours of study time is expected for each unit of credit.
Restrictions: Approval of the instructor & department chair

EDCI 601 History and Survey of TESOL (3): History and development of theories and methods for instruction in and through English including approaches with a focus on English language development and content area instruction. Overview of syllabus design.

EDCI 602 Oral Communication & English Language Learners (3): Analysis of research, curriculum design, and selection of materials and strategies for the teaching, development, and evaluation of listening/speaking skills in English. Opportunities for practice and observation.

EDCI 603 Curriculum Issues for English Language Learners (3): Survey of approaches to ESL course and syllabus design, including materials selection, adaptation, development, and evaluation. Students will learn to create and administer original, valid, and reliable ESL assessment tools and to select, adapt, and develop appropriate instructional materials for use in all ESL media: texts, films, audio-tapes, video-tapes, records, and programmed materials. Provides students with appropriate classroom management skills. Combines textbook readings, one-on-one consultation with a teacher mentor, and teaching practice and classroom observation in connection with La Sierra University’s English as a Second Language program.

EDCI 604 Written Communication & English Language Learners (3): Analysis of research, curriculum design, and selection of materials and strategies for the teaching, development, and evaluation of written skills in English. Opportunities for practice and evaluation.

EDCI 605 Cultural Issues for English Language Learners (3): How to teach students about various aspects of American culture with emphasis on the American outlook, American holidays and the ways Americans think about themselves and others. Participants will be encouraged to compare and contrast values, attitudes and cultural patterns of the United States and other countries of the world.

EDCI 628 History of Curriculum Design and Development in Higher Education (3): Includes a study of the history of curriculum in higher education and the political, economic, and social forces in the twentieth century that define the selection, organization, and evaluation of the modern curriculum. American colleges and universities emphases on general and specialized curriculum will be studied in light of their historical and recent constituencies.

EDCI 629 Personalizing Instruction (3): Examines procedures for individualizing instruction as well as opportunities for developing materials to aid the teacher in the individualization of instruction. Student studies personalization that is based on a solid foundation of cognitive theory, group learning, and pedagogy.

EDCI 630 Pedagogy and Practice in Higher Education (3): Examines instructional planning and classroom procedures as they apply to academic and clinical training at the postsecondary level. Makes practical applications to classroom and clinical situations.

EDCI 645 Supervision of Instruction (3): Examines a variety of approaches to the task of supervision. Analyzes the roles and responsibilities of the mentor and master teachers in their supervision of student teachers. Provides information on the legal, ethical, and moral principles of supervision.

EDCI 646 The Development and Implementation of Curriculum (3): Applies the tools of curriculum organization to the needs of students and considers the variety of approaches which may be used to assist them. Focuses on needs assessment, program development, orientation, implementation, and evaluation.
EDCI 647 Religion in Curriculum Planning (3): Explores the question of how faith is integrated with learning using the perspectives of various educators. Emphasizes Christian principles as found in the Bible, and their applicability to different types of educational settings. Studies the axiology and epistemology relating to religious curriculum planning.

EDCI 651 Curriculum Development in Higher Education (3): Examines principles of curriculum development, including the selection, organization, and evaluation of learning experiences. Examines the nature, place, and interrelationship of general and specialized education in higher education.

EDCI 655 Critical Issues in Brain Science and Pedagogy (3): Considers legitimacy of studying education/learning from neuroscience perspective. Topics include: critical periods of development; brain literacy for educators and psychologists; computational functions and the brain; physiology of reading; dyslexia, autism; music therapy; appropriate/inappropriate alignments of neuroscience and education; and other related issues. A basic understanding of brain anatomy and physiology and of principles of neuroscience is expected prior to beginning this study.

Prerequisite: EDCI 545 Brain Science and Learning (or approval by course instructor)

EDCI 660 Comparative Curricula (3): Compares a variety of curriculum designs among the countries of the world, among private and parochial schools, and among state schools. Provides educators with ideas for improving the curricula of the school systems in which they work.

EDCI 663 Theories of Early Childhood Education (3): Investigates approaches to the curriculum for the young child as a basis for the development of an approach unique to the child.

EDCI 664 Emotional/Social Intelligence (3): Explores research and theoretical knowledge relevant to emotional and social functions as they contribute to learning, education, the work place, and personal psychological adjustment and thriving. The science of holistic development in terms of physical, mental and social/emotional/spiritual function in educational settings is investigated and emphasized. A basic understanding of brain anatomy and physiology and principles of neural science is expected prior to beginning this study.

Prerequisites: EDCI 545 Brain Science and Learning (or approval by course instructor)

EDCI 668 Textbook and Curriculum Materials Analysis (3): Explores the principles and procedures involved in the analysis and selection of curriculum materials within the framework of a given philosophy of education. Critical examination is made of philosophies, theories, practices and content of materials.

EDCI 670 The Use of Curriculum Materials in Teaching Thinking Skills (3): Helps educators acquire proficiency in the preparation and development of curriculum materials based on cognitive theory. Offers the students the opportunity to examine theoretical frameworks, and political practices in the development, and use of curriculum materials.

EDCI 674 Curriculum Design in Religious Education (3): Applies the principles of curriculum planning and design to the unique task of religious education. Examines denominational textbooks and other curriculum materials designed to meet the needs of students K-12.

EDCI 677 Directed Readings in Curriculum and Instruction (1-4): The study and method of reporting to be arranged with a curriculum and instruction instructor. A minimum of 40 clock hours of study time is expected for each unit of credit.

Restrictions: Approval of the instructor & the department chair

EDCI 678 Research of Literature in Curriculum & Instruction (3): Investigation of current problems and topics relative to research in curriculum and teacher education. Includes a review and critique of doctoral dissertations and a comprehensive analysis of literature on a proposed dissertation topic.

EDCI 689I Glasser Practicum (1-4): Course focused on Choice Theory; lead-management techniques; and how to apply it personally and in the school setting, to manage students without coercion, to conference effectively with colleagues, students, and parents, and to improve relationships with others.

EDCI 694 Seminar in Curriculum and Instruction (1-3): Discussion of contemporary issues in curriculum and instruction. Topics are chosen on the basis of current issues, concerns, and needs.

EDCI 695 Seminar in Educational Technology (3): Exploration of contemporary technologies and related issues in curriculum and instruction. Designed to develop teachers’ technical and instructional skills. Meets the computer requirements for the North American Division educational technology renewal certification requirement. May be repeated.

EDCI 696 Research Project (3): To be developed in collaboration with an advisor.

EDCI 698 Thesis (6): To be developed in collaboration with an advisor. This thesis involves a written report on the EDCI 696 project.
EDCI 699 Research Topics in Curriculum and Instruction (2-6): Individual research and study under the guidance of a curriculum instructor. A minimum of 40 clock hours of study time is expected for each unit of credit. Prerequisites: Approval of the instructor & the department chair

EDCI 711 Biological Foundations of Education (3): Study of anatomy and physiology of the brain as it relates to behavior and learning. Topics include: nerve cells and impulses, synaptic communication, anatomy of nervous system, development and plasticity of the brain, vision, other sensory systems and attention. Prerequisite: EDCI 545 Brain Science and Learning (or approval by course instructor)

EDCI 712 Biological Foundations of Education II (3): Continuation of studies begun in EDCI 711. Study of anatomy and physiology of the brain as it relates to behavior and learning. Topics include: movement, wakefulness and sleep, internal regulation, reproductive behaviors, biology of learning and memory, lateralization and language, and psychological disorders. Prerequisites: EDCI 545 Brain Science and Learning and EDCI 711 Biological Foundations of Education (or approval by course instructor)

EDCI 798 Doctoral Dissertation (1-12 with continuous enrollment): May be repeated to a total of 12 units. Prerequisites: Dean’s office & departmental approval

School of Education

Curriculum & Instruction

GRADUATE

Note: The following courses have been added to the catalog of courses available through the School of Education in order to more specifically meet the expectations of the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing. They replace the previously listed EDCI 522.

EDCI 522 Language and Literacy, Grades K-8 (3): Preparation of K-8 teachers in language arts pedagogical skills appropriate for mainstream, mild/moderate disability, linguistically, culturally, and economically diverse students. Emphases include: development of skills to teach writing, listening, speaking and reading; specially designed academic instruction in English (SDAIE), increased perspective on language learner contexts and needs; methods, practices, and theories appropriate for instructing students with special needs as well as linguistically diverse students in first- and second-language development.
Prerequisite: EDCI 204 or 502, EDCI 507 or EDFO 305 & acceptance into the Teacher Education Program.

EDCI 522A Language and Literacy, Grades 9-12 (3): Preparation of 9-12 teachers in language arts pedagogical skills appropriate for mainstream, mild/moderate disability, linguistically, culturally, and economically diverse students across the various disciplines. Emphases include: development of skills to teach writing, listening, speaking and reading; specially designed academic instruction in English (SDAIE), increased perspective on language learner contexts and needs; methods, practices, and theories appropriate for instructing students with special needs as well as linguistically diverse students in first- and second-language development.
Prerequisite: EDCI 204 or 502, EDCI 507 or EDFO 305 & acceptance into the Teacher Education Program.

EDCI 505A: Graduate-Level Academic Writing: Fundamentals (3-4): Preparation of graduate students for the rigors of graduate-level writing with an in-depth review of the elements of English composition, focusing on parts of speech, phrases, sentences, sentence patterns, paragraph patterns, and essay patterns. May also be of interest to teachers seeking a systematic method of writing instruction. Units earned in this course do not apply to a degree program.

