MUSIC EDUCATION
Bachelor of Music

The objectives of this department are to help the student gain an understanding and appreciation of the musical heritage of man, and to provide leisure-time, cultural and artistic activities, such as group music experiences and intelligent listening to aid the student in acquiring the knowledge, techniques, and skills necessary for performers, composers, church musicians, and teachers.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES AND RELATED OCCUPATIONS: Graduates of this program are qualified to teach all educational levels with some additional education classes.

EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS: Graduate training and teacher certification is required for teaching on the elementary and high school levels. Study while on the job is common. For employment in higher education, a master’s or doctoratal degree is usually preferred.

JOB OUTLOOK: The median annual wage for middle school teachers was $55,860 in May 2015. The lowest 10 percent earned less than $37,350, and the highest 10 percent earned more than $87,060. Employment of high school teachers is projected to grow 6 percent from 2014 to 2024, about as fast as the average for all occupations. Employment of postsecondary teachers is projected to grow 11 percent from 2014 to 2024, faster than the average for all occupations. Both part-time and full-time postsecondary teachers are included in this projection.

ENTERING SALARY: In May 2012 the median annual wage of middle school teachers was $53,430 with salaries beginning below $36,740. The median annual wage for high school teachers was $57,200 in May 2015. The lowest 10 percent earned less than $37,800, and the highest 10 percent earned more than $91,190. The median annual wage for postsecondary teachers was $65,430 in May 2015.
