

La Sierra University/MAUC Extended Campus – Summer 2025

Course Descriptions: Register at this LSU website and with the Summer School Authorization form https://lasierra.edu/education/extended-campuses/mid-america-students/
EDAD 598/EDCI 598- 3 quarter/2 semester hours Seminar in Current Trends June 16 - June 26 9:00 - 12:00 am CST (in person & online) CST - Central Standard Time Zone John Chen	Exploration of current thought and writings in educational policy issues, curriculum, leadership, and administrative implementation. Readings from current literature and newsletters from professional organizations. This course is structured to view curricula from both administrative and instructional viewpoints
EDAD 540/ EDCI 540- 3 quarter/2 semester hours Philosophical & Personal Aspects of Leadership June 16 - June 26 1:00 - 4:00 pm CST (in person & online) CST - Central Standard Time Zone John Chen	Students in this course explore their own leadership styles, philosophical and personal perspectives and how those characteristics impact the individual as an educational leader.
EDCI 580 - 3 quarter/2 semester hours Cooperative Learning June 30- July 10 9:00-12:00 pm CST (in person & online) CST - Central Standard Time Zone Susan Byers	This course explores Kagan Cooperative Learning strategies and their application in K-12 classrooms. Participants will engage in collaborative learning experiences, develop strategies for managing cooperative groups, and integrate cooperative learning structures to enhance student engagement and academic achievement.
EDCI 514 -3 quarter/2 semester hours Curriculum Planning July 14- July 24 9:00-12:00 pm (in person & online) CST - Central Standard Time Zone Carisa Carr	Curriculum Planning, provides an overview of current and historical philosophical trends; focuses on issues related to curriculum such as issues of gender, cultural/ethnic diversity; and reviews what works in delivering instruction.
EDCI/ EDAD 597- 3 - 6 quarter hours Master's Project June 16 - July 24 Chang-Ho Ji	Culminating scholarly research/ writing project for master's degree students.