EDCI 505B: Graduate-Level Academic Writing: Essay Genres (3-4): Preparation of graduate students for the rigors of graduate-level writing with focus on the analysis and composition of graduate-level essays in a variety of genres. Emphasis is placed on developing academic language usage skills, employing effective rhetorical models, and cultivating scholarship. Units earned in this course do not apply to a degree program. Prerequisite: EDCI 505A or permission of instructor.

EDCI 505C: Graduate-Level Academic Writing: Research Writing (3-4): Preparation of graduate students for the rigors of graduate-level writing with focus on library and Internet research methods, APA style guidelines, and research paper writing conventions. Requires students to compose a 20-page research paper in APA format. Units earned in this course do not apply to a degree program. Prerequisite: EDCI 505A and EDCI 505B, or permission of instructor.

Note: The following courses have been added to assist graduate students whose native language is not English, in improving their writing skills for graduate study.

EDCI 505A: Graduate-Level Academic Writing: Fundamentals (3-4): Preparation of graduate students for the rigors of graduate-level writing with an in-depth review of the elements of English composition, focusing on parts of speech, phrases, sentences, sentence patterns, paragraph patterns, and essay patterns. May also be of interest to teachers seeking a systematic method of writing instruction. Units earned in this course do not apply to a degree program.

EDCI 505B: Graduate-Level Academic Writing: Essay Genres (3-4): Preparation of graduate students for the rigors of graduate-level writing with focus on the analysis and composition of graduate-level essays in a variety of genres. Emphasis is placed on developing academic language usage skills, employing effective rhetorical models, and cultivating scholarship. Units earned in this course do not apply to a degree program. Prerequisite: EDCI 505A or permission of instructor.

EDCI 505C: Graduate-Level Academic Writing: Research Writing (3-4): Preparation of graduate students for the rigors of graduate-level writing with focus on library and Internet research methods, APA style guidelines, and research paper writing conventions. Requires students to compose a 20-page research paper in APA format. Units earned in this course do not apply to a degree program. Prerequisite: EDCI 505A and EDCI 505B, or permission of instructor.

Note: The following course has been offered regularly, but was omitted from earlier bulletin copy.

EDCI 608 Foreign Language Teaching Methodologies (3): (cross listed with WLDG 401) Designed for students with advanced, near-native, and native skills in a second language. Includes an introduction to applied linguistics and the essentials of language teaching and learning. Includes an overview of the different methodologies applied to the acquisition of a second language. Theories and phenomena are applied to the teaching of specific grammar and culture points that may present difficulty for the second language learner. Assignments for graduate students are differentiated from those required for undergraduates taking WLDG 401.

Objectives

The immediate goal of this program is to provide courses for classroom teachers and administrators that will assist them in appropriately integrating technologies with learning and administrative functions. The content of these courses is based on the recommendations of the current leaders in educational technology.

Competencies and Courses

The goals for integrating educational technology are described in twelve competencies. The courses cover topics such as learning theory, the appropriate use of the Internet, using and managing school technology resources, and developing plans for integrating computers and other technologies in the curriculum. Students may take one or more courses but need to complete 18 units for the Certificate Program.

Certificate Program

Prerequisites:

- Basic computer skills
- Introduction to technology course equivalent to EDET 505 Introduction to Computers in Education

Required Core Courses (12 units):

- EDET 524 Technology in the Curriculum
- EDET 536 Adaptive/Assistive Technologies
- EDET 545 Development of Internet Resources
- EDET 597/657 Professional Portfolio Development

Electives (6 units to be selected from the following):

- EDET 534 Technology and Learning
- EDET 575 Leadership & Change in Educational Technology
- EDET 595 Topics in Instructional Strategies
- EDET 624 Using and Managing School Technology Resources
- EDET 635 Technology in Higher Education
- EDET 654 Mentoring in Educational Technology

Total: 18 units
Master of Arts
Curriculum & Instruction with an Emphasis in Technology

The academic degree of Master of Arts in Curriculum and Instruction with an emphasis in technology requires 15 units of core courses, 15 units in technology, and 15 elective units in curriculum and instruction. After completion of the degree, the student is eligible to apply for a doctoral program.

SE Discipline Core Courses (15 units from the following):

- EDCI 512 Faith and Learning
- EDCI 514 Curriculum Planning
- EDAD 524 Educational Organization and Leadership
- EDPC 540 Principles of Counseling
- EDRS 504 Methods and Materials of Research

Educational Technology Courses (15 units from the following):

- EDET 524 Technology in the Classroom
- EDET 536 Adaptive/Assistive Technologies
- EDET 545 Development of Internet Resources
- EDET 554 or 654 Mentoring in Educational Technology
- EDCI 597 Master’s Project

Note: Three additional electives from Curriculum and Instruction Technology Courses may be taken to complete the Technology Certificate in addition to the Master’s Degree

Elective Courses (15 units):

- 15 units from Curriculum and Instruction courses or 12 units from Curriculum and Instruction plus three additional technology units

Total: 45 Units

COURSES

GRADUATE

EDET 504 Critical Issues in Educational Technology (3):
An overview of technology issues in education including coordinating and consulting for a supportive climate of innovation and learning and empowering colleagues through curriculum and staff development.

EDET 505 Introduction to Computers in Education (3):
Survey course in the operation, care, and use of computers for education. Meets the computer education requirements for the California State Preliminary Teaching Credential. May not be applied toward a graduate degree.

EDET 524 Technology in the Curriculum (3):
Application of learning theories as they apply to the integration of technology and curriculum planning. Helps the professional develop daily and unit plans based on local, state, and national standards for integrating computers and other technologies. These plans include the application of effective methods and strategies for using the ever-changing technological tools such as spreadsheets, databases, presentation software, basic programming, simulations, multimedia, and internet communication. Meets the computer education requirements for the California State Preliminary Teaching Credential.

EDET 534 Technology and Learning (3):
Application of learning theory and principles of instructional design to the creation of technology-based instruction, instructional materials, and training modules. This course will require the student to design, develop, and implement a unique online course. Course content will be equal to a one quarter course at the appropriate elementary or secondary level. The student will also develop a system of evaluation for the course and course content.

EDET 536 Adaptive/Assistive Technologies (3):
Survey of hardware and software technologies to meet the unique needs of those who are physically or learning challenged. Topics include adaptive/assistive technologies and services to improve the learning environment, accessibility standards that affect traditional and technology-based education for special needs students, and the use and selection of hardware and software technologies in assessment of special needs. A practicum requirement includes assessment of a special needs student, selection of appropriate hardware and software to meet that person’s needs, development of a technology assisted plan for this student in conjunction with the teacher and/or Special Education Specialist, and assisting the child’s teacher in implementing this plan.

EDET 545 Development of Internet Resources (3):
Examination of the various uses of the Internet in instruction and training. Application of design principles to the construction of web pages for enhancement of instruction.
EDET 554 Mentoring in Educational Technology (3): This course involves planning and designing professional development activities and programs for educational workshops, in-services, seminars, parent and student groups, community partnerships, and other informational settings that use/could use technologies to enhance their programs. Project includes preparing and presenting one of the above.

EDET 575 Leadership and Change in Educational Technology (3): The professional will observe and critique schools that have effectively integrated technology into the curriculum. A reflective analysis is required with consideration of how change has affected the learning environment. The project will include construction of a database synthesizing raw data to be used in program analysis including assessment, decision making, financial planning, administrative support systems, and long-term strategic planning.

EDET 595 Topics in Instructional Strategies (3): Project-based course involving the interface of specific classroom learning with technology. (This course relates to the student’s credential subject). The course will meet the professional’s interests and needs in terms of application, subject, and level of instruction. Since this is a topics course the title will vary reflecting content. The course may be repeated with different content for up to six credits.

EDET 597 Professional Portfolio Development (3): This capstone course includes creating an e-portfolio that both incorporates the student’s work in previous technology courses as well as other experience and demonstrates a competency level with technologies in relation to teaching and learning. The portfolio will include additional artifacts designed with multi-media streaming to be posted for review by peers. The portfolio will be reported to local teachers, regional educational conferences, or national educational conferences.

EDCI 597 Master’s Project (3-6): As a culminating scholarly experience, master’s degree students are required to do a research/writing project. See department chair for details.

EDET 624 Using and Managing School Technology Resources (3): Provides an understanding of operating systems, computer networks, computer laboratories, and technical support in the school setting. Issues relating to facilities, resource management, software, purchasing, and technology planning will be explored. The class project requires the student to locate and review a school district that has integrated the administrative and teaching functions utilizing technology to streamline the facilities, resource management, software, purchasing, and technology planning.

EDET 635 Technology in Higher Education (3): This course specifically reviews technology integration with administrative functions, curriculum planning, and their delivery in post secondary settings. Emphasis will be on Classroom Management Systems (CMS), Web-supported online course delivery, and fully online course delivery. Topics to be covered also include current research in the field, issues of quality, future growth issues, financial impact on institutions, faculty load, and intellectual property.

EDET 654 Mentoring in Educational Technology (3): This course involves planning and designing professional development activities and programs for educational workshops, in-services, seminars, parent and student groups, community partnerships, and other informational settings that use/could use technologies to enhance their programs. Project includes preparing and presenting one of the above.

