Our Mission
As members of the diverse La Sierra community, we are committed to inquiry, learning, and service. Our community is rooted in the Christian gospel and Seventh-day Adventist values and ideals.

Our mission is:

TO SEEK truth, enlarging human understanding through scholarship;

TO KNOW God, ourselves, and the world through reflection, instruction, and mentoring;

TO SERVE others, contributing to the good of our local and global communities.

We pursue this mission with excellence, integrity, compassion, and mutual respect.

Our Directional Values:
The following stipulations provide an important context, parameters, and directions for our goals and institutional decisions. We are committed to:

1. Embracing our Seventh-day Adventist beliefs, values, and identity in a spirit of openness, contributing reflectively to their continuing development, and pursuing the integration of faith and learning.
2. Enlarging human understanding through research and scholarship by faculty members and students, undergraduates as well as graduates.
3. Nurturing a culture of improvement and innovation, facilitated by internal assessment and external accreditation.
5. Achieving an enrollment level that will maximize the efficient use of human, financial, and physical resources.
6. Offering every student a robust liberal arts education, faithful to a Seventh-day Adventist vision of global citizenship, service, and diversity.
7. Encouraging student development and sustained engagement in learning through a co-curriculum rooted in a philosophy of nurturing the whole person.
8. Acting in responsible ways with the resources entrusted to us by students, parents, donors and the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
9. Using technology to develop a more discerning, informed, and connected university community.

We reaffirm our dedication to fulfilling each of these commitments in an ethically appropriate manner.
