Bachelor of Music

The objectives of this department are to help the student gain an understanding and appreciation of the musical heritage of man, and to provide leisure-time, cultural and artistic activities, such as group music experiences and intelligent listening to aid the student in acquiring the knowledge, techniques, and skills necessary for performers, composers, church musicians, and teachers.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES AND RELATED OCCUPATIONS: Graduates from this program are qualified for performance, teaching, part-time work for instrumental artists in local orchestras, and vocal artists in churches.

EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS: Graduate training is a must in order to obtain levels of expertise. Teaching credentials must be obtained in order to teach. For information regarding teaching certification programs, please visit La Sierra University’s School of Education webpage at www.lasierra.edu/education. For information regarding the Music Education degree, please visit our department webpage at www.lasierra.edu/music or the appropriate curriculum sheet.

JOB OUTLOOK: Employment of musicians, singers, directors, and composers are expected to grow by 5 percent from 2012 to 2022, slower than the average for all occupations.

ENTERING SALARY: Earnings often depends on a performer’s professional reputation, place of employment, and on the number of hours worked. In May 2012, wages for music directors and composers began under $21,450 and reached a median of $47,350. The hourly wages for musicians and singers began under $8.50 and reached a median of $22.77.