EDET 657 Professional Portfolio Development (3): This capstone course includes creating an e-portfolio that both incorporates the student’s work in previous technology courses as well as other experience and demonstrates a competency level with technologies in relation to teaching and learning. The portfolio will include additional artifacts designed with multi-media streaming to be posted for review by peers. The portfolio will be reported to local teachers, regional educational conferences, or national educational conferences.

Objectives and Programs

Programs and courses in the Department of School Psychology and Counseling provide competencies for numerous careers in educational and psychological helping services. School psychologists develop specialized knowledge and skills for identifying and correcting learning disabilities and for facilitating of academic, personal, and social development in children and adults at all levels of education. With regard to counselors, residence hall deans are introduced to the philosophy and operational procedures of residence hall counseling and management. Classroom teachers may enhance their abilities to guide the character-building and social growth of pupils in their care. Administrators learn the art of communication, group interaction, and personnel consultation.

An educational psychologist learns not only to understand the psychological bases of learning, development, and behavior but also to apply such understandings to the solution of educational and personal problems within the classroom, home, and community. With more advanced programs, opportunities are opened for college teaching, clinical applications, and the practices of psychological services. Professional growth opportunities are also available for those who are less involved with school activities. Church or youth workers may pursue the Christian dimensions of problem solving and decision-making. Social workers, career consultants, community agency counselors, health-care providers, juvenile officers, mental health clinicians, and others are offered enrichment, renewal, and certification as they prepare themselves for greater effectiveness in their efforts to serve others.

Degrees Offered

Three graduate degree programs are offered through the Department of School Psychology and Counseling. For information about how to obtain these degrees, see the School of Education section of this bulletin.
Master of Arts in Counseling

- Concentrations:
  - School Psychology and Counseling
  - Student Life and Development
  - School Counseling Credential (program with UCR Collaboration)

Specialist in Education for School Psychology (program for a school psychologist credential)

Specialist in Education for Educational Psychology

Doctor of Education in School Psychology and Measurement

- Concentrations:
  - General School Psychology

Doctor of Education in Educational Psychology

- Concentrations:
  - General Educational Psychology
  - Mental Health (program for Professional Clinical Counselors Licensure)

Admission to a program does not guarantee permission to complete the program. If, during the student’s course of study, the Department of School Psychology and Counseling observes documented behaviors and/or personality/characterological limitations that are inconsistent with the professional expectations for a graduate of the program, the student will be asked to withdraw from the program.

Credentials Offered

The California Commission on Teacher Credentialing has fully approved and endorsed the La Sierra University credential programs for the following credentials. For more information, refer to the School of Education section of this bulletin.

- School Psychology
- School Counseling

When necessary basic requirements are included, coursework taken for the above degrees may also be applied to fifth-year teaching credentials or the Seventh-day Adventist professional endorsement for guidance and counseling. Credential requirements may also be satisfied for community college counseling and student personnel work. For more detail on credential requirements, see the School of Education section of this bulletin.

Licensure Prepared

The California Board of Behavioral Science has fully approved and endorsed the La Sierra University Extended MA Counseling Education Program for Professional Clinical Counselors. Students who have completed the department’s extended education program and required internship hours are qualified to apply for California Professional Clinical Counselor Licensure. For more detailed information on licensure requirements see the section on credentials and licensure in the School of Education section of this bulletin.

Facilities and Services

Located in the upper level of the School of Education Building, the Department of School Psychology and Counseling provides facilities and services in which practical experiences may be combined with theoretical learning. Several small counseling rooms are equipped for video and audio recording, and one-way windows permit individual or group observations under controlled conditions. The confidential test library is stocked with specimen sets and research materials for many tests and inventories used by counselors and school psychologists.

COURSES

UPPER DIVISION

EDPC 404 Standardized Testing in Education (3): The development of competencies and understandings for selecting, administering, and interpreting the major types of standardized tests and inventories used in education and counseling. Theoretical principles and issues presented together with hands-on applications. Practicum required.

EDPC 460 The Exceptional Child (3-4): A study of the determinants, characteristics, problems, and adjustments of both children with mental, physical, emotional, or social disabilities, and of gifted and talented children. Intervention techniques used with children with disabilities, rights of children under the Americans with Disabilities Education Act. Open to upper division, graduate, or postgraduate students only. Credit not allowed for this course and PSYC 464.

GRADUATE

EDPC 504 Standardized Testing in Education (3): The development of competencies and understandings for selecting, administering, and interpreting the major types of standardized tests and inventories used in education and counseling. Theoretical principles and issues presented together with hands-on applications. Open to upper division, graduate, and postgraduate students only. Practicum required.
EDPC 504-P Standardized Testing in Education Practicum (1.5): Exercises will be performed to ground the student in identifying valid and reliable instruments. Students will be required to develop a standardized test (cognitive, achievement, or psychosocial).

EDPC 505 Psychological Theories of Instruction (3): Theoretical approaches to learning and teaching for the purpose of developing better understandings of the psychological dynamics underlying various learning and classroom practices.

EDPC 524 Lifespan Development (3): The life cycle of human psychological growth and development from infancy to adulthood, with emphasis on the school years. A comprehensive survey of contemporary issues and research in developmental psychology.

EDPC 524-P Lifespan Development Practicum (1.5): Hands on activities may include, but are not limited to, preschool, K-12, and college settings; adult day care, senior citizen centers, or nursing home experiences.

EDPC 525 College Student Development I (3): An in-depth analysis of psycho-social and cognitive-structural college student development theories, including Perry’s intellectual scheme, Magolda’s epistemological reflection model, Kitchener’s reflective judgment model, and psycho-social models based on gender, race, sexual identity, and socioeconomic/sociocultural class.

EDPC 526 College Student Development II (3): An in-depth analysis of person-environment theories, including the history and current use of such theories in higher education and student affairs. Also covers major theories related to moral and faith development of college students. Special emphasis is placed on the integration of theory into student affairs administrative practice.

EDPC 554-P Education and Career Planning Practicum (1.5): Activities may include assessing career interest inventories, visiting community college career centers, and/or research.

EDPC 560 The Exceptional Child (3): Advanced study of the determinants, characteristics, problems, and adjustments of children who deviate markedly from the norm in their mental, physical, emotional, or social aptitudes, traits, and tendencies. Emphasis on educational methods and adaptation.
Restriction: Only open to upper division, graduate & postgraduate students

EDPC 561 Counseling Theories and Techniques (3): A study of the theory, ethics, and practice of counseling, interviewing, and relating in various school guidance situations. Real and simulated situations using video and tape recorders.

EDPC 561-P Counseling Theories and Techniques Practicum (1.5): The course will include simulated situations using role-play or other creative assignments designed to apply theory and techniques found in EDPC 561.

EDPC 562 Counseling Practicum (3): An opportunity for the student to participate in the counseling of individuals and groups under supervision, as a laboratory experience, prior to being placed for school-based experience in EDPC 565. Graded on an S/U basis for all students.
Prerequisites: EDPC 560 & 540

EDPC 564 Group Theory and Procedures (3): Group counseling, theories of group-individual interaction, and the group communication process. Designed to give the prospective counselor insight into the development and structure of organized groups.

EDPC 564-P Group Theory and Procedures Practicum (1.5): Practicum includes leading a variety of group-related counseling sessions under the appropriate supervision.

EDPC 566 Residence Hall Practicum (1-3): Intensive on-site participation in all facets of residence hall administration and counseling, under the direction of an experienced dean. A minimum of 40 hours of full-time involvement required for each unit of credit. Graded on an S/U basis for all students.

EDPC 568 Community-Agency Counseling (1-3): Supervised, practical training and counseling experience in clinics or agencies not directly administered by an elementary or secondary school. Approximately 150 hours required under the direction of an appropriately credentialed supervisor. Applicable only to the non-credential program. May not be repeated for additional credit.
Prerequisites: EDPC 540; 561; 562 (can be concurrently enrolled); departmental approval, at least six weeks prior to placement & Health, Character & Criminal Clearances

EDPC 573 School Psychology and Counseling Ethics and Law (3): This course will expose the candidate to ethical issues and decision-making skills within school psychology and counseling. Distinctions between ethical and ethical/legal mandates will be made. Case studies will be utilized to give the student concrete examples and experience in critically thinking through the issue(s). Attention to multi-cultural/multi-contextual issues will take place throughout the course.

EDPC 573-P School Psychology and Counseling Ethics and Law Practicum (1.5): The student will be expected to apply knowledge from EDPC 573-A to real life cases with no prior knowledge of outcomes.
EDPC 577 Directed Readings (1-4): Assigned readings in current journals, textbooks, or other library sources for the purpose of specialized learning in selected topics or for updating previous studies. Typically requires a report in the form of a written summary, precis, or topical paper. Requires a Directed Study/Title form at time of registration. Graded on an S/U basis only.
Restriction: Consent of the department chair

EDPC 589 Work Conference (1-3): Group discussion and activities with topics of practical concern for counselors, school psychologists, and others interested in the pupil personnel services profession. Topics selected according to interest and demand or to meet specific program needs. Course title will reflect topic selection.

EDPC 599 Independent Study in EDPC (1-3): The application of research methodology to the investigation of a limited, localized problem or program evaluation. Typically requires a written report in a format suitable for journal publication. Requires a Directed Study/Title form at time of registration. Graded on an S/U basis only.
Restriction: Consent of the department chair

EDPC 607 Dynamics of Personality (3): Factors contributing to personality development and adjustment, including theoretical explanations of behavior. Implications for effective intellectual, emotional, and social functioning.

