UNIVERSITY STUDIES SERVICE-LEARNING (3 courses)

Note: A maximum of 4 major units and 8 cognate units may be applied to University Studies General Studies. All students must complete a minimum of 190 units (60 upper division) of coursework to earn a bachelor degree.
MUSIC
Bachelor of Arts

The objectives of this department are to help the student gain an understanding and appreciation of the musical heritage of man, and to provide leisure-time, cultural and artistic activities, such as group music experiences and intelligent listening to aid the student in acquiring the knowledge, techniques, and skills necessary for performers, composers, church musicians, and teachers.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES AND RELATED OCCUPATIONS: This major is a liberal arts major for general education with an emphasis in music. It provides a basis for further degrees, i.e. musicology. Teaching is also a possibility with this major. Additional coursework and/or work experience may be required for specific music occupations. See below for more information.

EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS: In addition to a B.A. degree, advanced study is needed in specializing areas. Teaching credentials are required for teaching music in a school system. For information regarding teaching certification programs, please visit La Sierra University’s School of Education webpage at www.lasierra.edu/education. For information regarding the Music Education degree, please visit our department webpage at www.lasierra.edu/music or the appropriate curriculum sheet.

JOB OUTLOOK: Employment of musicians and singers is projected to grow 3 percent from 2014 to 2024, slower than the average for all occupations.

ENTERING SALARY: In May 2015, the median hourly wages for musicians and singers in the top industries in which they worked were as follows:

- Performing arts, spectator sports, and related industries: $26.94
- Educational services; state, local, and private: $22.20
- Religious, grantmaking, civic, professional, and similar organizations: $20.54
