W4 Guide for Employees

The Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Certificate, has been updated for 2020 and is significantly different from previous versions. This is due to the federal tax law changes that took place in 2018.

Before completing the 2020 Form W-4, please read the instructions that are included with the form.

Anyone completing the new 2020 W4 is required to complete Steps 1 AND 5.

Complete Steps 2 through 4 ONLY if they apply to you.

Step 1 is for your personal information (Required)
Step 2 is for households with multiple jobs
Step 3 is used to claim tax credits for dependents
Step 4 is for other adjustments (additional income such as interest and dividends, itemized deductions that exceed the standard deduction, and extra tax you want withheld)
Step 5 is where you sign the form (Required)

If you are an International (F1) Student:
Nonresident aliens, such as F1 students for tax purposes are required to complete Step 1a & b and MUST select "Single" for 1(c) regardless of whether or not you are married AND write "NRA" under line 4(c) and sign and date in Step 5. See page 8 of the guide for an example.

If you plan to claim EXEMPT on your W4:
Individuals who would like to claim EXEMPT and meet the conditions to do so, should pay close attention to page 9 of the guide.

The IRS is not requiring all employees to complete the revised form and has designed the withholding tables to work with both the new and prior year forms. However, anyone hired as of January 1, 2020, those who claimed exempt in 2019, and anyone who makes withholding changes during 2020 are required to complete the new 2020 form.

The IRS takes your privacy seriously and suggests that, if you are worried about reporting income from multiple jobs in Step 2 or other income in Step 4(a), you check the box in Step 2(c) or enter an additional withholding amount in Step 4(c). To determine the additional withholding amount, you can use the withholding estimator.

The IRS recommends taxpayers with the following profiles to check their withholding:

- Two income families
- Individuals with two or more jobs at the same time or who only work for part of the year
- Individuals with children who claim credits like the child tax credit
- Individuals who itemized deductions in the previous tax year
- Individuals with high incomes and more complex tax returns

The IRS has also published FAQ that you may find helpful as you complete the form (https://www.irs.gov/newsroom/faqs-on-the-draft-2020-form-w-4).
2020 W-4: Step 1

Step 1 is mostly unchanged. You will need to fill out your basic information, such as your name, social security number, address, with city/town, state and zip and finally your filing status.

Here's what it looks like:

!Employee's Withholding Certificate

- (a) Enter your full name
- (b) Enter your Social Security #
- Write in your mailing address
- (c) Select your filing status

Below the personal information fields in Step 1, there are Steps 2 through 4. Most likely, these steps will not apply to you if you are single with only one job or you are married and your spouse does not work.
Section 2 addresses the "Two Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet" from the 2019 W-4 form. Most commonly, this step is for anyone who has more than one job or is married filing jointly and whose spouse works.

Checking box 2(c), let's us know that you have multiple jobs (one on-campus, PLUS an additional job off-campus).

In this step, the form notes that individuals with multiple jobs (again, one on-campus, plus one or more off-campus positions), should complete the Form W-4 with the information from your highest-paying job, which should result in the most accurate withholding.

Step 3: Claim Dependents

This section determines your eligibility for the child tax credit.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Step 3: Claim Dependents</th>
<th>If your income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000  ▶ $</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 . . . . ▶ $</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Add the amounts above and enter the total here . . . . . . . . . ▶ $</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The number of qualifying children under the age of 17 multiplied by $2000 will go into the first box. The number of other dependents multiplied by $500 will go in the second. The sum of those two numbers will go on line 3.
Step 4: Other Adjustments

This section is for various things you may want to account for.

Here is what it looks like:

Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments

(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income.

(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here.

(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period.

(a) Other income (not from jobs). Enter the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. This may include interest, dividend, and retirement income. You should not include income from wages.

(b) Deductions. Enter the amount from the W-4 Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as student loan interest.

(c) Extra Withholding. Enter any additional tax you would like withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the W-4 Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 5: Sign the Form

Step 5 of the W-4 is Required to be valid.

Sign and date the form for it to be valid.
New Worksheets on Form W4

Multiple Jobs Worksheet
If you choose option (b) in Step 2, you will need to complete the Multiple Jobs worksheet. According to the IRS, this worksheet is less accurate than the tax estimator, but it provides the maximum amount of privacy.

Step 2(b) — Multiple Jobs Worksheet  (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

1. Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you’re married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the “Higher Paying Job” row and the “Lower Paying Job” column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1.

   1 $

2. Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

   - a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the “Higher Paying Job” row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the “Lower Paying Job” column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a.

   2a **$

   - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the “Higher Paying Job” row and use the annual wages for your third job in the “Lower Paying Job” column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b.

   2b **$

   - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c.

   2c **$

3. Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.

   3

4. Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld).

   4 $

Line 1

Line 1 is for anyone who has two jobs or is filing jointly with a spouse who also works.

Using the tables on page 4 of the W4, find the wages or salary for the “Higher Paying Job” in the column on the left (see below) and cross reference it with the amount of wages or salary from the “Lower Paying Job” in the columns moving left to right.
At the intersection of these two amounts is the figure you will enter on line 1.

NOTE: the sample above is the table for taxpayers who are married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er). There is a separate table for single and married filing separately taxpayers and yet another separate table for taxpayers filing as head of household. Be sure that you are using the right table.

Line 2

Line 2 is for someone who has three total jobs on their own or with a spouse.

Line 2a is for the two highest-paying jobs. Again, find the wages or salary for the highest-paying job in the column on the left and the wages or salary for the second-highest across the top. The figure at the intersection of those two figures will go on line 2a.

For line 2b, the wages and salaries for the two highest-paying jobs need to be added together and found in the column on the left. The wages and salaries for the third job will be found in the row across the top of the table. The value at the intersection of those two figures will go on line 2b. The sum of lines 2a and 2b will go on line 2c.

Line 3

Line 3 and 4 apply to anyone who chooses to fill out the Multiple Jobs Worksheet.

Line 3 is the number of pay periods per year for the highest-paying job. For example, if that job pays bi-weekly (like La Sierra University), then 26 will go on line 3. If the job pays bi-monthly, then 24 would be entered.

Line 4

Line 4 simply divides the amount on either line 1 or 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. It's the amount that's provided in step 4c.
Deductions Worksheet
The deductions worksheet is for anyone who plans to itemize deductions.

For 2020, if you believe your itemized deductions will exceed $12,200 (if you are single or married filing separate), $24,400 (if you are married filing jointly), or $18,350 (if you are the head of household), you should consider filling out the deductions worksheet.

Anyone filling out this worksheet, should have their prior-year tax return handy to help get a good idea of what those deductions might be.

<table>