EDPC 609-P Dynamics of Personality Practicum (1.5): Activities may include assessing personality inventories, conducting field practice and/or research related to personality style and development.

EDPC 615 Child, Partner, and Elder Abuse (3-4.5): Overviews the definitions, incidence, detection, assessment, effects, and the ethical, legal, and therapeutic management of child, partner, and elder/dependent-adult abuse. Perpetrator and victim characteristics, including cultural and ethnic diversity factors.

EDPC 620 Marriage and Family I Systems Theory (3-4.5): This class deals with families and couples into nurture change and development. This is accomplished by examining the “system” of interaction between individuals that make up the couple or family.

EDPC 621 Marriage and Family II Systems Interventions (4.5): Building upon systems theory, different interventions are examined for couples and families. Interventions include but are not limited to psycho educational, reality, and systems coaching.
Prerequisites: EDPC 620

EDPC 631 Psychopathology (3): A study of the etiology, clinical presentation, and treatment choices for behavioral disorders. The DSM-IV diagnostic criteria will be studied with a sensitivity to cultural and ethnic issues.

EDPC 631-P Psychopathology Practicum (1.5): Students will be expected to defend their DSM-IV diagnosis of a selected case study in a moot court environment.

EDPC 640 Neuropsychology (3): This course will expose the candidate to two basic areas of study within a pre-grade 12 context: (1) neuroanatomy and brain functioning, and (2) neuropathology and brain dysfunction. Attention will also focus on assessment in neuropsychology as it is applied to the school setting.

EDPC 645 Psychopharmacology (3-4.5): A study of psycho pharmacology, including the biological bases of behavior, basic classifications, indications, and contra indications of commonly prescribed psycho pharmacological medications. Emphasis given to making appropriate referrals and building a medical referral base for the appropriateness of medication evaluations.

EDPC 650 Mental Exceptionality (3): The etiology, characteristics, and diagnosis of children whose cognitive functioning deviates from the norm. Implications for school and family considered for retardates, learning handicapped, and the mentally gifted.
Prerequisite: EDPC 460 or 560

EDPC 651 Emotional/Social Intelligence (3): Exploration of research and theoretical knowledge relevant to emotional and social functions as they contribute to learning, education, the workplace, and personal psychological adjustment and thriving. Emphasis on the science of holistic development in terms of physical, mental and social/emotional/spiritual function in educational settings.

EDPC 655 Advanced Counseling Theories and Techniques (3): An Advanced study of counseling theories and techniques with attention given to assessment and treatment planning, clinical interventions, therapeutic relationships, and psychopathology.
Prerequisite: EDPC 561

EDPC 655-P Advanced Counseling Theories and Techniques (1.5): The course will require the practice of various hand-on field activities and research designed to apply theories and techniques found in EDPC 655.
EDPC 661 Academic Assessment and Intervention (3): The purpose of this course is to help the student become familiar with the basic principles of research-based interventions in education-based observations and assessments, including those necessary for competence in multicultural communication. Students will compare models of consultation and models of collaboration in order to serve disabled persons and their families as well as interested professionals.

Prerequisites: EDPC 664, 665, 667 & 668; or consent of the instructor

EDPC 662 Behavioral Assessment and Intervention (3): EDPC 662 is a graduate-upper level course that focuses on theoretical and empirical issues in assessing the interactions between people and their environments. Special focus will be given to direct and indirect methods of assessment across settings for school-aged children (3-21 years). Such assessment techniques will include direct observations in school and/or home settings, interviews, and self-report measures.

Prerequisites: EDPC 664, 665, 667 & 668; or consent of the instructor

EDPC 663 Neuropsychological Assessment and Intervention (3): This class is designed to help students to understand the neuropsychology of autism spectrum disorder, seizure disorder, neuromuscular diseases, and other related neuropsychological disorders. Students will learn and engage in various tests and intervention methods related to neuropsychological disorders and diseases in educational contexts.

Prerequisites: EDPC 664, 665, 667 & 668; or consent of the instructor

EDPC 664-P Assessment of Individual Intelligence I Practicum (1.5): Student will involve in a test development or carry out psychometric studies and practices in relation to individual intelligence tests.

Prerequisite: EDPC 664

EDPC 666 Intervention Methods and Consultation (3): Strategies for facilitating growth and development through problem prevention and early intervention in the education of exceptional pupils and those at risk in school. A case study approach including consultation techniques involving school personnel, parents, and community resources.

EDPC 666-P Intervention Methods and Consultation Practicum (1.5): After participation in an organized ropes course, the student is expected to create a series of activities designed to build a unity for crisis teams, trouble youth, etc. and conduct a mini-ropes course themselves as a collaborative group.

EDPC 667 Assessment of Learning Development (3): A practicum in diagnosis and remediation of learning difficulties, with emphasis on academic and perceptual assessment. Includes the utilization of a wide range of individual and group assessment instruments in laboratory and school situations.

Prerequisite: EDPC 664

EDPC 668 Assessment of Personal Adjustment (3): Theory, methods, and instruments for assessing personality traits and social adjustment. Competencies developed with various types of personality inventories and projective techniques.

EDPC 670 School Psychology Seminar (3): A casework practicum in preparing comprehensive individual education programs for normal and exceptional pupils in grades K-12. Includes procedures for parents and staff, in-service training of teachers, and program evaluation.

Prerequisites: EDPC 650, 661, 662, 664, 665, 667 & 668; or consent of the instructor.

Corequisite: EDPC 663

EDPC 674 Report Writing and Practicum (150 hours) (3): The practicum course will expose the candidate to beginning experiences and issues that school psychologists face. Candidates will apply referral questions and data collection strategies as well as practice making appropriate assessment choice, administration, scoring, and report writing. Ethical decision-making will be practiced whilst making these applications. Hours for this portion of the practica are typically acquired from the lab portion of the four assessment courses. In addition to these initial specific experiences, candidates will be placed in a field experience with a credentialed school psychologist who will supervise agreed upon experiences such as collaboration and consultation, wellness promotion, counseling and crisis intervention, educational planning and evaluation, and program planning and evaluation.

Prerequisite: For the nonlab portion, department approval at least six weeks prior to placement & completion of EDPC 650, 661, 662, 664, 665, 667 & 668
EDPC 675 Field Practice in School Psychology (300 hours) (1-3): The field practice course will expose the candidate to a broad base of experiences and issues that school psychologists face in multi-cultural/contextual settings. Building on initial experiences in EDPC 674, candidates will apply referral questions and data collection strategies as well as practice making appropriate assessment choice, administration, scoring, and report writing. Ethical decision-making will be practiced whilst making these applications. Hours are typically acquired from two school levels of pre-grade 12 so that candidates will have opportunities for diverse experiences. Candidates will fulfill this field experience with a credentialed school psychologist who will supervise agreed upon experiences such as individual assessment, collaboration and consultation, wellness promotion, counseling and crisis intervention, educational planning and evaluation, and program planning and evaluation.

Prerequisite: EDPC 664

EDPC 676 School Psychology Internship (1,200 hours) (4-12): The internship credential is the culminating experience prior to receiving the California State Credential in school psychology. During this time, candidates have the opportunity to demonstrate the full range of skills acquired during formal training and initial practica and field experiences and to acquire additional knowledge and skills most appropriately gained through supervised professional experience. Under the supervision of a credentialed school psychologist, candidates provide direct and indirect services to pupils, parents, and school staff. Candidates will fulfill this internship experience with a credentialed school psychologist who will provide face-to-face supervision in agreed upon experiences such as individual assessment, collaboration and consultation, wellness promotion, counseling and crisis intervention, educational planning and evaluation, and program planning and evaluation.

EDPC 694 Individual and Cultural Differences (3): The application of differential psychology to testing, learning, and school psychology procedures. Emphasis on cross-cultural, ethnic, and sex differences.

EDPC 694-P Individual and Cultural Differences Practicum (1.5): Attending no fewer than three cultural events approved by the instructor and sharing their experiences.

EDPC 696 Research Project (3): Execution and report of a research study in education. Student to register for course after consultation with advisor.

EDPC 698 Thesis (6): This course is centered around the writing of a thesis and will allow students to showcase their research abilities in the area concerning school psychology and counseling, as well as to pursue an issue of special interest in school psychology and counseling in further detail.

EDPC 699 Directed Study (1-4): The application of research methodology to the investigation of a limited, localized problem or program evaluation. Typically requires a written report in a format suitable for journal publication. Requires a Directed Study/Title form at time of registration. Graded on an S/U basis only.

Prerequisite: Consent of the department chair

EDPC 701 Seminar: Politics and Issues in Educational Testing (3-4): Examines political issues, public opinion, and various psychological and educational research findings related to school psychology, educational psychology, school policy, and education in general. This class requires the completion of an individual research project.

EDPC 705 Seminar: Intervention, Consultation, & Assessment (3-4): Analysis and discussion of the various roles of the professional consultant in the school setting. Topics include, but are not limited to, special needs requiring intervention and psychodiagnostic testing, the various intervention strategies and techniques employed when such intervention is required, and the purpose and goals of assessment.

EDPC 711 Seminar: Biological Psychology (3-4): Presents fundamental research on education and assessment-related neuroscience and its implications for learning theory and practice and psychological assessment. The symbiotic nature of brain function examined, compared, contrasted, and aligned with current psychological assessment and classroom instructional applications.

EDPC 715 Seminar: Alcohol and Drug Addiction (3-4.5): Presents recent research regarding how alcohol and various drugs affect brain chemistry. Assessment and diagnosis, a biopsychosocial model regarding etiology, and viable prevention and intervention models are also examined.

EDPC 715-P Seminar Practicum: Alcohol and Drug Addiction (1.5): The student will attend no fewer than three self-help open meetings and report on his/her experiences.

EDPC 741 Processes of Applied Behavior Analysis (4.5): Focus on the fundamental aspects of behavior change from the philosophy of behaviorism, including strategies and tactics, such as stimulus control and the nature of reinforcing and aversive stimuli and their properties, and how these influence behavior change. Also examines empirical research demonstrating these strategies.
EDPC 742 Applications of Applied Behavior Analysis (4.5):
Study of the complex aspects of behavior change strategies built upon fundamental behavioral principles. Examples of behavior change strategies from the basic and applied research literature will be covered. Major topics covered include verbal behavior, generalization and maintenance, contingency contracting, and self-management.

EDPC 743 Applied Behavior Analysis Assessment (4.5):
Introduction to the philosophy of behaviorism and the basic tenets of applied behavior analysis, focusing on behavioral assessment and observation, and time series research design, and its use in the scientific evaluation of behavior.

EDPC 744 Advanced Applications of Applied Behavior Analysis I (4.5): Examination of functional assessment and functional analysis procedures with a focus on educational settings. Emphasis on providing students with an understanding of procedural and conceptual issues surrounding evidence-based intervention design for people with severe behavior problems.

EDPC 745 Advanced Applications of Applied Behavior Analysis II (4.5 Units): Examination of advanced issues related to designing and evaluating behavioral assessment and instructional interventions in educational systems.

Educational Foundations

Educational Foundations courses are under the direction of the Department of Curriculum and Instruction.

COURSES

UPPER DIVISION

EDFO 305 Psychological Foundations of Education (4):
An introduction to development and learning principles applicable to classroom instruction and management. Psychological approaches to individual and cooperative instructional models, evaluation processes, moral education, and teacher-pupil roles. A basic prerequisite for many credential courses.

EDFO 404 Philosophy of Christian Education (3):
Examination of the basic ideas about education held by the Seventh-day Adventist church; the application of these ideas in Adventist schools and other education programs. Meets the credentials requirement for the class “Principles of Seventh-day Adventist Education”, utilizing the structure of philosophy as a way of examining these principles.

GRADUATE

EDFO 606 Sociology of Education (3):
A study of the relationships between schools and other social institutions, between schools and their communities, and within the subculture of the school. Emphasis on sociological and anthropological considerations as well as ethnic and cultural differences.

EDFO 624 Theory and Practice in Moral Development (3):
A study of current theory, philosophy, and practice in the art of moral education.

EDFO 645 History of Educational Thought (3):
A chronological investigation of Western educational philosophies from the time of Socrates to the present. Examines the impact of societal changes and the contribution of selected individuals to educational thought and practice.

EDFO 647 History and Philosophy of Higher Education (3):
An examination of the meaning, purpose, and development of higher education in the United States. Emphasizes theories and current research related to conflicts facing colleges and universities, and issues pertaining to academic life.

EDFO 791 Contemporary Issues in Education (3):
Issues viewed in the light of sociological and historical research, philosophical analysis, and the particular concerns of education. This capstone course examines issues related to education in general and the student’s area of specialization in general. Prerequisite: Consent of the advisor

Educational Research and Statistics

GRADUATE

EDRS 504 Methods and Materials of Research (3):
The terminology, methodology, and sequence of scholarly research, including problem formulation, literature review, sample selection, instrument design, statistical analysis, and report writing. Requires the production of a formal research proposal.

EDRS 504-P Methods and Materials of Research Practicum (1.5):
In addition to the formal research proposal stipulated in EDRS 504-A, students will be expected to gather a small research sample, conduct a data analysis, and report the results.

EDRS 604 Educational Statistics I (3):
Planning and conducting research with programs and materials in the student’s major area. Emphasis on evaluation research, statistical methods, survey design, qualitative research, and the critique of research. Laboratory required, as is the completion of an individual research project. Prerequisite: EDRS 504

EDRS 605 Qualitative Research I (3):
Introduction to the theory and practice of qualitative research. Students will identify the five approaches to qualitative research and develop skills in using the tools of qualitative research such as interviewing, observation, and data analysis. Students conduct simulated research activities, read scholarly qualitative research, and determine whether they wish to conduct qualitative or quantitative research for their dissertation. Prerequisite: EDRS 504 and acceptance into a post master’s degree program.
EDRS 702 Educational Statistics II (3): Fundamentals of statistical reasoning and the application of statistical techniques to research in the social sciences. Includes computer applications to research and statistics. Laboratory required with research application.
Prerequisites: EDRS 504 & EDRS 604

EDRS 703 Qualitative Research III (3): Introduction to the stages of conducting a qualitative research study. Students identify and narrow a topic for an independent research study for their dissertation. Students determine which of the five qualitative approaches they will use: case study, narrative, ethnography, phenomenology, or grounded theory. Students conduct an extensive literature review on their topic and prepare Chapters 1 and 2 for their dissertation proposal.
Prerequisites: EDRS 504 & EDRS 605 and acceptance into a doctoral degree program

Prerequisites: EDRS 504, 604 & either 702 or 703

EDRS 704B Qualitative Research Design (3): Guides students in designing the methodology for their qualitative research study, analyzing qualitative data, and writing the qualitative dissertation. Students complete Chapter 3 for their dissertation proposal, and develop skill in using NVivo, software for qualitative data analysis.
Prerequisites: EDRS 504, 605, & 703 and acceptance into a doctoral degree program

EDRS 712 Factor Analysis and Latent Modeling (3-4): Examines theories and application of statistics related to latent variables including factor analysis, path modeling, and structural equation modeling. Laboratory required with research application.
Prerequisites: EDRS 504, 604 & either 702 or 703

EDRS 721 Seminar: Standardized Test Development (3-4): Planning and conducting a standardized test development related to psychology, education, or other social issues. Laboratory required, and completion of a standardized psychological test.
Prerequisites: EDRS 712 or EDRS 504, 604 & either 702 or 703

EDRS 750 Research Projects in School/Educational Psychology (3): Students are required to complete one or more site-based, empirical data-driven research paper(s) related to school psychology, educational psychology, and selected issue areas for a potential peer-review conference presentation and/or publication.
Prerequisites: EDRS 712 or EDRS 504, 604 & either 702 or 703

EDRS 798 Doctoral Dissertation (1-12): Structured research, either qualitative or quantitative in nature, guided by the chair of the dissertation committee. Oral defense of written dissertation upon approval of manuscript by the dissertation committee.
Prerequisites: Successful completion of the Qualifying Examination & consent of the department chair

SECE 905 University Resources (1): Students must register for this course in order to have access to university resources, such as the library, during quarters in which the student is not enrolled in courses.
Prerequisite: Consent of instructor or department

SECE 910 Dissertation Continuation (1): In order to maintain an active registration status, students who have registered for all 12 units of dissertation credit and have not finished their dissertations must register for one Continuing Education unit for each quarter needed to complete the dissertation. In order to register for this course, students are required to have a Continuing Registration Contract on file with the School of Education.

Mission

The La Sierra University HMS Richards Divinity School, a theological school within the system of Seventh-day Adventist higher education, seeks to integrate believing, thinking, and acting through teaching, scholarship, dialogue, and service, preparing Christian leaders for effective ministries in the church, academy, and world in which we live.

Vision

We see ourselves as an open community of learning and service, conviction and hospitality, solidarity and diversity, where faith seeks both understanding and transformation.

Our vision is to be attentive to the calling of Jesus Christ to present truth,* while not forgetting how God has led us in our past history,* and ever listening and reaching out through the empowering of the Spirit to a changing church and world.

We seek to form leaders who will be both effective and winsome spokespersons for the gospel, and capable of courageously standing for the right though the heavens fall.* We seek collaborations with congregations and partner institutions where conversations can deepen our service in God’s cause in the world.

General Information

Purpose of Graduate Programs

Graduate programs in religion and theology underscore the university’s recognition of these fields as scholarly disciplines. They provide the proper context for continuing research and writing endeavors by competent students who are interested in furthering their education and in contributing to the discipline of religious studies or who wish to develop skills for the professional practice of Christian ministry.

Admission requirements

Admission requirements for all graduate degree programs at La Sierra University are stated in the Graduate Admission Information section of this bulletin. Such requirements apply to graduate programs in the Divinity School unless otherwise stated in the admission requirements listed under the various programs below.

Financial information

Financial information is in the section so labeled at the beginning of this bulletin. For verification of rate, please contact the Divinity School Office.

Division of Undergraduate Studies

Please see the Undergraduate Academic Bulletin

General Requirements

For information about requirements and practices to which all graduate students are subject, the student should consult the Academic Policies and Procedures section of this bulletin.

Structure of the Programs

Students should take careful note of the disciplinary structure of graduate programs in the Divinity School. There are a total of nine disciplinary foci: (A) methodology; (B) biblical languages; (C) biblical studies; (D) ethics, religion and society; (E) Christian theology; (F) history of Christianity; (G) Adventist studies; (H) phenomenology of religion, and world religions; and (I) practical theology, pastoral ministry, and mission. In each of these disciplinary areas there are three different kinds, tiers (or levels) of courses: foundational (or survey) courses; required core courses; and advanced elective courses. Foundational courses are only to be taken by students who have not completed a comparable course(s) on the undergraduate level, or otherwise do not have adequate or sufficiently relevant background. Required core courses are to be taken by students only after they have completed the related foundational course (if applicable). Advanced, often specialized, courses are always electives and should ideally be taken after completing the relevant required core course (but in any event can only be taken after completing any relevant foundational course). The foundational courses are listed below on the left, and the required core courses are listed in the right column, for each of the nine disciplinary areas:

*Note: Foundational courses above with an * are not required in the CMin program.

Note: Students must take RELG 510 at the beginning of their program, at its first availability.

Additional Notes:

1. Other REL_50_ courses are basic ‘foundational level’ electives.
2. Other REL_51_ and above courses, are advanced or specialized electives.
3. Courses numbered 500 to 589 are classroom courses; 590-99 are projects, practicums & fieldwork; and 600-99 consist of the following types of courses: seminars (600-669); reading tutorials (670s); special topics (695); together with, thesis (698); and directed study (699).
4. The MDiv program, in addition to the above, requires all students to complete a Project course (RELP 591 or 592 or 593), and RELP 595 Fieldwork in Pastoral Ministry.
5. The term “concentration” in the Divinity School is used in two ways: a) lower case, as a general reference for a cluster of courses; specifically a “focus” of 3 related courses (12 units; only applicable in the C.Min); an Emphasis of 4 to 5 related courses (16-20 units), and a Specialization of 6 to 7, or more, related courses (24 to 28 or more units); and b) Upper case (“Concentration”) as a specific indication in the student’s transcript of a cluster of at least 40 related units (at least 10 courses, e.g. a combined and related Emphasis and Specialization). All concentrations must be formalized through the use of a “concentration contract” as described under the relevant degrees below.
6. The MA in Religion program, as a focused degree, only includes the required core courses in selected areas.

Categories of Graduate Degree Programs in Religion and Theology

The graduate programs offered by the Divinity School fall into the categories of graduate academic and graduate professional. The former classification refers to programs that serve mainly to engage students in advanced academic studies in the field of religion beyond the baccalaureate level. Academic masters degrees provide a step towards specialized doctoral study in the academic discipline for those who wish to pursue it. The latter classification refers to programs that serve mainly to prepare students for the professional practice of Christian ministry. Professional masters degrees provide the basis for professional doctoral studies (as well as academic doctoral studies in certain fields).

Graduate Professional Programs in Ministry and Leadership

Graduate Professional Student Learning Outcomes

Students will be:

1. Skilled in methods of religious scholarship. Students demonstrate the basic skills required for the scholarly study of religion, including the ability to communicate effectively in writing.
2. Acquainted with basic biblical language tools. Students make accurate and effective use of the tools of biblical languages.
3. Grounded in the Bible. Students understand the historical, literary, and cultural contexts of the Bible, and its theological concepts, and perform responsible exegesis of the Bible which is true to the text and relevant for modern applications.
4. Ethically responsible.
   Students understand and demonstrate how religion, culture and society interrelate in the practice of social and personal ethics with regard to matters of professional ministry, public policy, justice and the common good.

5. Rooted in Christian Theology.
   Students understand Christian concepts and doctrines, and interpret their historical development and theological content, and integrate theological and philosophical concepts.

6. Historically responsible.
   Students know the development of Christian history.

7. Conversant with Adventist heritage.
   Students articulate the historical setting and contexts of the Adventist Church, are current on issues of theology and polity in the church, and understand and responsibly interpret Ellen White.

8. Knowledgeable in the phenomenon of religion.
   Students understand the phenomenon of religion in its leading, diverse expressions.

9. Professional and competent.
   a. Students confirm their calling in ministry and engage in disciplines of spiritual formation for sustaining vocational growth.
   b. Students demonstrate skills in the practice of ministry in light of biblical studies, theological insight, the local and global mission of the church, contemporary issues, and practical applications in the complexities of congregational life today.

Master of Divinity (MDiv)

The Master of Divinity program is a 136-unit graduate professional program that constitutes the recognized standard basic credential for ministerial leadership, and ordination to a pastoral ministry vocation. It is designed to provide students with the opportunity to engage in graduate-level study in the traditional areas of theological learning, including the wide variety of fields comprising the discipline of pastoral studies. Students also have the option of developing one or more emphases, concentrations or specializations.

The program is specifically intended to serve, but is not necessarily limited to, the following:

1. Ministers employed by Seventh-day Adventist conferences who want to increase their effectiveness by completing the requisite professional education for the pastorate.
2. College graduates who seek professional preparation for ministry.
3. Specialized church employees, such as religious educators, high school teachers, youth and children’s pastors, family pastors, and counselors, who desire a professional ministerial degree program with a concentration in their area of specialty.
4. Persons engaged in occupations other than ministry who believe they are called to pastoral ministry and therefore want to obtain the appropriate educational preparation.
5. Persons who wish to prepare for more advanced professional lay ministry in a local church.
6. Adequately prepared international students.
7. Pastors and other persons who are not Seventh-day Adventists.

Admission Requirements

1. For regular admission, applicants must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree or equivalent with a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.50 or better (on a 4-point scale) from a regionally or nationally accredited college or university. The Divinity School will consider for provisional admission a limited number of applicants to the program who do not meet all of these requirements. In such cases, the school may require admitted students to complete undergraduate or graduate courses in addition to the regular requirements.
2. International applicants must meet the requirements of the university for English-language competence.
3. Students may transfer up to 68 units from an approved graduate or graduate professional program in another university or seminary.

Course Requirements

A. Research and Writing
   - RELG 510 Research and Writing in Religion (4)

B. Biblical Languages 0-8
   - RELL 504 Linguistic Tools for Pastoral Ministry: Hebrew (4) or general program elective (4)
   - RELL 505 Linguistic Tools for Pastoral Ministry: Greek (4) or general program elective (4)

C. Biblical Studies 16
   - RELL 501 The Old Testament & Its Communities (4) or elective in Old Testament studies (4)
   - RELL 511 Interpreting OT Texts (4)
   - RELL 502 The New Testament & Its Communities (4) or elective in New Testament studies (4)
   - RELL 512 Interpreting NT Texts (4)

D. Christian Ethics 8
   - RELE 504 Christianity and Culture (4) or elective in ethics (4)

1. Students who have completed an undergraduate course in Biblical Hebrew of at least 3 quarter units or equivalent with a grade of B or better will take the 4-unit elective. Those who have completed 6 units of an undergraduate course in Beginning New Testament Greek or equivalent with a grade of B or better will take the 4-unit elective.
2. Students who have completed a comparable undergraduate introductory or survey course in this discipline of at least 4 quarter units or equivalent with a grade of B or better will take the 4-unit elective (or required core course).
• REL 514 Christian Social Ethics (4)

E. Christian Theology 16
• RELT 504 Principles of Christian Theology (4) or elective in theology (4)2
• RELT 514 Systematic Theology (4)
• RELT 515 Contemporary Issues in Theology (4) or elective in theology (4)3
• RELT 545 Christian Faith in the Modern World (4) or elective in theology (4)

F. History of Christianity 8
• RELH 504 A Survey History of Christianity (4) or elective in the history of Christianity (4)2
• RELH 514 Studies in the History of Christianity (4)

G. Seventh-day Adventist Studies 123
• RELH 506 History of Seventh-day Adventism (4) or elective in Adventist studies (4)
• RELT 516 Seventh-day Adventist Theology (4)
• RELT 556 Issues in SDA Theology (4) or elective in Adventist studies (4)
• RELH 586 The Life and Thought of Ellen White (4) or elective in Adventist studies (4)

H. World Religions 4
• RELG 501 The Study of Religion: Theory & Practice (4)6 or if equivalently prepared
• RELG 511 The Religions of the World (4)

I. Pastoral Ministry 564
• RELP 504 The Calling and Spiritual Identity of the Pastor (4)5, and/or
• RELP 514 Practical Theology (4)6
• RELP 591 Ministry Practice and Project (4), or RELP 592 (4) or RELP 593 (4)
• RELP 595 Fieldwork in Pastoral Ministry (1)

The balance required must be selected from RELP/M courses (see course listing).

J. Electives 4-127

Total 136

3. Students whose faith tradition differs from that of the Seventh-day Adventist Church may substitute 12 units of courses from their own tradition with the approval of the director of graduate programs.
4. Students electing to do a concentration (i.e. emphasis, interdisciplinary or collaborative specialization) must work out a “Concentration Contract” with their advisor, specifying all courses that will go towards making up the concentration, before commencing with this part of their degree. This must be signed by the director of graduate programs (and in the case of an interdisciplinary concentration, by the Dean or Associate Dean) before commencement of the concentration components of the degree. Guideline sheets with sample curricula are available for these concentrations.
5. This foundational course should only be taken by those without a religion/theology undergraduate, or career background.
6. All MDiv students will take this required core class.
7. Students who must take both linguistic tools courses will have 4 general program elective units. Those who must take only one will have eight general program elective units. Others will have 12 general program elective units. These electives can be taken in any of the nine disciplinary areas of study. The general program electives are over-and-above any discipline specific electives that a student might have due to undergraduate preparation.
8. The following are examples of potential concentrations offered through the Divinity School: Biblical Languages, Christian ethics, Christian theology, history of Christianity, New Testament, Old Testament, pastoral counseling, pastoral leadership, preaching and worship, youth and young adult ministry. The following are examples of concentrations offered in cooperation with other schools of the university: Christian (Religious) education, worship and the arts, sacred music, pastoral leadership and management, philanthropy, and social justice. Students may obtain the requirements and course suggestions for concentrations from the Office of the Divinity School or the director of graduate programs.
9. Students can elect to do an emphasis (16-20 units; i.e. 4-5 courses) or specialization (24-28, or more units; i.e. 6-7 courses).

Other Notes, Requirements and Regulations

1. The director of graduate programs for the Divinity School will assign students advisors appropriate to their programs.
2. Full-time students will enroll in a maximum of 4 courses (16 units) per quarter.
3. Students must maintain a grade point average of 3.00 or better, with no individual course grade lower than C counting for credit.
4. Concentrations: Students who have sufficient electives available may cluster them in one or more emphases (16-20 units; i.e. 4-5 courses), or specializations (24-28, or more, units; i.e. 6-7 courses)4. While a concentration in the traditional theological disciplines (areas A-H) is possible (e.g. an emphasis), specialization is more likely in the area of Pastoral Ministry (area I), given the number of required units and the wide scope for electives. See below for further details on potential concentrations.
5. Any emphasis, concentration, or interdisciplinary specialization earned and certified in the MTS program can be fully transferable to the MDiv program and appear as such in the student’s transcript, if they are admitted to the MDiv within five years of completion of the MTS and opt to upgrade the MTS to the MDiv degree (which requires the turning in of the former diploma).

Further Elaboration of Concentration Possibilities

More specifically, the program provides:

1. Opportunity for a concentration8 in an aspect of pastoral ministry, such as:
   • Youth Ministry; Family Ministry; Cross-Cultural and Urban Ministries; Preaching; Ministry in a Post-Modern Context; Cross-Cultural Missions; Creative Evangelism; Relief and Development; Community Service; and Social Justice.

2. Opportunity for an interdisciplinary concentration or specialization, such as:
   • Pastoral Counseling (in collaboration with the School of Education; the Department of Psychology in the College of Arts and Sciences; Loma Linda University, and the national Clinical Pastoral Education—CPE program
• Chaplaincy (in collaboration with Adventist Health Systems & Loma Linda University)
• Ministry and the Arts (in collaboration with the graduate program of the Department of English and Communication; and the Departments of Art, and Music, in the College of Arts and Sciences)
• Religious Education (in collaboration with the School of Education; with the option of obtaining a teaching credential)
• Pastoral Leadership & Management (in collaboration with the School of Business)
• Christian Philanthropy (in collaboration with the School of Business, and the La Sierra University Center for Philanthropy)
• Worship and Music (in collaboration with the Department of Music of the College of Arts and Sciences)

3. Opportunity for inter-institutional enrichment of the program. Students may transfer up to half of their program requirements from other appropriate and accredited institutions on a course-by-course basis.

MDIV/MBA

A combined program leading to the completion of both the Master of Divinity and Master of Business Administration degrees is offered jointly by the Divinity School and the School of Business. The program is designed especially for persons interested in congregational leadership, church administration, church planting, and the use of entrepreneurial skills to enhance congregational and community life.

Twelve units completed in the Divinity School by a student enrolled in the program may be used to fulfill requirements for the MBA program, and twelve units completed in the School of Business by such a student may be used to fulfill requirements for the MDiv program, with the result that twenty-four fewer units will be required to complete the combined program than would be required to complete the two degrees separately.

A student wishing to complete the combined degree must be accepted into both the MDiv and the MBA programs. For further information, please contact the Divinity School dean’s office or the School of Business dean’s office.

Graduate Certificate in Ministry (CMin)

The Graduate Certification in Ministry program is a 36-unit foundational professional curriculum designed to introduce students to the study of the various traditional disciplines comprising theological studies, and acquaint them with an aspect of ministry.

More specifically, the program provides:

1. Training for suitably qualified lay persons who believe they are called to lead out in an aspect of ministry in their local congregations.
2. Introduction to graduate-level study for those tentatively considering a career in pastoral ministry. Such students might have some practical experience in working in a congregation, but might not have the necessary undergraduate qualifications.
3. Basic foundational study, at a graduate level, of the traditional theological disciplines for personal or continuing education purposes.

Admission Requirements

1. For regular admission, applicants must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree or equivalent with a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.50 or better (on a 4-point scale) from a regionally or nationally accredited college or university. The Divinity School will consider for provisional admission applicants who do not meet all of these requirements.
2. International applicants must meet the requirements of the university for English-language competence.
3. Students may request transfer of up to 18 units from another approved program.

Course Requirements

A. Research and Writing - 0
B. Biblical Languages - 0
C. Biblical Studies - 8
  • RELB 501 The Old Testament and Its Communities (4)

10. Students whose faith tradition differs from that of the Seventh-day Adventist Church may substitute 4 units of coursework from their own tradition with the approval of the director of professional graduate studies.
11. Students who can demonstrate adequate knowledge of Seventh-day Adventist history, may elect to take one of the alternative courses listed in this section.
Graduate Academic Programs in Religion and Theology

Graduate Academic Student Learning Outcomes

Students in the Master of Arts in Religion program will demonstrate:
1. Knowledge of the primary and secondary literature in a particular field of religious studies.
2. Knowledge of the critical issues and the history of scholarship of the field of specialization.
3. Knowledge of the biblical, historical, and theological resources of the field of specialization.
4. Knowledge of and competence in the principal methods of the field of specialization.
5. Competence in scholarly research and writing in the field of specialization.
6. Understanding of the ongoing value and relevance of the field of specialization.
7. Understanding of the ethical and social responsibilities of a scholar in the field of specialization.

Students in the Master of Theological Studies program will demonstrate:
1. Knowledge of the primary and secondary literature in the field of religious studies.
2. Knowledge of the critical issues and the history of scholarship in religious studies.
3. Knowledge of the biblical, historical, and theological resources in religious studies.
4. Knowledge of and competence in the principal methods used in religious studies.
5. Competence in scholarly research and writing in religious studies.
6. Understanding of the ongoing value and relevance of religious studies.
7. Understanding of the ethical and social responsibilities of a scholar in religious studies.

Master of Arts (MA)

The Master of Arts in religion is a focused graduate academic program designed to provide students with the opportunity to engage in advanced study and research in a specific academic discipline within the field of religious studies. Persons without adequate background in religious studies will normally require two years of academic study. Those admitted with prior extensive undergraduate studies in religion, or with some advanced study in theology and/or other appropriate foundational areas, may complete the program with one year of full-time course work, in addition to the thesis and/or comprehensive examination.

Among the various reasons students may pursue this program are:

1. To acquire a general understanding of a specific discipline (and a cognate area) in the field of religious studies for further graduate study or for general educational purposes.
2. To provide a basic foundation for doctoral work in the chosen field of religious studies.
3. To explore advanced personal interests in religious studies.

Admission Requirements

1. For regular admission, applicants must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree or equivalent with a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.00 or better (on a 4-point scale) from a regionally or nationally accredited college or university.
2. Applicants who meet the GPA requirements stated above may: (a) receive regular admission by submitting the official results from the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) with scores that meet or exceed the standards of the school; or (b) receive provisional admission while completing 12 units of courses in the program with grades of B or better, while preparing for, taking and submitting the official results from the Graduate Record Examination (GRE), during the provisional period. However, the school retains the right to require GRE scores from any applicant in advance of admission.
3. International applicants must meet the requirements of the university for English-language competence. The school will consider waiving this requirement for international applicants who have demonstrated success in graduate courses or programs offered in English at other universities.
4. Students must have adequate undergraduate or graduate preparation in their major and minor area of study. Some deficiencies can be met by taking specific prerequisite courses (e.g. at the REL_ .50_ level) before being accepted into the program, or before taking a specific advanced class. Such prerequisites do not count towards the 48 required units in the program.
5. Students may transfer up to 24 units from an approved graduate program in another university.

Course Requirements

General Studies (4)
- RELG 510 Research and Writing in Religion (4)

Major Area Studies (24-28)
- Required Core Course(s) in disciplinary area of major. Other courses must be REL_ .51_ and above. Ideally should include a reading tutorial and at least one seminar in the major area of study.

Minor Area Studies (8-16)
- Required Core Course(s) in disciplinary area. Other courses must be REL_ .51_ and above.

Thesis in Major Area (0-8)
- REL_ .698_ (4), which may be repeated once.

Electives (0-4)

Total {48}

Students who choose to write a thesis will normally complete a major of 24 units and a minor of 8-12 units.

Students may select traditional majors and minors from the standard academic disciplines in the field of religious studies (e.g., biblical studies, Christian ethics, systematic theology, practical theology, comparative religions, history of Christianity); subcategories of these disciplines (e.g., Old or New Testament studies, Seventh-day Adventist studies); or interdisciplinary studies (e.g., religious studies and literature, science and religion). Students may create an individualized program of study by proposing their own appropriately academic major and minor with the approval of their advisor and the director of graduate programs. PLEASE NOTE: Professional courses (i.e. RELMs and RELPs) are not applicable to the MA in Religion degree.

Other Requirements and Regulations

1. The director of graduate programs for the Divinity School will assign each student an advisor appropriate to the field(s) of study.
2. The director of academic graduate programs, in consultation with the students and their advisors, will appoint an examination-thesis committee.
3. Students must pass a written comprehensive examination in their field(s) of study prepared by the examination-thesis committee in consultation with the students and their advisors.
4. At the discretion of the examination-thesis committee, students may be required to pass a reading proficiency examination in a language other than English if a level of competence is integral to the specific chosen field(s) of study (e.g. Hebrew for OT, Greek for NT, etc.).
5. Full-time students will enroll in an average of 12 units of courses per quarter for four quarters, during which they will independently prepare for the comprehensive examination and, if required, the language proficiency examination.
The Master of Theological Studies is a broad graduate academic program oriented toward general theological studies, normally requiring two years of academic full-time study. It is designed to provide students with the opportunity to acquire a survey knowledge of the broad range of theological disciplines, and provides for the option of a concentration or interdisciplinary focus. Persons admitted with some advanced theological study or with prior extensive undergraduate studies in religion and/or other appropriate foundational areas may complete the program with one year of full-time course work, in addition to the summative concluding project. Among the various reasons students may pursue this program are:

1. To acquire the knowledge and competence for teaching religious studies (e.g. “Bible” at the secondary level.
2. To provide upgrading, refreshing or retooling for experienced pastors who do not have a graduate theological degree, but have an adequate religion/theology background.
3. To provide a broad general study of the various theological disciplines (for those either with or without a religion/theology background), that can be applicable to further study in either professional or academic tracks.
4. To provide a basic foundation for doctoral work in theology or religious studies.
5. To explore broad personal interests in theology.

Admission requirements

1. For regular admission, applicants must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree or equivalent with a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.50 or better (on a 4-point scale) from a regionally or nationally accredited college or university. The Divinity School will consider for provisional admission a limited number of applicants who do not meet all of these requirements. In such cases, the school may require admitted students to complete additional undergraduate or graduate courses over and above the regular requirements.
2. Applicants who meet the GPA requirements stated above may receive regular admission (a) by submitting the official results from the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) with scores that meet or exceed the standards of the school; or (b) by completing 12 units of courses in the program as a provisional student with grades of B or better. However, the school retains the right to require GRE scores from any applicant in advance of admission.

3. International applicants must meet the requirements of the university for English-language competence.
4. Students may transfer up to half the number of required units from an approved graduate or graduate professional program in another university or seminary.

Course requirements:

[Numbers in {} brackets are the minimum number of units required for students with extensive undergraduate or relevant graduate background in the specific area in question]

A. Research and Writing - 4 {4}

   - RELH 514 Studies in the History of Christianity (4)\(^{13}\), or an elective in the history of Christianity (4)

12. Students who have completed an undergraduate course in Biblical Hebrew of at least 3 quarter units or equivalent with a grade of B or better will not have to take RELL 504. Those who have completed at least 6 undergraduate quarter units or equivalent in History of Christianity with an average grade of B or better will not have to take RELH 504.
13. Students who have completed a comparable undergraduate survey course in this discipline of at least 4 quarter units or equivalent with a grade of B or better will take the 4-unit required course instead.
14. Students who have completed a comparable course to the required core course, at the graduate level with the grade of B or better, will take the 4 unit elective in the field of the discipline.
G. Seventh-day Adventist Studies - 8 {4}^{15}
- RELH 506 History of Seventh-day Adventism (4)^{13}, and/or
- RELT 516 Seventh-day Adventist Theology (4)^{14}, or elective in Adventist studies (4)

Electives can be drawn from offerings such as:
- RELH 586 The Life and Thought of Ellen White (4)
- RELT 556 Issues in Seventh-day Adventist Theology (4)

H. World Religions - 4 [0* see footnote]^{16}
- RELG 501 The Study of Religion: Theory & Practice (4)^{17}, or if equivalently prepared
- RELG 511 The Religions of the World (4)^{16}

I. Practical Theology - 8 [4]
- RELP 504 The Calling and Spiritual Identity of the Pastor (4)^{18}, and/or
- RELP 514 Practical Theology (4)

J. Electives - 24 [16]^{19}
- Students can create discipline-specific or interdisciplinary concentrations using their elective units to develop: an Emphasis (16-20 units; i.e. 4-5 courses); or a Specialization (24-28 or more units; i.e. 6-7 courses) will be noted as such on the student’s transcript. This requires formalization through the use of a “Concentration Contract” form [See details below].

Total 96 [48]

Other requirements and regulations

1. The director of graduate programs for the Divinity School will assign students their advisors.

15. Students whose faith tradition differs from that of the Seventh-day Adventist Church may substitute up to 8 units of courses from their own tradition with the approval of the director of academic graduate studies.
16. All students must register for at least four quarter units in this field (H. World Religions) at the graduate level, regardless of undergraduate preparation. However, students who have an undergraduate major in religious studies or theology, and who wish to have a full compliment of 16 electives for an emphasis in some field of Practical Theology, may elect to meet this requirement by registering to Audit the relevant class. While this will increase the student’s course load slightly, the additional four units will be at the Audit rate (see the financial section of the current Graduate Bulletin). Students that have had at least four quarter units in the “phenomenology of religion; world religions; comparative religions” field, at either the undergraduate or graduate level, must register for RELG 511 Religions of the World.
17. Students who have completed a similar undergraduate introductory or survey course in this field of at least 4 quarter units or equivalent with a grade of B or better, will not be required to take this course, but must take the required core course instead. *See previous footnote.
18. Only those without a religion/theology/pre-sem undergraduate, or career background, take this course.
19. Students electing to do a concentration must work out a “Concentration Contract” with their advisor, specifying all courses that will go towards making up the concentration, before commencing with this part of their degree. This must be signed by the academic graduate program director (and in the case of interdisciplinary concentrations by the DS Dean or Associate Dean) before commencement of the concentration components of the degree. Guideline sheets with sample curricula are available.

2. Full-time students will normally enroll in 3 courses (12 units) per quarter.
3. Students must maintain a grade point average of 3.00 or better, with no individual course grade lower than C counting for credit.
4. Electives: Students choose general program electives from among the graduate courses offered by the Divinity School that are not required for the MTS program. With the permission of the director of graduate programs, they may fulfill such electives through graduate courses offered by other schools of the University, or by transfer credits from other accredited programs.
5. The adequacy of undergraduate preparation is determined on a field-by-field (i.e. A-I) and individual-course basis. Thus, the actual number of required units will fall in a range between the minimum of 48 and the maximum of 96. A student with a La Sierra University religious studies major and pre-seminary program (with course grades at B or better) meets all of the foundational requirement for the MTS degree.
6. Concentrations: The following are examples of areas for potential concentration drawing primarily on Divinity School resources: Biblical languages, Biblical archaeology, Christian ethics, Christian theology, History of Christianit, New Testament, Old Testament, Adventist Studies, World Religions, and Practical theology (including sub-fields like Youth Ministry, etc.). The following are examples of interdisciplinary concentrations created in cooperation with other schools of the university: Christian (Religious) education, religion and the arts, religion and literature, sacred music, Christian leadership and management, philanthropy, and social justice. Students may obtain the requirements and course suggestions for concentrations from the Office of the Divinity School or the director of academic graduate studies.
7. Summative Concluding Project: All MTS students will be required to complete a “portfolio,” before graduation, for the purpose of summative evaluation. The portfolio will include papers and other completed tasks from the beginning of the program to the end, including each course taken; the student’s personal reflections on their individual “journeys” in their quest for theological understanding and faith maturation; explicit efforts at “integration” and overcoming the “fragmentation” of theologiae (Edward Fares’ term); documentation of extra-curricular, creative, or otherwise distinctive efforts at theological learning and doing (e.g. blogging, video productions, articles published, projects undertaken, mission trips, study tours, academic/professional conferences attended, etc.). The summative portfolio must be signed by the student’s advisor and the director of graduate programs, and handed in to the Dean’s Office not later than the middle of the Spring Quarter of the year the student plans on graduating. Students will give an oral presentation of their portfolio to the wider Divinity School student and faculty community.
at an appropriately designated time and place during the Spring Quarter. The Office of the Dean has further information regarding the MTS summative portfolio.
8. Students who have completed the MTS within 5 years will be eligible for automatic admission to the MDiv program, and receive due credit for work done. Upon completion of all requirements students will be required to exchange their MTS diploma for the M.Div diploma. Any emphases, concentrations or interdisciplinary specializations earned in the MTS will transfer and be noted as such in the MDiv transcript. MTS degrees older than 5 years will be evaluated on the individual merits of the case.
9. Students who have completed the MTS within 5 years may request admission to the MA in Religion program with advanced standing. Upon regular admission to the MA program (by having met all the normal entrance requirements), a student may petition to have up to 8 relevant units (2 courses), at the REL_ 51_ and above level, applied to the appropriate part of his or her MA program, thereby reducing the total number of credits required.

La Sierra University Faculty

La Sierra University is a school diverse at countless levels, including at the faculty level. LSU depends on a number of important people who aid in the educational offerings at this school. Those people include collaborating and adjunct faculty members, lecturers, and others who come from various other programs and schools to enrich the University. Although these individuals’ presence at LSU often varies from quarter to quarter, there are other teachers who maintain faculty status at La Sierra University. It is these faculty members who act as the core, working diligently both in their respective departments/programs as well as serving in various additional posts, appointments and committees. It is these full-time faculty members that are listed alphabetically below. For more information on any given faculty member, please consult the bulletin by turning to the department under which the faculty member is listed or contact the University directly.
